EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Early on Easter morning, three women go to the tomb of Jesus to anoint His body, per Jewish custom. Approaching the tomb, they discuss the dilemma of rolling back the large stone that covers the entrance, for it is too heavy for them to move. It is at this moment that they realize the stone has been rolled away and, upon entering the tomb, Jesus' body is nowhere to be found. Rather, an angel greets them with the instruction, "Do not be amazed!" Jesus had risen just as He had foretold. (Mark 16:1-7)

How often during this past year have we discussed with one another our human frailty amid the heavy burdens that confront us? Like the three women, we continue with our daily responsibilities amid uncertainty, doubt, and confusion. If this past year has taught us anything, a lesson may be that we have less control over our lives and the successes we seek than we once thought. Rather than depress or frustrate us, this realization should be a consolation to all those who celebrate the Resurrection.

It was precisely in this moment of the recognition of weakness that the glory of God was made manifest. While the women entered the empty tomb in sheer amazement, the heavenly being reminded them, "Do not be amazed!" What is burdensome, overwhelming, destructive, and even deadly for humans, is conquered by Christ. God has promised to save us, and Christ has surely risen from the dead. Do not be amazed!

What the angel is instructing the women – and all of us now – is to believe that God is faithful. Every worry of the human heart comes from a lack of trust in God's faithfulness. During Lent, we may have profoundly experienced these worries as we tried to let go of the behaviors or treasures we cling to for security and comfort. At Easter, we rejoice in the event of God's faithfulness that destroys the fears, even the ultimate fear of death, forever. Rather than be amazed, or in disbelief of the saving power of God, we are called to rejoice in His faithfulness and love for us.

I invite you to ponder the reading from Isaiah 54 that was read at the Easter Vigil. We hear the Lord say:

Though the mountains leave their place and the hills be shaken, my love shall never leave you nor my covenant of peace be shaken, says the LORD, who has mercy on you...

All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the peace of your children. In justice shall you be established, far from the fear of oppression, where destruction cannot come near you. (Is 54:10-14)

In the many ways we have all been challenged, confounded, or wounded this past year, I ask you to bring these burdens to the empty tomb. Together with the women, encounter the glory of God's faithfulness and let your heart rejoice in His mercy and love for you. His love will never leave you. Let us all bring the joy of the Resurrection, which we celebrate at every Mass, to our families and communities.

With a heart full of gratitude for your faithfulness, I am, Sincerely yours in Christ

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

Religious Education Update:

Grades 1 - 8: Wednesdays from 6-7 PM
 at Holyland Catholic School
 April 7 - Last Class

Grades 9 - 11: Second and Fourth Sundays, Mass at 6 at St. John the Baptist, Class at 7 at Holyland Catholic School
 April 7 - Confirmation Rehearsal 7 PM - Holy Cross Church
 April 11 - Confirmation 2 PM - Holy Cross Church

Holy Week is one of the most important weeks in the Catholic year, and the students in the Religious Education program have gotten a sense for that over the past week. In the grade school classes, teachers spent last week's class entering into Holy Week with their students by doing special prayers and projects, and preparing the children for the Triduum. Last weekend in our last high school Religious Education class of the year, we discussed what the bodily Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven of our Lord means for us as Christians. The high school Religious Education students served in ministry roles for the Masses on Holy Thursday evening. I hope you have had a blessed Lent and will have a joy-filled Easter season!

The Usher

An elderly woman walked into the local country church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps.

"Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely.

"The front row, please," she answered.

"You really don't want to do that," the usher said.

"The pastor is really boring."

"Do you happen to know who I am?" the woman inquired.

"No," he said.

"I'm the pastor's mother," she replied indignantly.

"Do you know who I am?" he asked.

"No," she said. "Good," he answered.

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story

"Is there a happy ending?"

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, "Is there a happy ending?"

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

From the Pastor's Desk: Sunday, April 4, 2021

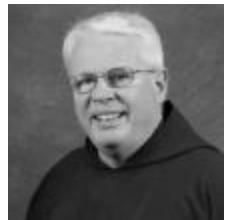

The German theologian, physician and organist Albert Schweitzer once said: "If you are called upon to play a church service, it is a greater honor than if you were to play a concert on the finest organ in the world...Thank God each time when you are privileged to sit before the organ console and assist in the worship of the Almighty."

Ellie Gavin has for decades had the honor of sitting at the organ console and assisting "in the worship of the Almighty." And Ellie has done it well. St. John the Baptist Parish has been blessed to experience the musical gifts of Ellie Gavin for over sixty years. Ellie has played the organ, piano and led the choir with a dedication borne out of her deep faith. That is why it is so difficult to announce that Ellie has decided that the time has come for her to retire from playing at St. John the Baptist. Her spirit is indeed willing but her legs for climbing to the choir loft – not so much. It is unfortunate that in some ways Ellie's retirement from leading the St. John the Baptist Choir happened almost a year ago due to the pandemic restrictions.

The good news is that Ellie is not entirely retiring from offering her musical services. Just as the donation of an organ such as a heart means sadness and loss for one family there is joy and new life for another. Holy Cross Church has no stairs and so Ellie is able to continue playing in Mt. Calvary. You could say we will be experiencing an "organist" transplant from Johnsburg to Mt. Calvary.

We have been blessed to have Ellie's services in Johnsburg for such a long time. Our Holyland Parishes have benefited from all of our organists/pianists. Any pastor, whatever the denomination, will tell you that securing a good organist is far from easy in these days. I will now add looking for a successor to Ellie to my "To Do List" and hope we are not without one in Johnsburg for too long.

Thank you Ellie for all the music and so much more that you have given to our Holyland Catholic Parishes in general and in particular to those who worship at St. John the Baptist Church. I am well aware that this was not an easy decision but one you could not avoid. Please know that you have been appreciated by the choir members you led, the parishioners you served and the pastors with whom you collaborated. Your music ministry has provided joy to Brides and Grooms on their wedding day, consolation to families at the funeral of loved ones, and enhanced countless regular and special liturgical celebrations.

I also want to thank Ellie's husband Mike for the many hours her ministry may have interfered with previous plans or just took her away. On behalf of the people of St. John the Baptist Parish and as their pastor I want to express our gratitude for all that you have given us. Thank you Ellie and God bless you.

Peace & all good!

Fr. Gary

- Q. Who was the greatest financier in the Bible?
A. Noah. He was floating his stock while everyone else was in liquidation.
- Q. Who was the greatest female financier in the Bible?
A. Pharaoh's daughter. She went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet.

The Right Answer

During his children's sermon, our assistant pastor asked the kids, "What is gray, has a bushy tail, and gathers nuts in the fall?"

One five-year-old raised his hand, "I know the answer should be Jesus," he began, "but it sounds like a squirrel to me."
