Open Wide Our Hearts

The sin of racism is difficult to eradicate in our society and our church. The US Conference of Bishops wrote a pastoral letter against racism and encouraged parishes to study it carefully and thoughtfully. The six South Shore parishes will be offering a virtual study/discussion on this important document on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of January and February at 7:15pm - 8:15pm. There will also be an in-person discussion group on the same Mondays from 9am - 10am. Copies of the document can be downloaded at www.usccb.org/resources/open-wide-our-hearts. The study guide is available at www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/racism/upload/study-guide-open-hearts-2019-09.pdf. If you need a printed copy, please contact Karen at the Religious Ed office. To register for either the online discussion group or the daytime in-person group call Karen at 414-481-0777 or e-mail at karen@secatholic.org by January 7.

Open Wide Our Hearts Virtual Exhibit

The diocese of Green Bay has put together an online virtual exhibit featuring photos and narratives from people of various ethnic and racial background. The purpose is to provide the opportunity to listen to their voices and to open our hearts to their unique perspective on Catholic parishes and schools. They are personal stories; unique to the individuals. They are shared so that we will hopefully be inspired to hear the stories of people in our parishes who may be different from ourselves. To view the exhibit, go to www.openwideourheartsgb.org.

Respect Life - Christmas Shop Free at the Respect Life Brochure Rack

Many books are available to give as gifts. Ultimate Makeover, The Transforming Power of Motherhood by Carrie Gress - Imagine receiving a makeover that not only promised to make you more beautiful, but softened the rough edges of your personality, helped you gain control of your emotions, better manage your relationships, and grow in wisdom. And what if it could actually make you happy? Motherhood is difficult - there's no getting around it. And yet, the challenges a woman faces when she becomes a mother don't have to be in vain. Instead of a series of frustrating, exhausting, or exasperating experiences, author Carrie Gress (a mother of four young children) sees daily life as an opportunity to grow gracefully as a woman, mother, wife, and friend.

Lectionary Link

This week we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Our Gospel recounts the presentation of Jesus at the Temple in Jerusalem. Every firstborn Jew male was offered up to God. They were recognizing that all life comes from the Lord God. Yet this was not just any family. Jesus is the Messiah and Lord yet He was born into a human family. Mary and Joseph had to care for and protect this special child until He was old enough to go out on His mission from God the Father.

Children: How will you show your love for your family in 2022?

SHJ FAITH FORMATION

Lecito Devinia

Lectio Divina is divine reading. We are encouraged to read Scripture by going over one particular passage slowly, rereading it, pondering it and seeing if anything in particular touches our spirit.

One of my favorite spiritual writers is Frederick Buechner, recommended by Mr. Rogers himself. And one of my favorite pieces of his is "The Birth" which can be found in Magnificent Defeat, a book of essays on the Christian life, the miracles of grace and the mystery of Christmas and Easter.

Buechner's Lectio Divina for the Nativity story brought him to wonder what, if anything, the lesser characters remembered about that night or how it impacted their life. The innkeeper, the Magi and a shepherd speak as if they are responding to questions from Buechner. The innkeeper talks defensively yet honestly, responding to the stories of no room at the inn. The Magi speak of tricking Herod and of the feeling deep within that they didn't understand yet knew that they had to make the trip. Finally the shepherd speaks of a long, cold and hungry night that comes alive and you see what you've been looking at forever and had missed.

Each story, each character, has a message for us – one they learned after reflecting on that night for many years. Buechner tells the story beautifully, from a different perspective than we are used to. "The Birth" gave me, and I hope you as well, points of the story to reflect more deeply on.

If you are interested in reading the "The Birth", send me an email and I will make it happen for you. hbug@att.net.

May these days of Christmas be filled with the love Jesus has for each of us.
