MEET MEAGHAN TURNER - LUMEN CHRISTI'S NEW DIRECTOR OF CATHOLIC FORMATION

Hello! My name is Meaghan Turner, and I am so excited to join Lumen Christi Parish as the Director of Catholic Formation. I grew up in Greendale, WI attending St. Alphonsus as my home parish and graduated from UW-Madison with a degree in Human Development and Family Studies. My husband, Carl, and I were married in October 2009, and one year later on our anniversary, we welcomed our oldest daughter, Piper, into the world (we call that Divinely planned!). We have three other children Micah (6), Makayla (4), and Paxton (almost 2) and a child, Hope, interceding for us in Heaven. As a family, we love being outdoors, gardening, swimming, living room dance parties, and eating dessert first. I love any excuse to get coffee or go for a walk.

My relationship with Christ began my junior year of high school during my confirmation retreat. Since that moment, I sought for a deeper relationship with Him, fell in love with the Church, and dedicated my life to walking with others on their faith journey. I know the value of strong and vibrant ministries that make up parish life, all of which flow from the Eucharist. I believe that formation within the parish community should provide multidimensional opportunities for individuals and families to develop their faith, enjoy Christian fellowship, and take into action their Baptismal Call, to be active members in the Body of Christ.

I spent six years after college as the youth minister for a parish in Cross Plains, WI located in the Diocese of Madison, and for the last ten years, I have served St. Monica and St. Eugene parishes as both Director of Youth Ministry and Director of Adult Ministry. I look forward to getting to know Lumen Christi Parish community, praying together, and growing closer to the Lord as one Family, sharing the Love and Light of Christ.

TUESDAY MORNING READING + DISCUSSION

Second Vatican Council Dei Verbum (The Word of God)

SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL - DEI VERBUM (WORD OF GOD) READING & DISCUSSION

Tuesdays - July 5, 12, 19 | 9:15 AM | St. Elizabeth

On Tuesday, July 5th, 12th, and 19th, Fr. Stephen will be leading a three-part walk-through of the Second Vatican Council document Dei Verbum (The Word of God), which is meant to help us better grasp the study of Scripture. The three sessions are scheduled for Tuesday mornings after daily Mass in St. Elizabeth Room, and will consist of reading a portion of the document (~3 pages/week) and discussion. No registration needed, just print out the document and bring to the first session! The document can be downloaded via the button on the parish homepage or at bit.ly/DeiVerbumPDF.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WAS A ROUSING SUCCESS!

Both parents and children were delightful. We learned about fruits of the spirit and the beatitudes and the little kids learned additional bible stories from the old testament. The children bonded with each other while developing a deeper love for God. The volunteers were amazing and the atmosphere was joyful and exciting. We were so blessed to have such caring, dedicated and committed volunteers that were both students and adults. They used their individual gifts to help the children learn and grow in their faith. A special thank you to all the parents who signed their children up for this incredible week.

NEW PARISHIONER WELCOME FOLDERS

New to the parish? Been here for a while, but still need to officially become members? Stop by the welcome desk after Mass and pick up a new parishioner welcome folder! ### STEWARDSHIP CORNER

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'"
- Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

CREATION CARE CORNER RECOMMENDATION

"... the world as God's creation...is not something indifferent, raw material to be utilized simply as we see fit."

— Pope Benedict XVI

Save nearly $100 per year by washing clothes in cold water. They get just as clean with today's detergents. But hot water washes use five times the energy—and create five times the climate warming emissions.

EMPLOYMENT NETWORK

The Lumen Christi Employment Network seeks to assist those in a job transition. The group meets in person every Wednesday in St. Cecilia Hall at 8:00 AM. Please contact Pat Cronin at croninpatrickj3@gmail.com with any questions.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Elizabeth of Portugal | July 5

St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his Queen Constantia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband's infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Elizabeth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedicated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode between armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay member at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over, she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Afonso IV, from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever.

Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to 5 July since 4 July is Independence Day, a national holiday. ©LPI

CALLED TO MAKE THE KINGDOM A REALITY

When we think about the great saints of our Catholic tradition, we realize that they very often come in pairs: Paul and Barnabas, Perpetua and Felicity, Benedict and Scholastica, Francis and Clare of Assisi, Vincent de Paul and Louise de Marillac, to name only a few examples. Even within my own Salvatorian community, we often see our founder, Blessed Francis Jordan, paired with Blessed Mary of the Apostles (of the Salvatorian Sisters). To the list of martyrs and consecrated religious women and men, we can also add married couples like Isidore the Farmer and Maria or Louis and Zélie Martin (the parents of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux) — husbands and wives who proclaimed and lived their faith through the daily witness of their marriage vows and family commitments.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends out seventy-two of his disciples in pairs to "every town and place he intended to visit." These disciples were to let the local communities know that Jesus and the Apostles were on their way. They were being asked to evangelize — to announce the "Good News" that Jesus was coming. (Remember that our word "evangelize" comes from the Greek word evangelion, which originally meant a joyful announcement — good news — that a king was coming to visit or that a military battle had been won.) And the message, the evangelion, that Jesus had instructed the disciples to proclaim was simple: "The Kingdom of God is at hand for you." Here. Now.

The disciples' journey and their announcement of the coming of the Kingdom — and of the King himself — was the action. But what was bubbling beneath the surface, within the hearts and souls of those early evangelizers? It was their faith in and relationship with Jesus and with one another.

When Jesus sent out those pairs of disciples as "laborers for his harvest," he wanted them to work together, to share their faith, support and encourage one another when the journey was difficult, and to witness to the fact that to be a disciple of Jesus calls for collaboration and community. This is why we see so many saints — including those listed above — working collaboratively to fulfill their mission. This Gospel passage reminds us that living our faith with integrity means that we express what is going on in the depths of our hearts and souls in and through our words and actions. We can't live out our faith or exercise our ministries within a vacuum.

In this passage, we also hear Jesus teaching an important lesson in relationships by urging the disciples to pay attention to the response of the people they were visiting. Yes, they were to share their message about the coming of the Kingdom, but he also wanted them to watch and listen — to be in relationship with the people they visited, to be sensitive to how the Good News was being received and to act accordingly. Keeping this in mind not only helps to be sure that the Gospel is being proclaimed effectively, but it also allows us to be sensitive to the "signs of the times" and the needs of the communities we are called to serve.

In the end, the mission of the disciples was to proclaim the faith they held within their hearts and invite others — all others — to join them in building up God's Kingdom as faithful disciples. Faith and action came together in relationships — the communion and community of the Kingdom of God. The Gospel demands that we, as Christians — collaborating disciples proclaiming our interior faith through our public works of mercy and justice — make ourselves available for the task of making the Kingdom a reality within our families, parishes, communities, and country.

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE ©LPI

First Reading: Upon their return from exile in Babylon, the prophet Isaiah speaks of God's restoration of Jerusalem, characterizing Jerusalem as a nurturing mother feeding and loving her child. Why do you think Isaiah uses such sensuous and bold imagery?

Second Reading: In his closing remarks to the Galatians, Paul comments that he "bears the marks of Jesus on his body," a clear reference to his own physical sufferings. Paul's scarred body gave him credibility as an apostle. How would you demonstrate your credibility as a believer in Jesus?

Gospel: During his public ministry, we hear how Jesus sent out his followers to begin evangelizing (preaching, healing, and exorcising) in his name. How best can we evangelize non-believers today?
