SPIRITUAL ADOPTION-JESUS IN THE WOMB

Week 27 - The folds and grooves in Jesus's brain are expanding and getting more complex at this stage. He also boasts of a healthy head of hair as well. Jesus of the womb, hear our prayers!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The festival committee needs a small commitment of your volunteer time. In the kitchen just a couple hours helping prep and/or serve food, set up or clean up would go a very long way toward making this event our most successful ever. You can complete a volunteer form (located in the pews) or contact Stephanie at 262-378-0151 or stephgmomof3@gmail.com. You may also sign up on the website www.staugies.org/oktoberfest. Bring your muscles. We need help setting up the stage, setting up the bar, moving tables into place and running the lighting in the tent. The tent will be set up on Wednesday. We could use help late Wednesday afternoon and Thursday. Call the parish office.

ALS WALK SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13TH

As many of you may know, Joe Laska, our Facilities Director was diagnosed with ALS. ALS is a disease affecting motor neurons of the spinal cord, which causes progressive weakness and atrophy of muscles. There is no cure. Please join "Joe Laska's Team-We Got Your Back" for this year's walk to defeat ALS. The two mile walk is at Greenfield Park, 12377 W Lincoln Ave in West Allis on Sunday, October 13th at 10:00am. Pre registration is available online with a direct link to Joe's team at <https://donate.alsawi.org/laska>. T-shirts are being ordered for those walking or participating in the days event. Please let the parish secretary know your size by September 25th. Registration opens at 8:30am the day of the event. If you are unable to walk, you may want to be a sponsor for Joe. This may be done using the same link or stop by the parish office. All proceeds benefit the ALS Wisconsin Chapter. Please consider sponsoring or joining my team and walk to beat this fatal disease.-Joe

The role of the sponsor is to attend the RCIA sessions and discuss the material with him. You are not a class teacher – just a fellow Christian on the journey of faith. Classes are held on Sunday mornings at St. Veronica from 8:30am – 10:15am from November to Easter. If you would like to help welcome someone into our Catholic faith, please call or email 414-481-0777 or karen@secatholic.org.

Cycles of Faith

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. "How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty." This parable isn't advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers over-charged and skimmed off the top.

Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we're responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? "No servant can serve two masters." These week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?
