Sophia's Kitchen News

Sophia's Kitchen was blessed to be able to give away over 1,300 Christmas baskets this year. At times, this project seemed like a Christmas miracle would be needed to accomplish this year. Supply chain issues put food in short supply and delayed shipments. More than half of the volunteers who signed up to help canceled due to illness at the last minute. The heat went out in the building, so we worked in our coats for weeks. Donations of canned goods were significantly smaller this year.

PND is always so good to Sophia's Kitchen, and we were happy to take 116 boxes of food to give away. However, they come with hams and turkeys, and as we looked at the fridge, and the meat, and then the fridge again, some heavy prayers went up to heaven! A prayer for a miracle of rapidly expanding the space of the refrigerator was answered with a bit of rearranging and "Food Jenga". Somehow everything fit, and still passed health codes!

Our guests were tearful as they accepted this gift of food. For many, this will fill empty cupboards. Christmas carols and happy volunteers gave them hope and joy as they came to pick up food. They ask that we tell you THANK YOU!

A Higher Power

A Sunday School teacher said to her young students, "We have been learning about how powerful the kings and queens were in biblical times. But there is a higher power. Who can tell me what it is?"

Tommy blurted out, "I know, Aces!"

Everyday Stewardship

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Light of the Moon

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life."

If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure — but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals — Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember — the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Epiphany

Epiphany

Question:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer:

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

Epiphany of the Lord

The song "We Three Kings" details the gifts of the Magi, but do you know what you're singing? "Born a king on Bethlehem's plan, gold I bring to crown Him again." This one is the most straightforward - gold symbolizes the Kingship of Christ. "Myrrh is mine: its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom." Myrrh is an embalming spice. Already at Christ's birth, we have the symbolic reminder of his death. "Frankincense to offer have I. Incense owns a deity nigh." In many religious traditions, incense symbolizes prayers rising to heaven. In some pagan traditions, it is thought to help "call down" the deity. The gift of frankincense symbolizes Jesus' role as the Great High Priest, sanctifying the world through his sacrifice.

Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra. Advertidos durante el sueño de que no volvieran a Herodes, regresaron a su tierra por otro camino.

Querida familia luego de transitar este tiempo de navidad seguimos en nuestro desafío por la santidad en medio de este mundo. Hoy, una imagen muy especial nos invita a la reflexión profunda. Hoy es el día en donde los Reyes Magos provenientes de oriente quieren adorar al Niño recién nacido. Podemos ver como, cada uno de ellos, con algo característico de sus tierras, ofrendan al niño lo mejor. Tres cosas. Oro, incienso y mirra serán los regalos. Ahora, ¿Qué significan estos regalos? Parecerían muy simples pero en realidad tienen un sentido muy profundo: Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra. Advertidos durante el sueño de que no volvieran a Herodes, regresaron a su tierra por otro camino. El oro entregado por los magos a Jesús era un reconocimiento de su realeza; el incienso, un homenaje supremo a su divinidad y la mirra, un anuncio a sus padecimientos como Redentor. Cada uno de los regalos tiene un sentido que prefigura su identidad. Ahora, este no será el punto de reflexión pero no quería dejar de reflexionar sobre esto. Mi pregunta se detendrá en realidad porque los reyes magos volvieron por otro camino. El sentido literal lo sabemos todos: “advertidos por el sueño no volvieron a Herodes”, pero detrás de esto hay un sentido mucho más profundo en el cual me gusta detenerme... los Reyes magos no volvieron por el mismo lugar porque en realidad, todo el que se encuentra con Jesús no vuelve por el mismo camino. Esto es increíble pensarlo así, pero es la verdad. Cuando nos encontramos con Jesús nuestra vida cambia, todo cambia. Aquello que antes vivíamos sin Jesús ahora cambia de sentido, cambia de prisma, inclusive el sufrimiento tiene una nueva dimensión. Esta afirmación sobre los Reyes y el camino diferente que eligen es el que debemos tratar de vivir.

En encuentro con Jesús nos da un nuevo sentido, por eso es importante poder vivir de diferentes maneras esta experiencia. ¿cómo?, buscando intimidad, a lo mejor, en retiros –hay muchas opciones que son buenas– hacer un retiro nos da herramientas que nos ayudan en nuestro camino de santidad. La gracia de los sacramentos es un bálsamo para nuestras almas. Además de tantas oportunidades que tenemos cotidianas para caminar junto con Jesús. Mi pregunta es: ¿cómo es posible que a veces no podamos llegar a la santidad con tantos regalos que el mismo Jesús nos dejó en esta lucha cotidiana?. Si, es verdad, pero es por nuestra libertad, el Señor nos respeta, hoy los Reyes Magos se encontraron con Jesús porque ellos lo buscaron, ellos enfrentaron el camino, con muchos peligros, al encuentro con Jesús. Pero no se detuvieron, no pararon, no frenaron, ellos sabían que el camino tendría obstáculos pero así mismo arriesgaron. Nuestra vida se trata de arriesgar. Debemos arriesgar siempre, cuando se trata de santidad, vivimos en un mundo en donde no podemos aceptar tibios, sino hombres que hagan una opción clara por Jesús, como lo hicieron los Reyes magos, sin importar el precio.

Dios nos conceda siempre este encuentro que nos transforma, Dios siempre nos de la gracia de amar hasta el extremo luego del encuentro con El. Pido esto por cada uno de nosotros. Dios te Bendiga. Padre Julio.

Domingo 02 de enero. Mt 2. 1-12

Jesús nació en Belén de Judá, en tiempos del rey Herodes. Unos magos de oriente llegaron entonces a Jerusalén y preguntaron: “¿Dónde está el rey de los judíos que acaba de nacer? Porque vimos surgir su estrella y hemos venido a adorarlo”.

Al enterarse de esto, el rey Herodes se sobresaltó y toda Jerusalén con él. Convocó entonces a los sumos sacerdotes y a los escribas del pueblo y les preguntó dónde tenía que nacer el Mesías. Ellos le contestaron: “En Belén de Judá, porque así lo ha escrito el profeta: Y tú, Belén, tierra de Judá, no eres en manera alguna la menor entre las ciudades ilustres de Judá, pues de ti saldrá un jefe, que será el pastor de mi pueblo, Israel!”.

Entonces Herodes llamó en secreto a los magos, para que le precisaran el tiempo en que se les había aparecido la estrella y los mandó a Belén, diciéndoles: “Vayan a averiguar cuidadosamente qué hay de ese niño y, cuando lo encuentren, avísenme para que yo también vaya a adorarlo”.

Después de oír al rey, los magos se pusieron en camino, y de pronto la estrella que habían visto surgir, comenzó a guiarlos, hasta que se detuvo encima de donde estaba el niño. Al ver de nuevo la estrella, se llenaron de inmensa alegría. Entraron en la casa y vieron al niño con María, su madre, y postrándose, lo adoraron. Después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra. Advertidos durante el sueño de que no volvieran a Herodes, regresaron a su tierra por otro camino.
