Today's Theme
*The water changed to wine
 proclaims a great mystery!
 Christ changed the ordinary water of human life
 into the choice wine of life with God!*

Readings for Today

First Reading

*As a young man marries a virgin,
 your Builder shall marry you;*

and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride

so shall your God rejoice in you. (Isaiah 62:5)

The prophet Isaiah used marriage imagery (bride & groom) to describe the Lord's love for his people, Israel. What do you see as some implications of this marriage imagery?

Second Reading

*But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
 distributing them individually to each person
 as he wishes. (1 Cor 12:11)*

Paul taught the Corinthians that the individual gifts of the Holy Spirit are meant to benefit and unify the community of faith. How do you use your spiritual gifts within your faith community?

Gospel

*Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs
 at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory,*

and his disciples began to believe in him. (John 2:11)

Jesus turning water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana was one of the first public "signs" he performed revealing his divinity. It also showed Jesus' compassion, sparing the family shame at running short of wine. How do you imagine the family reacted to Jesus' intervention and rescue?

God our Creator, we give thanks to you,
 who alone have the power to impart the breath of life
 as you form each of us in our mother's womb;
 grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation,
 may remain faithful to this sacred trust
 and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes. ©LPi
