5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's readings, both Isaiah and Peter hear the call of God and feel themselves unworthy. But, reassured by the Lord, both answer and follow. Do I hear the Lord asking, "Whom shall I send?" Am I prepared to answer, "Here I am. Send me!?" (Our Sunday Visitor, ibid., page 28).

When Ida Nelson, head tribal clerk of a remote Alaskan village, heard an airplane flying low after dark, she knew something was wrong. Igiugig (Igggy-yaw-gigg), population 70, isn't normally a nighttime destination. Indeed, the medevac flight was coming to pick up a sick child.

Because the local airstrip's lights had been vandalized, the plane was having trouble landing. Nelson began alerting neighbors, and within minutes, villagers lined the runway with their vehicles, headlights blazing. The pilot was able to land and then safely deliver the sick child to an Anchorage hospital. The airlift service praised the residents' determination, but Nelson describes their effort as "normal" and "ordinary."

What everyday actions can you use to provide light amid darkness? How can you shine Jesus' light in a world that needs him?

Holy Family has an opening for a full-time Administrative Assistant

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe. Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division – whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else – is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen – especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree – even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window. As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us – even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read – and remember, love never fails.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE January 30, 2022 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

WINTER WONDER

If you’re tired of shoveling snow by now, just be glad you didn’t live in what’s now Keogh, Montana, in January 1887. Two years before that area became a U.S. state, personnel at an army fort saw a Frisbee-sized flake falling from the winter sky. Scientists say the flake, estimated at 15 inches wide, likely was the result of numerous smaller flakes merging before landing on the ground. That massive dose of winter still holds the title of largest snowflake, according to Guinness World Records.

LEARNING TO LIVE AND LOVE BEYOND BIAS: Anti-Bias Training Workshops | Jan 25, Feb 1, Feb 8, Feb 15 | Tuesdays: 6:00 – 8:00pm | PRESENTED BY REV. CHRISTA FISCHER

Each of us is genetically and culturally predisposed to bias. Our ancient ancestors utilized bias to maintain the safety and preservation of their tribes; bias was integral to our country's justification of a free and enslaved labor force; bias enabled legalized segregation and Jim Crow laws; and our own unconscious bias perpetuates our alienation from each other and the fragmentation of our society.

Free Will Offering

AFTERNOON FOR LOVERS: Curing the Fear of Forever: Little Steps for a Quality Relationship/Marriage | February 13, 2022 | 1:00 – 4:00pm | Presented by Dakota Kaiser, PhD and Rachel Sheldon, MA, LPP, NCC

Pope Francis addressed a young couple's fear that lifelong fidelity was too challenging by sharing that the "cure" for "this fear of the forever" was "little steps, steps of shared growth." He emphasized that a marriage is not successful just because it endures, but that "quality matters." Join local married couple and psychotherapists, Dakota Kaiser, PhD and Rachel Sheldon, MA, LPP, NCC in an evening jam-packed with tools and activities to help take the "little steps" in building an epic relationship. Relationships are hard, life is complicated, and no one is perfect; any couple looking to grow or improve their relationship will walk away with something to talk about.

This retreat runs from 1:00 – 4:00 pm. Cost: $65 PER COUPLE

GROUP BIBLE STUDY

The Bible Study Group continues to meet weekly on Wednesdays at 9:30 am in Classroom #9. This Bible Study focuses on the upcoming Sunday Mass liturgical readings. We explore the Word as a group, sharing our faith and searching for ways that might influence our personal lives. By concentrating on the familiar Sunday readings, a level of comfort is provided for all while supporting an opportunity for growth.

Pope Francis encouraged us to study the Bible with this message:

“Dear brothers and sisters, the Lord is not so much looking for skilled commentators, as He is looking for docile hearts which, welcoming His Word, allow themselves to be changed inside.”

All are welcome. If you have any questions, please call: Rick Schwai 715-301-0634.
