You are my inheritance,
O Lord!

Psalm 16:1

Reflection In today's Gospel passage, Jesus speaks about "end times." He says: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken." What is Jesus telling us?

This is the second to last Sunday in the Liturgical Calendar for 2021. Next Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King before moving into the new liturgical year with the beginning of Advent. The readings for Mass reflect the "end times" because we are at the end of the liturgical year. Jesus is telling us the truth that the world as we know it will come to an end.

As Catholics, we take the words of Jesus seriously. He says: "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." No one knows when the end of the world will occur except God the Father. Jesus, as the Son of the Father and the Eternal Word of Truth, speaks to us about what will happen in a veiled manner. Such knowledge is sacred because it is part of the mystery of God. Humans are only capable of receiving it because God allows us to share in it.

To help us understand, Jesus uses the analogy of the fig tree: "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates." Like the visible growth of the fig tree from spring to summer, there will be apparent signs in the world to tell us the return of Jesus is close at hand. This should not cause fear but prompt us to receive him worthily, because when the Jesus, the Son of Man, comes again, he will gather all his holy ones to himself: "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky." Is this not the great hope we all await? Come, Lord Jesus!

PASTOR'S UPDATE

Dear all, November 14, 2021 marks the fourth annual World Day of the Poor. In 2017, Pope Francis suggested the Catholic Church set aside one day each year when communities can "reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel." Pope Francis challenges us to be authentic witnesses of Christian hope and to accompany the poor through a personal and constant commitment over time.

I'm happy to be able to share that phase one of the Cathedral sitework project is nearly complete. The small lot between the former school and convent is paved and will re-open for the tenants early next week. There remains some groundwork to be done this week, especially around the area along Bluff Street. With winter approaching, landscaping will occur next spring. Thanks to all who have been patient and tolerant during these four months.

Last week we had a communal anointing at Manor Care and this weekend at the masses. While formerly known as Extreme Unction, and called the "last rites", the anointing of the sick is a Sacrament of the Church that is not only reserved for those approaching death but for anyone who is advanced in years, those preparing for an operation, one who is ill, or any who face deep suffering.

This Sacrament offers healing for the soul and, if it is God's will, the body. It provides the one receiving it the grace to unite their suffering with that of the Passion of Christ. In this way the recipient participates in the saving work of Jesus for their own good as well as aiding in the sanctification of the Church. It is also a good reminder that if someone is homebound and would like to receive the sacrament, to contact one of the parish offices to arrange a time.

Advent will begin in two weeks, November 28, and is the start of a new church liturgical year. Begin pondering how to make this a time for renewal and deepening one's faith life.

Finally, while we hear the good news of the expanding availability of vaccines, we hear of the unfortunate increasing number in our area of those who are contracting covid. PLEASE do every you can do to prevent the spread of this dreaded disease, and encourage others to do the same.

Have a good week!
Fr. Tom

PARISH NEWS

Communal Anointing will take place this weekend, November 13-14. Those who are experiencing any physical or mental illness, anticipating surgery, or the challenges of aging should consider being anointed. The rite will occur after the homily. The priests will invite all who are able to come forward after which they will make way through the church for any who are not able to come forward.

Containers Needed for Wednesday Night Meal Empty gallon and half gallon containers from ice cream are requested by the volunteers from the Wednesday Night Meal to use as storage containers for leftovers. Please drop off clean, empty containers at St. Patrick's rectory during the regular business hours or at St. Patrick's Foley Hall during the Wednesday Night Meal, from 4:00-5:00 pm. A great use for recycled containers!

Advent for Homebound Parishioners During our Advent season as we prepare for the celebration of Christmas, we remember our homebound parishioners with prayer and a Christmas card. The Advent tree will be placed at both parish sites containing names of homebound inviting parishioners to send cards.

November? Already? Time is flying, leaves are falling, holidays are coming, and St. Patrick's SCRIP is at the ready to help you handle it all! Our SCRIP money cards are a convenient, all-purpose way to buy what you need or give to others as gift cards. They can be used at dozens of local and national chain stores for everything from dining out to home repairs and personal beauty products. And, of course, you get full purchasing power, while the merchant contributes a percent of the sale back to St. Patrick Church! Find out how easy it is to become a SCRIP supporter by calling the St. Patrick rectory at ☎ 583-9749 from 9:00 am-3:00 pm Mondays-Thursdays and 9:00 am-Noon Fridays.

Verse: Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man.

Gospel Mark 13:24-32
Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

 We have returned to the offertory collection being taken at the 4 pm and 9am masses. At the 11 am and 5 pm masses, please place your sacrificial offerings and donations in the baskets found at each entrance.
