COLLECTION FOR HOLY LAND ON GOOD FRIDAY

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Our prayer and financial support help the church minister to youth, young couples, and families in parishes, Catholic schools and religious education programs. In these times of crisis, the collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines and discover historical artifacts. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Contributions to the Holy Land collection may be made using the envelope in the April envelope packet, through the online giving link on the Holy Family website and myParish App, or the Good Friday collection basket in church.

Blessing of Easter Food

It is the tradition from Europe to bless the Easter food prior to Easter Dinner. We will be observing this tradition in the church on Holy Saturday morning, April 3, at 10:00. You are invited to bring your food items for this special blessing by Fr. Jerry.

Faith Formation News

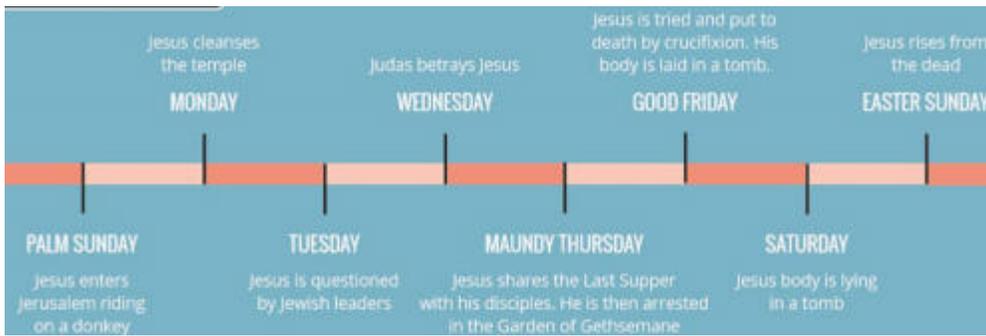

Palm Sunday and Holy Week

This week begins the most important and influential week in our Catholic Faith. Holy week starts this week with Palm Sunday and Jesus’ glorious entrance into Jerusalem. It’s ironic to think about how gloriously Jesus enters Jerusalem on Sunday and by Thursday night he is being arrested, scourged, and on His way to crucifixion. The range of emotions experienced in one week alone is overwhelming.

Faith Formation Update

Take a look at this graphic “Holy Week Timeline”; I challenge you to celebrate Holy Week with your family this week.

As a family, take the time to talk about what happened each day during Holy Week.

- What was Jesus doing?
- How was Jesus feeling?
- How do you think disciples felt as the week progressed?
- Read Matthew 21 - 28 as a family

Rice Bowls

For those participating in the Rice Bowls this year, we will be collecting Rice Bowls in the month of April! Look for a collection bin in the colonnade at church. Catholic Relief Services (<https://www.crsricebowl.org/>) provides support to 159 million people in more than 100 countries. In addition to providing meals to those in need, Catholic Relief Services provide agricultural support, clean water, mother and child health care, and education to those who need it most (both in the US and worldwide).

Faith Formation Tip

What is Agape Love?

Agape (ah-gah-pae) love is the strongest form of love that can exist. This love is selfless, sacrificial, and unconditional; it transcends boundaries, extends compassion, and is forever patient; agape love is more than a feeling, it’s an action!

Jesus’ passion is possibly the most clear form of agape love we have ever seen. As we begin Holy Week, consider reflecting on the love that God has given us and how we can share that love with others.

How can we show love (that deep unconditional agape love) with someone through our actions?

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.” ~ John 3:16

OUTREACH HELP NEEDED

Last spring, during the early stages of the pandemic, Holy Family coordinated an Outreach Program for our parish. During that time, we wished to make sure all was well with our fellow parishioners and to inquire if they had any questions or needs. Phone calls were made to all Holy Family households. The program was met with much gratitude and comfort, not only from the recipients of the calls but also the callers!

We would like to continue our Outreach Program and we are in need of volunteers to make phone calls to our Holy Family households. We need 25 more callers. Each volunteer would be asked to place 20 calls within a one-month period. Guidelines and a script to follow for these calls would be provided.

We recently received the following email from a parishioner who received an outreach call:
“The outreach program literally saved my life last year. I had just received bad news and was a total mess, until literally minutes after receiving the news, Father Aaron called me. I had been away from the church for 5 years and was too ashamed to go back, but Father Aaron and Holly got me the help I needed. I would like to pay it forward.”

If you are willing to serve our parishioners in this special ministry, please contact Eric Edwardsen at the parish office (ext. 167) or by email to records@holymfamilywoodruff.org.

The Art and Environment Committee is inviting all interested parishioners, young and old alike, to help with a Lenten project by making paper birds, flowers, butterflies or leaves. You can drop off your creations in a box provided just inside the main doors of Church. Please drop off by Holy Thursday, April 1st. Thank you in advance for your participation.

Holy Family Bible Study meets every Wednesday (currently using Zoom) from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm. The Bible study is based on the liturgical readings and reflections for the Sunday Mass following. Contact Wendy Ulfig by email (wendyulfig@gmail.com) to be placed on the email distribution group. Contact Rick Schwai by email for Zoom help.

REFLECTION

Many struggle with Jesus. Some who consider themselves faithful hail him in their churches but still struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. The message is somehow more palatable when it echoes pious renderings and sentiments and involves singing hosannas during worship. It becomes a bit trickier when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct the business of our lives, becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor, and marginalized, and living as servants of our Loving Creator. Ultimately, it is a struggle between wanting to be God ourselves and letting God be God as God is. That’s why it’s so easy to become hypocritical. We, like those who hailed Christ as he arrived in Jerusalem and sent Christ to the cross to die, also talk out of both sides of our mouths. We entertain what suits us at the time and walk away from the rest.

