Our congratulations and best wishes to Anne Marie (Stoermer) & Taylor Hilderbrand, who were married on November 9 at Sacred Heart Cathedral.
We pray for God’s favor and blessing upon their lives.
Sacred Heart Cathedral also rejoices with Rachel & Ethan Nelson on the sacramental validation of their marriage, which took place on November 9th. We wish them much joy as they continue in their love for God and for each other.
November is sometime an ominous month….I love the Fall Season, colors and all but the short days, colder temperatures and now snow(!) It’s knowing we’re heading into the long and dreary feeling. The older I get the more I can understand those who leave for Florida or Arizona this time of year! Even Mother Church’s readings are about end times and death that seem to coincide well with such thoughts and feelings. The seasons and cycles of life are all around us!!

We ask that all of you remember to pray for all of our past parishioners and loved ones through this month as we honor all those who have gone before us. I like the recommendation to pray an Our Father, a Hail Mary and a Glory Be each day for all souls. As we ask others to pray for us, let us also pray for each other, especially for those who need our prayers most!

A good time to offer our prayers is this Monday night! Please join us for a Holy Hour of prayer in our chapel (thinking it would be awesome to fill the chapel and have to move to the greater church?) as we put our hearts together offering prayers for our families, our youth, and all marriages. We, of course, pray for our deceased loved ones and also all persecuted Christians. Our Knights of Columbus and St. Monica Prayer Group members will sponsor this hour and we invite you to join us.

6:30–7:30 pm, Monday evening in our St. Margaret’s Chapel!

BAKE SALE next weekend, right before Thanksgiving! Our St Margaret’s Society (aka Altar and Rosary) is hosting a parish bake sale, asking not just all the ladies of the parish to bring a baked item or special dessert, but there are guys that are pretty decent cooks as well! Myself not included. ☺ The proceeds of this bake sale will help pay for and support the liturgical needs of Sacred Heart, such as the wine, bread, candles, flowers, environment etc. If you are not able to provide an item for the sale, please offer a monetary gift to help support our St. Margaret’s Society. And we thank you!

AND – a gigantic thank you to all who supported the John Deere Classic this summer. Sacred Heart Cathedral recently received a check of $9,763.36 in return of Birdies for Charity. I know there are a lot of people dreaming of golfing these days; however, it may be a few months before we see many more birdies...at least on the golf course!

Brrrrrr! It’s been cold this past week, hoping next week is much warmer and nicer for everyone!

Fr. Rich

Maggie Sue’s
DOGmatic THEOLOGY

So there’s been one particular squirrel that has been persistent in asking me the question as to why Jesus had to descend into Hell, as it says in the Apostles’ Creed that the Lord was crucified, died, and was buried and then he descended into Hell. Why? What was the purpose of Him going into Hell?

That’s a great question. The best answer comes from the Catechism in sections 632-635 where it says that Jesus descended into Hell as a savior to preach the good news to those who had died and gone before Him. You also find this echoed, by the way, in the letter of 1 Peter, that Jesus preached the good news to the spirits in prison there.

Does this mean that Jesus went down to save those who were damned? No. Does it mean that Jesus destroyed the Hell of damnation? No. Scripture uses that word “Hell” in a couple different ways. It usually, in the Old Testament, refers to Sheol, or the Abode of the Dead, which consisted of both the righteous and the unrighteous who are in there together, so—and this line in the Creed refers to Jesus going down into Sheol to preach the good news to the righteous and welcome them into his kingdom.

Our next RCIA session is Tuesday, November 26th from 6:30-7:30 pm in the Gathering Space conference room.
We invite anyone who is interested in learning more about the Catholic Church to join us to learn how we can help to answer their questions and remove their doubts.

