O Most Blessed Virgin Mary,
Our Lady of the Holyland, and our Patroness!

To you we offer up our prayers for the needs of the Church here and throughout the world. Help us to remain one with your Son Jesus and united amongst ourselves, so that we may be true witnesses for Christ in our daily lives and that the Lord's blessings of peace and harmony be within our families and communities always. Trusting in your maternal intercession, we beseech you to hear our humble prayers and grant us the graces we seek... so that we may give glory to God forever.

Amen.

Everyday Stewardship

It was many years ago, but I remember it as if it was yesterday. Before most good basketball players left college early for the NBA draft, the Duke Blue Devils won back-to-back championships in men's basketball. The morning after the second championship, I drove to the campus bookstore in order to be one of the first to purchase commemorative T-shirts: one for me and several more for my parents and wife. A crowd was at the door of the store when I arrived, long before it was open for business. When I finally walked inside, I looked around and saw one shirt in particular I liked. I walked over to it, and as I got close to reaching out to pick it up, a little old lady literally ran into me, spun me around, grabbed the shirt, and shrieked, "It's mine!" As if there was only one shirt in the entire store!

Neither of us were entitled to that shirt. In fact, we aren't entitled to much in this life. Rather than searching to get what we think we deserve or trying to beat out others for a better position in this world, our God calls us to focus on helping others to experience the many gifts available to them in this life. We are called to serve instead of be served. Our mission is to sacrifice ourselves and what we desire on this earth for the Kingdom of God. If we are willing to essentially assault someone to get to a T-shirt, what will we do when the stakes are higher? After my initial shock, I wasn't really angry with that lady at Duke. After all, I would like to think that if she simply asked me for it I would have given it to her. At least, I hope I would have.

A Reflection on the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight. Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight.

That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world.

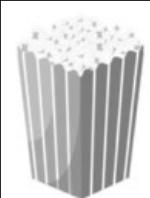

Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on, in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little — or perhaps in a flash — we'll see once again, or perhaps for the first time.

— Father John Muir

It was an AMAZING, PEACEFUL,BEAUTIFUL Encounter Night, IF you came, thank you! IF you did NOT please try to come when we have another one. YOU will love it! Fr. Edward Sanchez gave a nice short talk on being here in front of the Eucharist and Steven Joubert played beautiful prayer and worship music you could sing along with if you chose or just listen and be present. We had Prayer Teams that would pray with and for you if you chose. The Capuchins joined us and helped with confessions and Adoration. The St. Lawrence Seminary boys joined us too, which was great! We had a small social after for anyone who chose to stick around. Special shout of to Sheila Skiff for organizing this and setting everything up and her hubby Jordan for helping too!

Our prayerful support goes out to the families of Arlene Daun, Judy Gross & Sylvia Petrie

May God's consolation and peace be with them

May Christ Jesus welcome them into the promise of heaven, where there is no more pain of loss, only the love of God. Grant them eternal rest, O God, and let Your perpetual light shine upon them. Amen."

St. Ann Parish Fall Dinner

Sunday, November 10 8am Mass
Drive thru ONLY Tips & Ham Dinner $15
10:30am-1pm

We would LOVE to see your children and/or grandchildren at Mass. The Evangelization Committee has worked very hard to get these changing tables in all our weekend sites and these fun dressers that are stocked with diapers and wipes and have children's books on them that your kids can take into church. We also have these fun welcoming cards that will be appearing in the churches soon

To the parents of our young children, we suggest... Relax! God put the wiggle in children, don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. All are welcome! Sit toward the front where it is easier to see and hear. Quietly explain the parts of the Mass. Sing the hymns, pray, and even say a quick 'Our Father' or 'Hail Mary' or 'Amen' by copying your. If you have to leave Mass with your child, please feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me..." (Luke 18:16) Remember that the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the Church. If you do not feel comfortable, let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

To the parishioners, an encouraging reminder... A smile of encouragement is always welcome to parents with small, active children. "Children are, in and of themselves, a treasure for humanity and also for the Church." Pope Francis

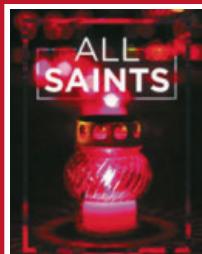

House of Peace/St. Ben's Food drive, please have food to church by November 10th....

- ✖ 4 cans of corn
- ✖ 2 boxes of pudding/ Jell-O
- ✖ 1 box of cake mix
- ✖ 1 can of frosting
- ✖ 1 can of gravy (no glass)

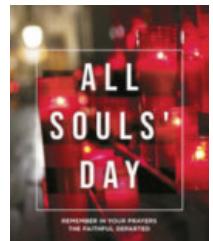

Please help those in need. Help in anyway and as much as you can. Containers will be at all the churches. Cut this list out and take it along as you do your shopping and pick up some items OR the whole meal!

