Readings for Today

First Reading

For God will show all the earth your splendor:
you will be named by God forever
the peace of justice, the glory of God's worship. (Bar 5:4)
Baruch offers the captive Israelites in Babylon a vision of hope in which their broken relationship with God will be fully restored. What aspects of your relationship with God are in need of restoration?

Second Reading

And this is my prayer:
that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value, so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ. (Phil 1:9-10)
Paul offers an opening prayer of joy for the believers in the city of Philippi. As the season of Advent continues, what brings joy to your life?

Gospel

The winding roads shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth,
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. (Mk 7:37)
With Luke placing the preaching and activities of John the Baptist in its historical and political context, he communicates the idea that God is acting in real, human history. What do you see as the power of this assertion?

If you would like to send a Christmas card to Fr. Larry, his address is:
Franciscans of the Holy Family Custody
Fr. Lawrence Frankovich
4848 S. Ellis Ave
