Today's Theme
Great things happen when God meets us and we meet God.
The transformation of humanity and all creation happens in a most marvelous manner.

Readings for Today

First Reading

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,
the ears of the deaf be cleared,
then will the lame leap like a stag,
then the tongue of the mute will sing. (Is 35:5-6)

The prophet Isaiah spoke of the importance of being strong of heart when it comes the ways of God. Why do you think this is such an important virtue?

Second Reading

Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him? (James 2:5)

James encouraged believers to view the rich and poor from God's perspective. Why do you think people struggle with this divine point of view?

Gospel

He has done all things well.

He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak." (Mark 7:37)
In today's reading, we hear how Jesus healed the deaf man with a speech impediment at the request of the "people" close to this man. Who do you know in your life who needs healing from Jesus?

HAPPY LABOR DAY

Tomorrow, September 6th is Labor Day

As we celebrate Labor Day, One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens

(1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God’s continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God’s ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, “the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person.” ©LPi

The entire weekend is a good opportunity to relax with dear ones, remembering that we work so that we and others can live with dignity, peace and security. May all of us enjoy this Labor Day weekend with dear ones in the beauty of summer. Mass at 8:00 a.m. on Monday morning.
