Beginning in early September, participants deepen their knowledge and faith in Christ and His holy Church in preparation for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism if needed, Confirmation and Eucharist). We would like to meet with you and provide more information about the process. Contact Karen, 481-0777 or karen@secatholic.org.

Cycles of Faith

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Answers: 1a; 2c; 3b; 4d; 5c Notes: Q2
Thomas Jefferson is often listed as Deist by historians although his beliefs also coincided with the Unitarians of the time. He once said that he thought the whole country would one day be Unitarian. Q4 Francis Asbury was a driving force for the growth of the church. He ordained 4,000 ministers and gave over 16,000 sermons. Q5 Signers were Daniel Carroll (Maryland) and Thomas Fitzsimons (Pennsylvania)

Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:58-60
