Pastoral Council Elections:

Thank you to all who participated in the nomination process this past week. Unfortunately we fell short of our goal of filling all four positions. There is however, still time to answer the call and participate in this vital and necessary part of our Parish. Please do not hesitate to contact one of the current council members if you would like to volunteer to fill the remaining spots. We are not successful if we do not work together.

Today's Theme

Can we drink of the same cup of being human as did Jesus - with absolute trust and commitment to God? That is what is offered to us by Jesus!

CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM

Neven Petar Dougherty

son of Kyle & Angie Dougherty

born on May 26, 2021

is being baptized during Mass today.

We welcome the infant into the Church and congratulate his parents.

May the family grow in their faith in God.

Congratulations & Best Wishes to the family.

Readings for Today

First Reading

If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life. (Isaiah 53:10)
Isaiah speaks of our redemption through the suffering of the Lord's servant. When have you experienced God's presence in your suffering?

Second Reading

So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help. (Hebrews 4:16)
Hebrews tells us that Jesus is able to sympathize with our weaknesses because he, too, "has been tested in every way." What are some ways that you are tested in life?

Gospel

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)
Jesus uses the request of James and John as a teachable moment for his disciples on the importance of humility and service to others. What other qualities do you think are necessary for true discipleship?

St. John Paul II - Feast Day October 22

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.

What's In It For Me?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us.
 If they can do it, we can too.
