THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ILLI

From the Pastor

With this weekend's Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we bring the Christmas Season to conclusion. In one of the earliest written records (around 100 AD) of the Christian Church called the Didache, we find instructions about baptism. "Baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in living water. But if you have not living water, baptize in other water. If you cannot baptize in cold, then in warm...pour water three times on the head." For nearly 2000 years we have been baptizing in exactly this manner.

Water is used to express cleansing from sin and a new birth to innocence and the Holy Spirit. In baptism we are joined to Christ and to the Church. A feast recalling the baptism of Jesus, invites us to consider once again the grace and blessing of our own baptism. Baptism marks a passage from death to life. The same water used to baptize is used to sprinkle on our caskets with the words: "In baptism we were joined to Christ, now may we come to share his Resurrection."

In our gospel passage this weekend, you will notice that there is a dove seen in the sky. To some that dove is representative of the dove that signaled the end to the great flood and a new beginning for Noah and his family. This event represents a new moment for the people of Israel. Jesus also speaks about another baptism into which he must be baptized and how great is his anguish until it is accomplished. Jesus will allow himself to be immersed in the baptism of suffering and death. Through these saving actions, all who believe and are baptized in him enter fully into his life and his death, and go with him through the passage of death to life everlasting.

I wish everyone a Happy New year and a blessed week!

Heading South for the Winter? Please contact the parish office with your winter address and the dates which you will be gone.

JUST A REMINDER. When you or a loved one enters the hospital through the emergency room, please let the parish office know. Also, if you, a loved one or someone you know is homebound or has moved to a nursing home, please call the parish office.

 FAIR TRADE products will be available next weekend, Jan. 15 & 16 after the 4:00, 4:15, 9:30 and 11:00 Masses. Purchase of these products, as you know, provides a fair and just income to farmers in 3rd world countries. This is one way to eradicate global poverty.

The Deacon's Journal

- Deacon Jim -

We have just crossed the threshold and entered the year 2022. It is a time of opportunity for renewed hope and new possibilities. In the first chapter of John's gospel two disciples of John are following Jesus. Jesus turns to them and asks, "What are you looking for?"

Scripture is alive today because it is happening today. Jesus asks us today, "What are we looking for?" Have we or do we give much thought to what we are looking for or have the things of life taken over the direction of our lives. Why would we or do we follow Jesus? Are we just looking for something or are we just looking to give something? Or might it be both of these? So, what are we looking for? What are we looking to give? We need to answer those question. Our answers tell us an awful lot. They reveal to us the direction of our journey of faith and journey of conversion. They reveal any changes we might need or want to make. Reflecting on these questions will enable us to no longer just wander aimlessly through life from one event to the next or one crisis to the next. We can live a life of purpose driven faith. So, what are we looking for? Ask yourself the question this week and give some thought to what your answer says. And consider this thought, "You can tell you are on the right tract...It is usually uphill.

CEW (Christian Experience Weekend). Let's take time to pause and be grateful for all the gifts God has given us. A wonderful way to share in his abundant blessings, grow closer to him and recognize his presence in your life is to experience a CEW. The women's weekend will be held March 4-6 and the men's weekend is March 11-13. For more information contact Diane Link 563-590-5686 or dmlinkrn@gmail.com or Andy Schroeder 563-581-6461 or Andy.energize@gmail.com.

SH ENVIRONMENT: After many faithful years of serving the environment of Sacred Heart, Nicole has asked for someone to take her place as head of environment. Please let Patrick know if you are interested.
