EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
- RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

Rooted in Christ,
Called to Serve

3RD SUNDAY in ordinary time

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." - Lk 4:18a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Planta tus obras en la Palabra

Una de las cosas acerca de las Escrituras es que incluso la palabra más pequeña y la frase más corta pueden ser críticas para el mensaje general. Cuando tomas un momento de tranquilidad para descansar con la Palabra, te das cuenta de la rapidez con la que la oración más mundana puede llegar y atraparte, llevándote a una contemplación más profunda de alguna verdad que ni siquiera habías considerado hasta entonces.

Pero a menudo fallamos en actuar como los israelitas en el Libro de Nehemías, parados frente a la Puerta del Agua "escuchando atentamente." Ya sea en la Misa durante la Liturgia de la Palabra o en casa estudiando detenidamente la Biblia, una y otra vez nos encontramos menos conscientes de lo que podríamos estar. Nuestros oídos aceptan los sonidos de las palabras y nuestros ojos miran la forma de las letras.

Pero ¿somos conscientes, de verdad?

La mejor respuesta, esperemos sea, al menos algunas veces. Siempre hay tareas que completar, problemas que pesan en nuestras mentes y que no podemos entregar muy bien a Dios. Nos perdemos en estas cosas en lugar de en las Escrituras. Nos "registramos" con la lectura de la Biblia en lugar de "sumergirnos."

Nunca podemos olvidar que las palabras del Señor son espíritu y vida. Ellas son el suelo que aviva la semilla de toda corresponsabilidad. No hay conciencia plena, oración, gracia, gratitud, responsabilidad o sentido de compromiso a menos que exista la Palabra.

Así que oremos hoy por la conciencia plena, que cada una de nuestras acciones se base en la ley de Dios, dándole verdadero espíritu y vida.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS @LPi

Welcome Bienvenido

SPRINGS OF HOPE

MANANTIALES DE ESPERANZA

Jesus Christ, the Lord, in the course of his work (as the beginning of the Gospel of Saint Luke narrates), healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, and freed those oppressed by the devil. All these acts were clear signs that the Kingdom of God was among us. He made these signs with the aim of bringing us the message of the Kingdom, the message of eternal life and the eternal love of the Father. He revealed to us the mystery of the One and Triune God.

It was his will to continue this work of salvation and to choose 12 apostles, in addition to the disciples who followed him. With them, He would found the Holy Catholic Church. Holy, not because its members were holy at that time, or because we are now, but holy because its founder is the very source of holiness, Jesus Christ (the only Son of God).

The Second Vatican Council defines the Church as the community of the baptized. Therefore, you and I, the children of God by adoption, are the Church. We have been entrusted with the mission to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to love God and make him loved. As Saint Paul shows us in the First Letter to the Corinthians, each person is in his or her own place. We are all necessary in the Church. We all have a mission in the Church, and each one of us must find what God is calling us to, in this work of saving souls. I ask you, have you found your place yet? If you haven't found it, what are you waiting for? Jesus Christ is calling you to work for his Kingdom. The Lord needs you, and the Church of Jesus Christ needs you.

Fr. Jorge Perez

Jesucristo, el Señor, en el transcurso de su obra, como lo narra el principio del Evangelio de San Lucas, curó a los enfermos, dio la vista a los ciegos, liberó a los oprimidos por el demonio, como claros signos de que el Reino de Dios estaba entre nosotros. Todos estos signos los hizo con el objetivo de traer a nosotros el mensaje del Reino, el mensaje de la vida eterna, el amor eterno del Padre, nos reveló el misterio de Dios Uno y Trino.

Fue su voluntad, para continuar esta obra de salvación, elegir 12 apóstoles, además de todos los discípulos que le seguían, y con ellos fundar la Santa Iglesia Católica. Santa, no porque sus miembros fueran santos en aquel momento o porque nosotros lo seamos ahora, santa porque su fundador es la fuente misma de la santidad, Jesucristo, el Hijo único de Dios.

El Concilio Vaticano II, define a la Iglesia como la comunidad de los bautizados, tu y yo, los hijos de Dios por adopción, somos la Iglesia. A nosotros se nos ha encargado la misión de llevar el Evangelio de Jesucristo, de amar a Dios y hacerlo amar. Cada quien, en su propio lugar, como bien lo muestra San Pablo en la Primera Carta a los Corintios. Todos somos necesarios en la Iglesia, todos tenemos una misión en la Iglesia, cada uno debe encontrar a qué le llama Dios en este trabajo de salvación de las almas. Te pregunto, ¿ya encontraste tu lugar? Si no lo has encontrado, ¿Qué estás esperando? Jesucristo te está llamando a trabajar por su Reino, El Señor te necesita, La Iglesia de Jesucristo te necesita.

Gospel Meditation

January 23, 2022
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

Meditación del Evangelio

23 de enero de 2022
3er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Canten al Señor un cántico nuevo, hombres de toda la tierra, canten al Señor. Hay brillo y esplendor en su presencia, y en su templo, belleza y majestad" (Salmo 95, 1,67). La esperanza de Jesús para su pueblo y para toda la humanidad empieza aquí con este pasaje de la Sagrada Escritura. Un mundo nuevo y diverso, sin divisiones ni estatus sociales que dividen y matan. Por el contrario una tierra redimida y armoniosa, sin tinieblas ni miedos. Esta sigue siendo la esperanza de Jesús por medio de su Iglesia, que siempre, domingo a domingo, nos invita a acoger el Evangelio de Cristo. Abrazar su mensaje y dejarlo penetrar en el corazón hasta que dé fruto. Esto significa también todas sus exigencias de amor que conlleva en el cumplimiento de sus mandamientos.

Buscar la paz y la reconciliación en la familia y en la sociedad requiere el esfuerzo de todos. ¡Nada es fácil sin el Espíritu del Señor! Para ser efectivos en la misión que él nos encomienda como bautizados, debemos de tener amor por los demás y saber reconciliarnos unos a otros, tomando la dirección apropiada que demuestre que somos discípulos suyos. Jesús pasó haciendo el bien, curando y haciendo milagros porque sabía que: "El Espíritu del Señor esta sobre mí. Él me ha ungido para llevar buenas noticias a los pobres, para anunciar la libertad a los cautivos y a los ciegos que pronto van a ver, para poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor" (Lucas 4,18-19). ¿Qué buenas noticias llevas tú a los que te rodean?

Sunday Scripture Study

Prior to Covid, I facilitated a Scripture group to prepare us for Sunday Mass. I'd like to reestablish it again. The group met at St. John Neumann after the 8:30am Mass on Thursday morning. I've always named the group, "Help Fr. Pat prepare his Sunday Homily." I found it very helpful. Join us after Mass at SJN beginning January 27 from 9:00am to 9:45am. The group will work to be as safe as possible given the rise in virus cases. See you on the 27th.
