Today's Easter Theme

*To love is to have a glimpse of God.
To love perfectly is to see the face of God.*

SUNDAY'S READINGS

Excerpts to think about

First Reading

"In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him." (Acts 10:34-35)

In the home of the Gentile-believer, Cornelius, Peter revealed one of the most significant insights from the early Church: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality." Where do you see this message of unity needed today?

Second Reading

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. (1 Jn 4:7)

John saw love at the very core of God's divine identity. In fact, for John, "God is love." For this reason, believers are called to love one another. How do you keep this virtue paramount in your life?

Gospel

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15:12-13)

During his farewell discourse, Jesus refers to his disciples as his "friends." How often do you think of Jesus as your "friend?"

M.Q.S.C.A.: What a fun week Teacher Appreciation Week was as we celebrated the immense contributions of the entire school staff to make this year a success. We had raffle items, a potluck, breakfast and other treats to show our gratitude for our staff; they sure deserve it! Thank you for keeping us in your prayers, we would not have been able to do it without your support! We still have some availability in many classes for the upcoming school year. Be sure to spread the word. Jen Vega, Principal

A Letter from your Pastor

Dear parishioners and friends,
Greetings from Father Lawrence. As you know I was in the hospital 6 1/2 weeks from December until late January. Then I spent a week at our Franciscan headquarters in Chicago. From early February through May 1st I was in West Allis. In late April I fell twice and my voice became weak. My superior in Chicago recommended I spend some time at a fine rehabilitation center there. I am currently at the Friary in Chicago but spending much of my time at the rehabilitation center. By the end of this week or the next I hope to have some news to share with you, hopefully I will be feeling better. Let us pray for each other. Fr. Larry

DAY

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. If our mothers are alive, we honor them with prayer and deeds. If deceased, we remember them with prayerful hearts. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love--mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life--that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

*God our heavenly Father, you give to each the ability to share your generative love.
Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.
Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.
May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.
We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother. Amen.*