We will take up a Second Collection on November 9 & 10 for anyone who would rather not shop but would like to donate.

Thank you to all who came out to Shakey Joe's Monday night to listen to Chris McGalloway's talk on the Theology of Bohemian Rhapsody. Chris touched on so many things. The song, how we all need God in our life, that we are loved by Jesus more than any other person. That we can find God everywhere. To find peace within ourselves is to listen and ask for his guidance. We would love your feedback and love to hear if you would like to do this again! IF you see Fr. Paul, Sheila, Tammy or Lori please let us know what you thought. Special shout out again to Sheila Skiff for making this night possible, along with so many wonderful things Sheila is doing for our parish in the Holyland.

The Change of Seasons

This is my favorite time of year. I love the color of leaves changing to those beautiful warm colors, the cooling of the air and decorating for fall. I also deeply appreciate All Saints and All Souls.

Decorating for fall is a fun hobby that I have. Sunflowers, hay bales, pumpkins and mums. I get to go shopping with my girlfriends to Honeymoon Acres and indulge in all that they have. This allows me to decorate my home, the rectory, and the St. John Church site. However, my sweet husband does always ask how much and of course I say "Does it really matter, look it's so pretty". If you are thinking how does that go over, it doesn't but I certainly try. Complimenting my fall decorations is the beautiful landscape with the warm colors that surround us. I am truly in awe of what God can create before our very eyes.

God puts in front of us such beauty, yet there is also tragedy, loss and sadness. This brings me to All Souls. This mass is very close to my heart for many reasons. As I am sure most of you know, I lost my dad two years ago. He battled with heart disease, and lost his fight July 1st. I found myself able to work through it well the first year, as my sisters and I helped my mom through her struggles; making sure she was okay. As she had just lost her friend, husband and father to her three children. They were married for 60 years. I am quite certain that she was unsure of how to go on without her other half. Then there is the second year.

Mom is doing well; she is strong and a little more self-reliant. What do I do as she doesn't need me as much. Well, now I find myself grieving in ways that I didn't realize I could grieve. Hitting me at all different times and days. This is when I reach out to God. He is kneeling beside me, holding my hand and saying it's okay. That my dad is still with me and I can still talk with him and feel his presence all around me. That gives me peace and hope. I am so grateful that I have that in my life. I feel like I am helping people to process the loss of their loved ones. I am proud that we are able to have this mass and help all of you, in any way we can. Just know you are not alone, and we are here for you in any way you may need us. My favorite phrase, "we all need a village".

"I hope I can be the autumn leaf, who looked at the sky and lived. And when it was time to leave, gracefully it knew life was a gift."
— DODINSKY

All Souls can help those who have lost a loved one start their grieving process and understand that God is with us at all times. We just need to talk, pray, and listen. He is there! I am proof that all you need to do is believe.

To wrap this up I find fall bitter sweet. The warm colors, the beauty I see to the cool temperatures and chance of snow, reminds me of the love I feel for my dad and then the loss I feel for him on this earth as well.

The Commemoration of All Souls Mass will be on Saturday, November 2nd at our Holy Cross Site at 4:30PM. We will be celebrating the thirty parishioners that we lost this past year. We will honor those souls by lighting candles and calling out their names during mass. Please join us in this sacred mass of commemoration and celebrate the lives of those we lost. They will always be in hearts and prayers and will never be forgotten.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTSGiving as God does

Ask yourself this question — what would you pray for if you really believed God could and would do anything for you? In my experience, we all have something. We all have that miracle we're afraid to request, afraid we will be disappointed.

Do we doubt God's readiness to give because we ourselves have such an imperfect understanding of charity and love? Maybe if we had better faith in God we would be more ready to give of ourselves — and maybe if we were more ready to give of ourselves, we would understand more clearly the ways of God.

Because we're not really afraid that God can't do something. We know He can do anything. What we're afraid of is that He will do what He always does: give us what we need, not what we want.

Have you ever had a friend in need and you just wanted to give them something — a meal, a phone call, a text? Not because you knew it would help, but simply because you wanted to reach out. And have they ever said to you: It wasn't so much what you gave, but the fact that you did. You gave them what they needed even if it wasn't what they specifically asked for.

When we give in this manner, we are giving as God does. Sometimes we are afraid to ask because we don't want to be disappointed. But remember, the blind man on the road got what he asked for, but he would have gotten what he needed even if his answer had been the opposite. God's generosity is always reckless, and it's always perfect.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer for Courage

“Take courage,” we hear, “Jesus is calling you!”
Jesus, give me the grace to respond to your call — your invitation to what I don't understand, to the unknown, the mystery. In these spaces, your grace abounds. Be with me, give me courage!

Amen.
