Pastor’s Column

November is the season of Thanksgiving and I am constantly turning to God with one prayer after another of gratitude for Sacred Heart Cathedral and the many activities that happen here. It’s rare that an evening passes there isn’t one, two, if not three meetings taking place and Adoration happening in our chapel. For example:

* This past Friday evening the Social Committee hosted a Chili Challenge after the Feast of All Saints Day Mass. Some 12-15 chilies were available for sampling with the grand prize to Harold Jestel! Congrats!!
* Saturday evening, following our 4:00 pm Mass, Cathedral Ale and popcorn were served to a fine group of people enjoying beverage and snacks before their Saturday evening.
* And thanks to SHC’s St. Martin DePorres Committee, an awesome Pancake Breakfast brought people together in honor of this patron saint and recognition of the ministries of our SMD people.
* And this past Wednesday was a Mass with the Anointing of the Sick!
* And our Vietnamese Community continue to make good use of our Diocesan Center each Sunday morning and for their own special festivities!

That’s precisely what our building was for! And we continue to be grateful for all who come to Sacred Heart to celebrate our many blessings. ‘Tis the Season!!

November is also the month in which we remember in a special way all those who have gone before us and seated at the banquet table with the Communion of Saints. Once again our Book of the Dead is placed before the ambo in which you may place the names of your family and loved ones. As I’ve mentioned, we remember the dead in every Mass, but in a more special way through this month. It was special for myself to put my Dad’s name in our book…..with love, knowing he’s also in a special place interceding for us! Amen!

November is also the season of sickness and, this past weekend, I was barely hanging on…..as I endured the 24-hour bug. You may have noticed I did not drink from the cup and encourage anyone who is feeling ill to refrain from doing so. Also during the welcome at the beginning of Mass and the Sign of Peace, it may be wise to do the “knuckle bump” vs. shaking hands? Just a friendly way of saying hello, peace, I care but I don’t want to pass on any germs or sickness!!

Looking ahead this November we have:
- On the 15th, the Anniversary of the Dedication of Sacred Heart Cathedral.
- On the 18th, a special Holy Hour from 6:30 – 7:30 pm for the people and needs of Sacred Heart Cathedral, our personal families and needs of our diocese. This time is hosted by our Knights of Columbus and St. Monica’s Society that meets on Monday evenings. Please join us!
- On the weekend of the 24th, St. Margaret’s will host a Bake Sale, just in time for Thanksgiving!
- On Wednesday evening of the 27th, 5:30 pm Mass – Thanksgiving Eve – will be a special Mass of Thanksgiving. All are invited and welcome to join us!

So - Thank you, Thank you, Thank you all for all the blessings of our parish. We pray God will continue to look upon our Davenport Diocese, our Bishop and Cathedral parish and may we recognize His presence, blessings and generous love, today and always! Have a wonderful and grateful week. Fr. Rich

DOGmatic THEOLOGY

My Dad used to hear his mom say “offer it up!” all the time while he was growing up. I hear him tell people to offer something up and sometimes and they wonder what it is supposed to mean. Well, my Dad’s mom lives too far away to ask her, so I looked it up on my Dad’s computer and found a couple interesting definitions.

Have you ever heard someone say “offer it up”? Sometimes people have a hard time understanding what that phrase means. When you think of the phrase “offer it up,” think of it as “open it up.” When we “offer up” our suffering, we “open it up” for God to enter into it. This makes our struggle fruitful. Two of the ways it becomes fruitful are: 1st, when we “offer up” a difficulty to God - instead of succumbing to it or trying to push the pain down and not deal with it – it is as if a wall has come down in our heart and we are giving Him access to an area of our life that He was not able to come fully into before. We have “opened it up” to Him. Because He is present there now, we are not on our own and can draw from His strength and power to face the difficulty. His strength begins exactly where our natural ability ends.

And 2nd, now that He is present, so is His self-sacrificing love, which we can tap into in order to offer up the difficulty as a prayer of intercession for others. In other words, He is present in our difficulty - we are now yoked with Him (Matthew 11:28-30) - so that we can not only bear it patiently, but we can go even further, and offer it up as an act of love for other people.

DEACON DAN’S CORNER
“It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him;”
2 Maccabees 7:14

October has given way to November and the changing of the colors of the trees and cooler temperatures reminds us that winter is not so far away. This time of year is a beautiful time in which we see these changes in seasons and begin to connect them to the changing seasons in our lives. For many of us we come to this season knowing full well that we have fewer seasons ahead of us than are behind.

It is in this season that we affirm the Church’s belief in a judgment of the living and the dead and our hope in the Resurrection of the body. We remind ourselves of our universal call to holiness at every state in life as we celebrate the feasts of All Saints and All Souls Day and we proclaim our belief in a communion of saints. Each time we pray the creed of the church we affirm these deeply held beliefs of the Church.

Our readings this week emphasize our beliefs. In our first reading from Maccabees we hear about a family which refuses to give into Greek culture and worship other gods. Instead they willingly face imprisonment, torture, and death having faith that they will be raised up by the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. They captures are highly skeptical of this God of the Israelites and try every means at their disposal to erase this God from the earth.