Many neglect God’s beautiful creation because they prefer what humans have made instead. Progress isn’t seen in preserving and enhancing what God has made but replacing it with something we believe is better and more useful. The earth, flowers, and animals are all expendable if they stand in the way of the “more” we want to achieve. We seek to remove as many obstacles and hurdles as possible in search of the easiest, quickest, and most efficient path we can find. We have created drugs and laws that preserve our free choice, even though it may mean setting aside God’s vision and example. Why suffer when we can easily be put to rest? Why endure insult or injury when we can retaliate, eliminate or subdue? Why accept life when it is acceptable to choose otherwise? We want to be God and resist accepting the fact that our real Creator has already given us the blueprints for the life we need to live in the Beatitudes and in the example of his Passion. We don’t like being stewards and managers and really want the power to do as we wish and desire. We want to create our own way.

Where has the true, effective Christian voice been through all of the wars and violence, prejudice and unjust conquests, abuse of human beings and attempted extinctions of nationalities, the establishments of procedures and protocols that serve only a few and not the many and all of the injustices and exploitations that are a part of our human history? A few courageous prophets have stood up and out throughout all of the comings and goings of our human journey with many receiving the same fate as the Crucified One we hail this week. Some still walk among us as shining stars showing us how it really can be. How would Jesus’ journey have ended if he lived life as we do? Unless we encounter the good with the bad, the just with the unjust, the grace with the sin, the glory with the cross, the death with the life we most certainly risk rendering God obsolete. After all, haven’t we already convinced ourselves that we can do better?

Pastels: Building your Skills:

Blending Techniques

ONSITE Monday, April 5 – 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Blending one color into another so lines are softened is the most used technique in pastel painting. It is an excellent way to create skies and soft effects.

Broken-Pattern is created by using short strokes that mix color visually at a distance. It is used by Impressionist painters. Overlay of color is a technique that uses very light strokes over another, feathering or scumbling and building a mixed color in the process. Each class is independent of the other so one can choose 1 or 2 or 3 as a single workshop or all 3. Bring soft pastels- Nu Pastels are preferred and the most adaptable to the three techniques.

Fee $30.00 each day. Bring your own lunch.

Register by Monday, March 29.

RETREAT FOR SPIRITUAL SEEKERS | April 23-25, 2021

Sometimes one feels the foundation of spiritual connection has been shaken, or perhaps totally collapsed. Yet others may feel separated from connection with the Divine and in need of transforming where and how to connect. This weekend is for those thirsty and ready to seek. Participants will examine what spiritual practices one still holds dear and which ones to change. Attendees will explore new ways to connect with the Holy Mystery including exploration of reconnecting with the Earth, Compassion, Light, Journeying, and transform their Spiritual Practices.

Ruth Hoenicke is a Spiritual Companion in the Slinger/Hartford, WI area and facilitates retreats throughout the United States. Ruth is actively involved in group and one-on-one spiritual guidance to support those seeking a more spiritual life. She is a wife, mother and grandmother. Ruth is Chair Emeritus of the Board of Directors at the Jesuit Retreat House in Oshkosh and retreat coordinator. Her background includes 30+ years in education of children and adults. Personal Statement from Ruth:

My experience is that a spiritual journey cannot be traveled alone. We each need the support of mutual sharing with others to gather wisdom and knowledge of self and the Divine. The impact of spiritual companionship can be heartfelt and sometimes beyond words. It can create new paths through learning that are mindful within one's heart and soul.

Registration begins at 3 pm on Friday, followed by orientation at 6:00 and supper at 6:30. An opportunity to attend Catholic Mass will be provided on Sunday morning Cost: $200

Inspired by St. Joseph's faithful witness, may we help mothers welcome, protect, and care for the gift of new life.

Reflection

As Catholics we rightly find inspiration in Mary's beautiful "fiat", her "yes" to God's will at the Annunciation, but we should also recall Joseph's own faithful "yes" to God's plan for salvation. Despite the unusual circumstances of Mary's pregnancy, "Joseph accepted Mary unconditionally" (Patris corde, 4). Through a series of dreams, God made his will known to Joseph, and each time Joseph faithfully responded. It is Joseph who welcomed the Christ child as his own son, gave Jesus his name as revealed by the angel, and continually protected and provided for the needs of the Holy Family. When Herod threatened the life of the infant Jesus, Joseph fled with his family from their homeland to Egypt and patiently waited until they could return to Israel. "In every situation, Joseph declared his own 'fiat'" (PC, 3). Through his constant care for both mother and child, Joseph makes a true gift of himself. God chose this humble carpenter of Nazareth to guide the beginnings of our redemption, and it is Joseph "who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence" (PC, 5). Inspired by St. Joseph, may we proactively help mothers welcome and care for the gift of new life.

Lent Week Seven: Scripture and Inspiration for Contemplation Care for God's Creation

Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (submitted by Lee Ann Niebuhr)

from Sacred Scripture

Genesis 1:1-31

God made the heavens and the earth and it was good.

Genesis 2:15

Humans are commanded to care for God's creation.

Leviticus 25:1-7

The land itself must be given a rest and not abused.

Romans 1:20

Creation reveals the nature of God.

from Catholic Documents

(Pope Francis, On Care for Our Common Home [Laudato Si'], nos. 49, 91)

A true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor. . . . Everything is connected. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love for our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society.

(United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Global Climate Change: A Plea for Dialogue, Prudence and the Common Good)

Changes in lifestyle based on traditional moral virtues can ease the way to a sustainable and equitable world economy in which sacrifice will no longer be an unpopular concept. For many of us, a life less focused on material gain may remind us that we are more than what we have. Rejecting the false promises of excessive or conspicuous consumption can even allow more time for family, friends, and civic responsibilities. A renewed sense of sacrifice and restraint could make an essential contribution to addressing global climate change. (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)
