Today's Gospel: Mk 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Reflection: Contemplative moments

We are very much in the middle of holiday time. We all need a break from our routine, whatever that routine might be. Most of the time we go on holidays with somebody, or we go away to stay with somebody. Most of us like to be with others when we are away from our routine. In the gospel we find Jesus taking his disciples away together for a period of rest and quiet. They have had a busy time and were full of all they had done and taught and wanted to share it all with Jesus. He suggests a change of pace and of location, to take them away to a quiet place, where they could rest. This was to be a time of reflection in the company of Jesus, a time when they did nothing except be present to each other and to the Lord.

In our own faith life we all need such desert moments, times when we try to be present to the Lord and to each other. We have a prayer group in the parish that meets on a Monday night; it is a desert moment, a short period of about 30 minutes when people sit in silence having listened to a short talk. We have another prayer group that meets on a Tuesday evening, when a group of people gather around the gospel for the following Sunday, and listen to it in silence for about thirty minutes and then share a little on how it has spoken to them. These are times when people are present to the Lord and to each other in a more intense way than is usually the case. They are little desert moments that people can share together, times when we can come away to rest for a while in the Lord's presence and in the presence of other believers. Our church here is open every day until about 6.00 pm. Our church is that sort of desert space in the middle of our community. It is a place to which people can come away and rest for a while, in the words of the gospel. The silence can be an opportunity to share with the Lord what has been going on in our lives, just as in the gospel the disciples shared with Jesus all they had been doing and teaching. Other people can have that desert moment by going for a walk. As we walk we can become aware of the Lord and his presence to us, and we can become more aware of people in our lives, even though we may be walking alone. However we do it, as believers, as followers of the Lord, we all need to come away to some lonely place all by ourselves and rest for a while so that as to allow the Lord to be in a deeper communion with us.

El Evangelio: Mc 6, 30-34

En aquel tiempo, los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado. Entonces él les dijo: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco", porque eran tantos los que iban y venían, que no les dejaban tiempo ni para comer.

Jesús y sus apóstoles se dirigieron en una barca hacia un lugar apartado y tranquilo. La gente los vio irse y los reconoció; entonces de todos los poblados fueron corriendo por tierra a aquel sitio y se les adelantaron.

Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

Reflexión: Momentos contemplativos

Estamos en plena época de vacaciones. Todos necesitamos un descanso de nuestra rutina, cualquiera que sea esa rutina. La mayoría de las veces nos vamos de vacaciones con alguien o nos vamos a quedarnos con alguien. A la mayoría de nosotros nos gusta estar con otros cuando estamos lejos de nuestra rutina. En el evangelio encontramos a Jesús llevándose a sus discípulos juntos por un período de descanso y tranquilidad. Han tenido un tiempo muy ocupado y estaban llenos de todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado y querían compartirlo todo con Jesús. Sugiere un cambio de ritmo y de ubicación, para llevarlos a un lugar tranquilo, donde puedan descansar. Este iba a ser un tiempo de reflexión en compañía de Jesús, un tiempo en el que no hacían más que estar presentes el uno al otro y al Señor.

En nuestra propia vida de fe, todos necesitamos esos momentos desérticos, momentos en los que tratamos de estar presentes al Señor y los unos a los otros. Tenemos un grupo de oración en la parroquia que se reúne los lunes por la noche; es un momento desértico, un breve período de unos 30 minutos en el que la gente se sienta en silencio después de escuchar una breve charla. Tenemos otro grupo de oración que se reúne un martes por la noche, cuando un grupo de personas se reúne alrededor del evangelio para el domingo siguiente, lo escuchan en silencio durante unos treinta minutos y luego comparten un poco sobre cómo les ha hablado. Son momentos en los que las personas están presentes ante el Señor y entre sí de una manera más intensa de lo que suele ser el caso. Son pequeños momentos del desierto que la gente puede compartir, momentos en los que podemos irnos a descansar un rato en la presencia del Señor y en la presencia de otros creyentes. Nuestra iglesia aquí está abierta todos los días hasta las 6:00 pm. Nuestra iglesia es ese tipo de espacio desértico en medio de nuestra comunidad. Es un lugar al que la gente puede ir y descansar un rato, según las palabras del evangelio. El silencio puede ser una oportunidad para compartir con el Señor lo que ha estado sucediendo en nuestras vidas, así como en el evangelio los discípulos compartieron con Jesús todo lo que habían estado haciendo y enseñando. Otras personas pueden tener ese momento desértico dando un paseo. A medida que caminamos, podemos tomar conciencia del Señor y su presencia para nosotros, y podemos ser más conscientes de las personas en nuestras vidas, aunque estemos caminando solos. Independientemente de cómo lo hagamos, como creyentes, como seguidores del Señor, todos necesitamos irnos solos a algún lugar solitario y descansar un rato para permitir que el Señor esté en una comunión más profunda con nosotros.
