FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This week, please enjoy the excerpt below
from Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Pellegrino:

Today's celebration presents Jesus being baptized by John in the Jordan River. The celebration marks the end of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. It is the only Sunday of the year that belongs to two seasons.

Why?

This feast belongs to two seasons because it is the beginning. Jesus accepts His ministry, His reason for being. This is the beginning of the teaching, preaching and healing that make up the public ministry of the Lord.

The ancient Christian witnesses see a great significance in this particular Epiphany or showing of the Lord. The words of the Father, the presence of the Holy Spirit, demonstrate God's action among his people. Jesus in his human nature has accepted the plan devised by the Father to care for his people.

How does this apply to us? Simply this: This Sunday leads us to consider God's plan for our lives and how well we allow Him to work his plans through us. Sometimes we ask ourselves a question whose answer is beautifully obvious. Why was I created? Or What is God's plan for me?

His plan is that you and I make a difference in the world by gifting the world with a unique reflection of His love that only each of us could provide. There are people in the world who will meet God by meeting you. These are people who are searching. They are searching for meaning in life. They are searching for reasons behind their joy and pain, their sadness and hurts. They seek lasting happiness. They search for answers and they rely on us, you and I, to help them find these answers.

That is why we embrace the work of the Lord until the last day we live. That is why each stage of our lives presents us with a challenge, a new way to serve the Lord.

We live for the Lord. We die for the Lord. We embrace the mission of the Father.

We do this through our vocations to the married life, to parenthood, to the priesthood, to religious life, or to the life of the committed Catholic single.

When we love others, we are continuing His Mission, for He is the Tremendous Lover.

When we develop and use the particular gifts He has given to each of us to make the world beautiful for others, we are continuing His Mission.

When those of you who are married put your spouse before yourselves, you are continuing His Mission to make love the motivation of life.

When those of you who have children empty yourselves so your children can grow into the reflections of God as as He created them to be, you are continuing His Mission.

When we strive to be the best at whatever it is that He calls us to do in our careers, we are continuing His Mission.

When we say "No!" to sin and "Yes" to care for all who are hurting, we are continuing His Mission.

When we make time to be kind to those whom our society hates, the downtrodden, the socially unacceptable, the butt of jokes at school, at work, in the community, we are continuing His Mission.

When we respond to the Grace to do something for someone else, we are continuing His Mission.

When we realize with our lives that we are not the center of the universe, but that Jesus is the Center, and our center, we are continuing His Mission.

Today we join Jesus at the Jordan River. With Him we also accept the mission the Father has set aside for each one of us. And we thank God for making us part of His plan for His people.

ORDO FOR THE WEEK

Jan. 9 – Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

With this feast, the Christmas season officially ends. To fulfill all righteousness, Jesus was baptized in the Jordan river by John the Baptist, who saw the Holy Spirit descend upon Jesus. Jesus then began his public life. And so we begin Ordinary Time, the time of the Holy Spirit at work in the world.

Jan. 10 – Saint Gregory of Nyssa, bishop (c. 335-395)

The son of two saints, Basil and Emmilia, Saint Gregory was raised by his older brother, Saint Basil the Great. He was elected bishop of Nyssa, and wrote with great effectiveness against Arianism and other questionable doctrines, gaining a reputation as a defender of orthodoxy. He was not simply a pillar of orthodoxy, but one of the great contributors to the mystical tradition in Christian spirituality, and to monasticism itself.

Jan. 12 – Saint Benet Biscop, abbot (c. 628-690)

After a pilgrimage to Rome at the age of 25, Saint Benet renounced his rich inheritance and became a Benedictine monk. His contributions to England's culture, and to northwestern Europe as well, are invaluable. He spent his life gathering the most skilled craftsmen to embellish monasteries and churches with grand architecture, stained glass (which introduced the use of glass itself to England), and artwork. From Rome he brought back books of plain chant and liturgical music, as well as a large library of manuscripts and other books that established his monasteries as centers of great learning.

Jan. 15 – Saint Maurus and Saint Placid (c. 510-584)

A child oblate and disciple of Saint Benedict, Saint Placid was sent to the lake to fetch water, but fell in. Saint Benedict, miraculously aware of the boy's danger, sent Saint Maurus to rescue him; the young monk ran across the lake's surface, caught hold of the drowning boy, and ran safely back to the shore. Tradition says they went on to found monasteries of their own, and are the patrons of Benedictine novices and of the sick.

Eucharistic Adoration

Tuesdays & Thursdays | 7 A.M.-4 P.M.
Adoration Chapel

"Go to the Lord very simply, with the surrender of a small child."
(Saint Peter Julian Eymard)

Come to adore Our Lord in His great gift to us: the Blessed Sacrament.

Everyone is invited to stop by for five minutes, an hour, or as long as you like for quiet prayer or contemplation. We are also always in need of regular adorers who commit to keeping Our Lord company at particular hour each week.

What should I do at Adoration?

Some people prefer to pray the rosary, liturgy of the hours, or other favorite prayers. Others bring a prayer journal, book about the life of a saint, or other spiritual reading. Others simply sit in the loving Presence of Christ, silently telling Him the needs and intentions on their hearts. This is your special time with God.

For more information, or to ask about being a regular adorer, please contact Tricia Newell at 314.540.0034 or jnewelljr@charter.net.

Spiritual Adoption Program: Baby Development at Five Months

"My mommy felt me kick her today!"

Your spiritually-adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time, he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it: the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are midway through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs. Please continue to pray!
