

3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight
to the blind, to let the oppressed go free. - Lk 4:18*

STAFF CORNER

DICK BEAVES

Music & Liturgy Coordinator

r.beaves@dbqarch.org

So this week in the gospel Jesus proclaims that he has been sent to proclaim the Good News and to inspire and lead His people. How lucky could we be that our God loved us enough to send His only Son for our salvation and good. God continues to send his Son when we do good for others. On the Baptism of the Lord, the last Sunday of the Christmas Season, when I asked for help to bring down all the Christmas decorations /ENVIRONMENT. You were there to help make light work of what could have been a very tedious job. Folks lovingly packed away the nativity set and the fabric, boxed up the trees and bagged up the poinsettias. Together the work was all done in 45 minutes. You are all a blessing to me and to the parish for your willingness to help.

That could also be said for all the people that do so many things for others in the parish. Things that are often “under the radar”. Perhaps you help serve a meal for the poor, count money for the parish, sell Scrip, stuff bulletins, paste labels, perform Catechetical duties, serve on committees, buy groceries for St. Vincent de Paul, share inspirational writings, give rides to others, participate in the numerous liturgical ministries. Believe me when I say you are helping to carry on the work of Christ inspiring and evangelizing others. For all of this we should each look at the person sitting in the pew next to us and say thank you. Oh, what the heck, turn around and thank the person in the pew behind you too.

Have a blessed week and get out and take a walk.

Dick Beaves

THINGS TO KNOW

THIS WEEK

1

BACK TO BASICS

Continues This Weekend

In Martin Hall between Sunday Masses Join us on January 23 and 30 at 9:45am to discuss Catholic Social Teaching. Ann Sirianni and Deacon Bill will be presenting along with other parishioners. Join us for any or all of the Sundays to hear about this important part of our faith.

2

FOOD DISTRIBUTION

Saturday, January 29

We will be distributing food to those in need again on Saturday. Call the Parish Office if you are interested in helping out!

3

ST. PAT'S MEAL

Thank You to all who brought food or helped in any way at the St. Pat's meal on Wednesday, December 29. We served 60 people in need were. It's so important to help those less fortunate than ourselves in any way we can. May God bless you all!

THE RETURN OF MASS SERVERS

We're bringing back Mass servers! Everyone in 3rd grade and older (yes, that includes all parents who'd like to serve with their kids) or any adults who are interested are invited to contact the parish office and sign up to be servers. There will be training for Mass servers in February. This would include everyone who has previously been trained because some things have changed.

5

CONFESSIONS

Thursday, 8:30am-9:00am

Friday, 11:15am-11:45am

Saturday, 4:00pm-4:30pm

Start the New Year off right with a clean slate through God's mercy.

AROUND THE PARISH

Archdiocesan Women's and Men's Conferences

Ladies and Gentlemen of the parish, please mark your calendars for the 2022 Women's Conference and the Men's Conference. The Women's Conference is Saturday, January 29 and the Men's Conference is Saturday, March 19. This year's Women's Conference is virtual so you can participate from your home on January 29 from 8:00am-1:00p. The theme is Holy Women of the Presentation with Liz Kelly and Emily Jamit. Please go to the Archdiocesan website to register.

Help Needed!

Help is needed with Children's Liturgy of the Word. New volunteers are needed to help lead the Children's Liturgy program during the 8:30 and 11:00 Masses. If you regularly send your children to participate, please think about volunteering. With enough people the volunteer time can be once per month or every six weeks. Please contact Ann Sirianni for more information or to sign up to help!

Surviving Divorce

Divorced? Know someone who is struggling with divorce? A twelve-week "Surviving Divorce" program begins Monday, January 31st, 2022 at 6:00 PM at St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church in Martin Hall. "Surviving Divorce" features twelve video presentations that cover topics such as shock and grief, anger and forgiveness, money issues, dealing with children and a former spouse, and annulment and remarriage. This program is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues years later to help them find answers to their questions, restore their hope, and begin healing.

The $25 program fee covers the cost of all program materials. For more information email Maria Schmitz at dbq062s6@dbqarch.org or call 773-789-9795. To register go to: www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0F45AAAC22A7FFC34-registration.

Moving Toward Racial Equality

Mondays, February 7, 21 & March 14, 18
6:30-7:45pm via Zoom

Moving Toward Racial Equity is a 4-part series striving to address the injustices of racism.

- Session One (February 7): How do we address our own prejudices? What do we do about ourselves? Presenter: Dr. Katrina Neeley Farren Eller, Assistant Professor of Public Relations at Loras College, Dubuque.
- Session Two (February 21): How do we effectively communicate with others regarding racial injustice? A dialogue with Dave Heiar, Jackson County Economic Alliance Senior Advisor, and Anderson Sainci, Director of Shared Prosperity and Neighborhood Support, City of Dubuque.
- Session Three (March 14): How does racism affect the quality of life in your neighborhood? Presenters: Dr. Mary Gitau, Associate Professor of Social Work at Clarke University, Dubuque, and Clara Lopez Ortiz, Equity Coordinator, Community Foundation of Greater Dubuque, Dubuque.
- Session Four (March 28): What can we do within our sphere of influence to effect necessary changes to impact systemic racism? Presenter: Sr. Patricia Chappell, SNDdeN, Member of US East-West Leadership Team of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur.

Cost: $20 per person includes all four sessions. Register online or by calling 563.582.3592 by Friday, January 28, 2022.

Catholic Social Teaching Theme 3: Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected, and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities -- to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

— written by Deacon Bill

On September 29, 2019, in response to real needs, and after broad consultation, Archbishop Jackels announced the start of a special appeal, called ArchdioceseOne, to help the poor and to support the mission of the Church. In March of 2020, the Covid-19 pandemic forced us to pause active fundraising for ArchdioceseOne. In mid-February, we'll be restarting our fundraising efforts for this special appeal. You likely received a letter in the mail recently regarding this subject, but if not, Archbishop has made a video for you about this important effort he'd like you to see. It will only take about 5 minutes of your time to watch. Simply scan this QR code with your smartphone camera. Then click the link that pops up on your phone's screen. This will take you to his video. If you don't have a QR enabled smartphone, type the following link into your internet browser: <https://archdioceseone.org/splash> Thank you!

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISER

BARD Materials

Thank You!

Welcome!

We're Glad You're Here!

Thank you so much for joining us today! We hope you have a great experience worshipping at SJTW!

What to Expect

Face Coverings

In consultation with the Pastoral Council and following CDC guidelines, we strongly recommend that everyone, regardless of vaccination status, wears a face covering in church as we face the widening spread of Covid-19 and its variants. Our Eucharistic Ministers are required to wear a face mask. Thanks for your cooperation!

Social Distancing

If you would feel more comfortable practicing social distancing from those outside your household, please feel free to do so. The pandemic isn't quite over yet, so we ask everyone to please be respectful of others' comfort levels.

Sign of Peace

We ask that you refrain from giving a "physical" Sign of Peace to those outside your household.

Music

Music is a very important part of Mass! Singing is a way we pray to God! We encourage you to join in by following the on-screen lyrics!

Eucharist

Receiving Holy Communion is the most sacred part of Mass. This is when we receive Jesus in His Body and Blood. Communion from the Cup remains suspended until further notice. We also ask that everyone continues to receive Communion in the hand.

Children's Liturgy

We offer Children's Liturgy of the Word on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sunday of the month at the 8:30 & 11:00 Masses. Kids aged 5-10 are dismissed to experience the Mass on a level that relates to them! They will return after the Homily.