Jesus is also faced with skeptical people in today’s gospel. The Sadducees were a group within Judaism that did not believe in life after death. So in order to trip up Jesus they present to him and all his followers a concocted story meant to once again have Jesus in some public way reject the teachings of the fathers of the faith. Skepticism in the resurrection of our bodies is just as real today. We just can’t figure out how God can do such a thing. The Church teaches, “This ‘how’ exceeds our imagination and understanding; it is accessible only to faith. Yet our participation in the Eucharist already gives us a foretaste of Christ’s transfiguration of our bodies.”
CCC 1000

Our participation in the Eucharist is a partaking in the transformation that is already taking place, yet not fully realized. How does your belief in the resurrection change the way you live? How will you be open to the Eucharist transforming your life? Who can you invite to experience the same transformation? Consider bringing this to prayer this week.
Several of our youth attended the Holy Fire Conference in Chicago on October 19, for a day filled with singing, inspiration, adoration, and Mass. It was great to hear the many stories and connect with thousands of Youth from all over. We came back and had Youth Group the following Wednesday, where the Youth were challenged to spend quiet prayer time offering prayer intentions that are in their heart. We ended by all gathering and offering them all up to God. The Youth agreed it was a great experience and say “thanks” for helping make it possible through donations from Birdies for Charity and by purchasing Dining Tour Books, which are still available in the Parish Office and at the Cathedral Store.

We’ve assisted a few people who: just escaped human trafficking, domestic abuse survivors, foster kids, social workers with clients in dire situations, children taken from their homes for various situations, people who got a job, people who are interviewing for a job, families who work hard but their financial situation is difficult, senior citizens living on a fixed budget, homeless, veterans in need, the mentally challenged, churches calling if we can help someone they know who needs things, High school kids wanting an outfit for a special event, people who need something respectable to wear to a funeral or a family function, growing school-aged kids, pregnant mothers, family members of someone recently incarcerated and so many more situations. The generosity of our donors & caring ways of our volunteers allows the Clothing Center at Minnie’s Maison to continue with its mission when things don’t look possible.

BẢN THÔNG TIN CỘNG ĐOÀN MẸ MÔNG TRIỆU

CHÚA NHẬT XXII THƯỜNG NIÊN - NĂM C

Tháng Mười Một là tháng của mùa Та Oển và tôi không ngừng nga ơn Chúa cho Thánh Tâm và các sinh hoạt xảy ra tại đây. Thật là hiếm có một buổi chiều nào mà không có một, hai, ngay cả ba cuộc họp diễn ra và chu vụ Thánh Thể trong nhà nguyện. Ví dụ:

* Chiều thứ Sáu tuần qua hội đoàn Xã Hội tổ chức một thi đua Chili sau thánh lễ Các Thánh. Có từ 12 đến 15 món Chili để nếm và để chấm điểm cho giải thưởng nhất
* Chiều thứ Bảy sau thánh lễ 4 giờ, một số người thưởng thức Rượi vang Nhà thờ và bắp rang
* Và xin cảm ơn Hội đoàn Thánh Martin DePorres của Thánh Tâm đã mang lại số người dùng bữa ăn sáng Pancake Breakfast để trưng miền Thánh Quan Thầy và nhân thức hội đoàn Thánh Martin DePorres
* Và Thứ Tư tuần qua Thánh lễ Đức Đạo cho Người Bên!

* Và Cộng Đoàn Công Giáo Người Việt không ngừng sử dụng trung tâm hội trường giáo xứ chúng ta hằng Chủ Nhật cho các sinh hoạt đặc biệt của họ!

Hội trường này là để sử dụng cho những việc này! Và chúng ta tiếp tục biến ơn tất cả mọi người đã đến Thánh Tâm để chung vui cùng trên hội trường. Hãy là mua les! Thằng Mười Một cùng là tháng để chúng ta tưởng nhớ đặc biệt cho tất cả những người đã qua đời trên trái đất Mẹ Mông. Một lần nữa, Cúm sách cho Người Chết được đặt trước bục để quý ông bà anh chị em ghi tên của người thân yêu đã qua đời trong gia đình.

Như tôi đã đề cập, chúng ta tưởng nhớ các linh hồn đã qua đời trong hành thánh lễ, một cách đặc biệt trong suốt tháng này. Thật là đặc biệt cho tôi khi ghi tên tôi vào cuốn sách này lòng yêu thương biết rằng người đang ở một nơi đặc biệt chờ đợi chúng ta! Amen!

Thằng Mười Một là một mùa cho bệnh hoạn và tuần vừa qua, tôi không khỏe mà khi tôi chịu đựng cơn cảm cúm 24 tiếng đồng hồ. Quý vị có lẽ thấy tôi không uông xuống ma thiết dù chén rỗi vò cùng nhiều nhưng ai cũng thấy mình không có gang năng uống được nên chán thận. Và trong lúc chờ đợi đau thư the và lúc khách lanh miếu người có lẽ tổn hơn hết là cung thay thay vì bắt thay chờ nhau? Hãy là một cách thân thiện chao nhau, chủ an lành và không muốn truyền vi trùng hay lấy bệnh cho nhau!!

Hướng về tháng Mười Một chúng ta có:

Ngày 15, Kỷ niệm cống hiến Thánh Tòa Thánh Tâm.
Ngày 18, một giờ thánh cầu nguyện đặc biệt từ 6 giờ 30 đến 7 giờ 30 dành cho mọi người, cho mọi gia đình, cho Chúa Thánh Tâm và nhà cầu của gia phản do Hội đoàn Kha Luân Bố tổ chức. Xin mời tất cả cùng tham dự!

Cuối tuần ngày 24th hội đoàn Thánh Margaret tổ chức một buổi ban hàng ngọt dùng với cấp lễ Та Oển!

Hội Thụ Thư, sẽ tổ Thánh lễ 5 giờ 30 chuvik đặc biệt tổ lễ Та Oển. Xin mời tất cả!

Vì vậy xin cảm ơn, xin cảm ơn, xin cảm ơn đến tất cả mọi người cho mọi hồng ơn cho giáo xứ chúng ta. Chúng ta cầu nguyện xin Chúa tiếp tục đạo thương Giáo phận Davenport, Đức Giám Mục và giáo xứ Thánh Tâm được sự hiện diện của Ngài, hồng an và tình thương bảo la hôm nay, ngày mai và mãi mãi!
