The Assumption of Mary into Heaven

The glorious Feast of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven is celebrated today, August 15th

Mass at 4:00 p.m. (Saturday) and 10:00 a.m. (Sunday)

A Holy day of obligation on which Catholics should participate in Mass!

Already in the fifth century there was a Feast of the Dormition of Mary or Mary's Falling Asleep in Death. The holy death of Mary was remembered by followers of Christ. As centuries went on, Christians recognized that her death led to her sharing in the fullness of Christ's death/resurrection. Hence, the Feast of the Dormition of Mary was transformed into the Feast of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. This indeed is the greatest feast honoring Mary as a most faithful follower of Christ and the model for the entire church.

We honor Mary as she already now shares in the fullness of Christ's death and resurrection.

Devotion to Mary is so popular among Catholics through so many feasts, hymns, prayers and customs.

One prayer is most popular in our tradition of honoring Mary.

The Hail Mary is a relatively short prayer used on so many occasions and has two related but distinct parts.

The first part consists of two greetings from the Gospel proclamation.

"Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you and blessed are you among women" is based on the greeting addressed to Mary by the angel Gabriel

"Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you" (Luke 1:28).

"Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus."

is based on the greeting addressed to Mary by her cousin Elizabeth

"Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb" (Luke 1:42).

Then the second part of the prayer is a later addition as a plea for Mary's assistance.

"Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death."

Ave, Ave, Ave Maria

Pope Francis in his encyclical about caring for our Common Home, the earth, speaks of Mary in a fashion so very appropriate for the Solemn Feast of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven

"Mary, the Mother who cared for Jesus, now cares with maternal affection and pain for this wonderful world.

Just as her pierced heart mourned the death of Jesus, so now she grieves for the sufferings of the crucified poor and for the creatures of this world laid waste by human power.

Completely transfigured, she now lives with Jesus, and all the creatures sing of her fairness.

She is the woman, "clothed in the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars" (Rev. 12:1).

Carried up into heaven, she is the Mother and Queen of all creation.

In her glorified body, together with the Risen Christ, part of creation has reached the fullness of its beauty.

She treasures the entire life of Jesus in her heart (Luke 2:19,51), and now understands the meanings of all things.

Hence, we ask her to enable us to look at this world with eyes of wisdom."
