One does not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Matthew 4:4b

Reflection When we think of Moses, we might imagine him holding the stone tablets inscribed with God’s rules for life. But in today’s selection from Exodus, we encounter Moses called by God to watch over, lead, and form an unruly people into God’s people. We see Moses’ wrath, which flowed from his love for them, believing God was calling the people out of slavery into something wonderful.

Moses’ had a wearisome task. After the escaped slaves had been in the desert for a while, they feared that they would die of thirst, so God led them to a place with abundant springs. After days on the journey, they hungered for the food they used to eat when they were slaves. Some spread the rumor that Moses had brought them there just to watch them die. God assured a tired Moses that he was with him.

In the morning, the people discovered manna, bread for the journey covering the ground. Once again, God had provided for them. The unfamiliar bread became a sign of God’s enduring love.

John’s Gospel bridges the past into present, showing the fulfillment of the desert story in Jesus. Last week, we heard that in Jesus’ presence and with his blessing, thousands of hungry people ate their fill.

In today’s gospel, Jesus led the people to reflect upon the quality of their lives. When Jesus offered “true bread,” they responded, “Give us this bread always.” His answer, “I am the living bread,” was not what they wanted. Jesus was inviting them to be nourished by his very self, to assume his way of being as the path that would bring them everything they could ever want.

Jesus entered our history not to wow us with miracles, but to show us how we can live as Paul suggests as new selves, people truly renewed in spirit. We must make this come true in our own lives.

Like the child in last week’s gospel, when we share what we have we will never hunger because God multiplies our good works. May the “living bread” strengthen and sustain us. Fr. Tom

Sign of the Cross|Greeting

Penitential Act A

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do. [striking breast] through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

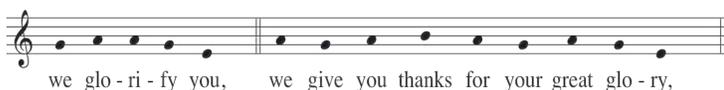

Presider: May almighty God...

Assembly: Amen.

Gloria Cantor will engage you on first and final sections

Assembly:

Cantor: Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

Assembly:

Opening Prayer

Children's Dismissal Repeat entire refrain after Cantor

"Go and listen to the Word of God, you have the words of everlasting life"

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

Psalm 78 Cantor will engage you refrain

Verse 1: The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us, we will tell to the next generation: The glories of the Lord and his might, and the marvelous deeds he has done.

Verse 2: He commanded the clouds above, and opened the gates of heaven. He rained down manna to eat, and gave them bread from heaven.

Verse 3: Man ate the bread of angels. He sent them abundance of food. So he brought them to his holy land, to the mountain his right hand had won.

Verse: One does not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Gospel John 6:24-35

Homily

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Gospel Reading We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

Pregunta de la Semana Evangelio Hoy escuchamos la introducción del extenso discurso del "pan de vida" de Jesús. Al referirse a los antiguos israelitas que comían "maná" (pan) en el desierto, Jesús les dice a las multitudes: "Yo soy el pan de vida." ¿Cómo le explicarías a alguien cómo Jesús te sostiene?

Next Week's Readings 1 Kgs 19:4-8; Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9 [9a]; Eph 4:30—5:2; Jn 6:41-51

Confession Times at the Cathedral of St. Raphael are as follows: Sundays from 8:15-8:40 am and 4:15-4:40 pm. Reconciliation is also available at St. Patrick Church: 11:30 am on Thursdays, 3:30-3:45 pm on Saturdays, and 10:30 am on Sundays. Also available by appointment.

Death Announcements The St. Patrick Church and St. Raphael Cathedral parish communities extend prayerful sympathy to the families of Alice Kelly (SR) and John Schwendinger (SP). May they rest in peace.

PASTOR'S UPDATE

Dear all, The replacement project of the Cathedral parking lot which is the first of three ArchOne Special Appeal projects began last week. The need for the project is shown in the aerial picture above which shows all the deterioration of the lot. We will begin providing regular update on our parish website.

Workers will first install an underground drainage system to eliminate flooding in the rectory and church basements during heavy rains (not so much this year!), requiring the removal and replacement of the current hard surface.

This will eventually require alternate parking. We will try to keep you informed in the bulletin and on the webpage on the status of the project so you are aware of parking availability. In addition to on street parking, we have secured permission to park on Sundays in the Miracle Car Wash lot (except for marked rental spots), Artistic Cleaners, and the Dubuque Election Annex lot. There will be some inconvenience to us all, but the end result will eliminate flooding and stabilize of our facilities.

While a number of things have returned to "normal" not all. The news of a resurgence of the pandemic especially among the unvaccinated is cause for alarm. If not vaccinated and able to be, please consider doing so. Remember to stay home if you are feeling ill, and to sanitize well and often. While covid has diminished, it is not over!

God Bless,

Fr. Tom

UPCOMING EVENT

KofC Fundraiser The Knights of Columbus Council 510 annually conducts a Campaign for People with Intellectual Disabilities drive at churches and stores to raise funds for local agencies who support our brothers and sisters with disabilities. The drive will be conducted after Masses the weekend of August 07-08, handing out Tootsie Rolls and accepting donations outside the doors of church.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Universal Prayer

 We have returned to the offertory collection being taken at the 4 pm and 9am masses. At the 11 am and 5 pm masses, please place your sacrificial offerings and donations in the baskets found at each entrance.