“By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” Luke 21: 19

Wouldn’t you love to know the time of Jesus’ second coming? Wouldn’t you love to have the signs that will tell us that Jesus is coming? Jesus told us to look for the signs of his coming. Some people wonder whether the political & economic strife we are experiencing is a sign. Some look at signs like climate change, scandals within and outside the church, or the wars that continue to occur as possible signs. The Church teaches that before Christ’s second coming the Church must pass through a final trial that will shake the faith of many believers. (CCC 675)

Just as many of us wonder, many people of Jesus’ time also wondered and debated about the Resurrection, what the kingdom of the Messiah would look like, and how their lives might be different. The people had endured many hardships. Luke’s audience had already seen the destruction of the Temple. They had been scattered to foreign lands and they were reminded that Jesus spoke about the destruction of the Temple and the scattering of the sheep. Many wondered if the trials they endured meant that Jesus would be returning soon.

But our readings provide hope amidst the questions and trials of life. Jesus tells us that just as he was divisive for those in the Temple, that true disciples will also contrast the status quo of their times. Just as Jesus was persecuted, authentic disciples should expect trials in life. But, Jesus also promises us that no eternal harm will come to those who persevere and build and share the Kingdom of God with others. He reminds us that even the death of his disciples is not a barrier for God.

Jesus offers us one essential element to successful discipleship is perseverance during our trials. Our perseverance will be evident as we place our trust, our hope, and our confidence in Jesus’ word. Our perseverance will be a sign to others.

What trials are present in my life that I need to persevere through? What gives me strength to persevere in my faith walk with Jesus? Who is one person I can reach out to and help them to persevere amidst their trials? Consider bringing this to prayer this week.
Saturday, December 7 following the 4 pm Mass

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BOUNDLESS COMPASSION BOOK STUDY: Join us on Thursday evenings at 6:30 pm in the Main Conference Room for a study of Sr. Joyce Rupp's book “Boundless Compassion.” Topic for the November 21st discussion is “Welcoming Ourselves.” If you missed the first meeting, contact Jane Trasowech about obtaining a book: 563-349-3924 (text or call) or trasowech@gmail.com.

CIVILIZE IT: Our local elections are completed, but federal and state elections will soon be here. The political discourse will seek to divide us. As Catholics, we have a long tradition of engagement in the political process as a means of putting our faith into action. Today, however, vitriolic rhetoric fills the public square. The US Bishops are encouraging us to join fellow Catholics in calling for all people to honor each other’s dignity by engaging in respectful dialogue. Take the pledge and find helpful resources at Civilizetl.org.
ST. MARGARET BAKE SALE NEXT WEEKEND

St. Margaret Society (SMS) will be hosting a Bake Sale the weekend of November 23-24 after all Masses in the Gathering Space. All proceeds will go toward SMS expenses, which include Communion hosts, wine and altar candles. Donations of baked goods are encouraged and appreciated. Please bring your cakes, pies, cookies, brownies, cupcakes, breads, croissants, rolls, crumpets, scones, tarts, dessert bars, dessert pizza, etc. to the Gathering Space any time after 1:00 pm on Saturday, November 23. It would be appreciated if you could put them in disposable containers, such as paper plates or zip-lock bags. You may put a note on your donation with suggested price, but it is not necessary as SMS volunteers will be happy to price them for you.

FOOD PANTRY: “When I was hungry, you gave me something to eat.” Mt. 25:35 The cold weather is upon us. Please remember the poor with your donations of warm clothing, hats, gloves and boots. Your gifts of warm food items like soups, stews, and chili warm them as much as they do us.

CLOTHING CENTER AT MINNIE’S MAISON: "I was naked and you clothed me." Mt 25:36 On a recent Saturday, a family with young children arrived to shop at the Clothing Center. Two of the boys went straight to the donuts, then bananas, then fruit snacks, topped off with Mary’s famous Hot Chocolate, which has never failed to rate our shoppers’ Seal of Approval! Volunteers heard the boys explaining that this was their breakfast. We have a great hospitality room, but it is frequently a source of much needed food also. Because that Saturday we were nearing the end of the scheduled shopping period, this lucky family graciously accepted our offer to take the extra food home. Check out our website and Facebook page:
