

3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day.” - Lk 24:45-46

Unfathomable Freedoms

Looking through the readings for this Sunday, I'm struck by a peculiar similarity between the various passages: that of freedom.

Looking first to the reading from the Third Chapter of Acts, we see the leader of the Apostles, St. Peter, appeal to the Jewish people gathered before him. As St. John Chrysostom notes, "he thrusts himself upon the fathers of old, lest he should appear to be introducing a new doctrine" (Hom. IX on Acts). How wisely he introduces the warning about to be shared! It may appear to be a honeyed pretense, as Peter seems to soften up the audience before declaring them all to be the murderers of the "author of life", but we see him quickly assure them that they acted out of genuine ignorance. He reminds them that this is not a get-out-of-jail-free card, however, and urges them to repent and convert. Those gathered are free to accept God's mercy.

We see this stern-yet-heartfelt tone mirrored in our second reading. John the Evangelist exhorts us to know that holiness and happiness are equally obtainable; we do not need to forego one to cultivate the other. St. Augustine, adding to this, writes that Jesus "is the advocate; do your endeavor not to sin: if ... sin shall overtake you, see to it straightway, ... straightway condemn it; and when you have condemned, you shall come assured unto the Judge." We are free to live a life of genuine joy, as our only restraints in life are brought on by our own actions; to cast off the shackles that keep us from continuing in our joy, we may freely approach our Advocate in prayer and in the sacrament of penance.

Looking lastly to our Gospel, we see the risen Christ solidify the reality of His exalted Body by asking for fish to eat. St. Thomas Aquinas quotes another Doctor of the Church, Bede the Venerable, as saying "Christ ate because He could, not because He needed" (ST III, Q. 55, A. 6, ad. 3; see also Catena Aurea, III.XXIV). Partaking in such a mortal action to show that He was truly risen is so great a solace to those who follow Him. We have an Advocate Who understands our needs. We have the greatest Mediator before the throne of God, and we are free to give our guilt, our struggles, and even our gratitude to Him.

Let us recognize the freedoms we see in the readings today. Let us exercise our right to accept the infinite mercy of God, to live joyfully in His Presence, and to turn to the One Who became man because He could, not because He needed!

May you all rest in the infinite mercies of God,
Joseph Walkowski

Group Choir Picture

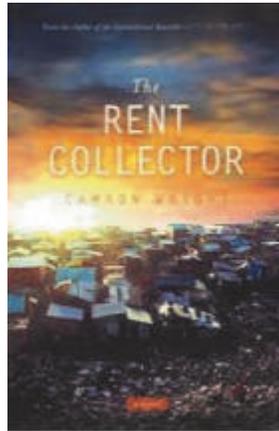

If you have been part of any of the choirs over the years under the direction of Nancy Lemerond, as a singer or musician, you are invited to be part of a Group Choir Photo. This includes our regular weekend choirs, Quad-Parish Combined choirs, Christmas Choirs, and Youth Choirs. We would like to see you included in the photo.

We will meet at Annunciation Church at 9am on Sunday May 2, following the 8am Mass.

Please use only the Kellogg St entrance. Photos will be available for pick-up at the office the week of May 10.

Our Next Book Review Thurs, May 6, 12pm Annunciation Room 105

We will be discussing "The Rent Collector" by Camron Wright. Survival for Ki Lim and Sang Ly is a daily battle at Stung Meanchey, the largest municipal waste dump in all of Cambodia. They make their living scavenging recyclables from the trash. Life would be hard enough without the worry for their chronically ill child, Nisay, and the added expense of medicines that are not working. Just when things seem worst, Sang Ly learns a secret about the ill-tempered rent collector who comes demanding money--a secret that sets in motion a tide that will change the life of everyone it sweeps past. The Rent Collector is a story of hope, of one woman's journey to save her son and another woman's chance at redemption. It demonstrates that even in a dump in Cambodia, perhaps especially in a dump in Cambodia, everyone deserves a second chance.

We have already placed the book order. If you would like to join us, please obtain your own copy of the book. If you wish to have lunch with us, please bring your own lunch and join us at 12 noon. We will provide water and coffee. If you do not come for lunch, join us at 12:20 pm.

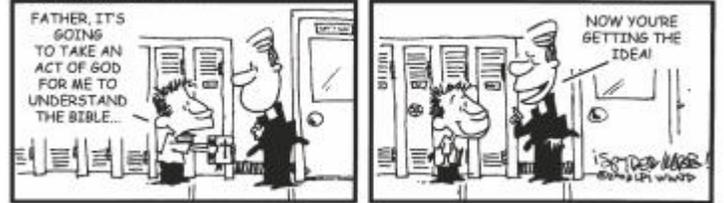

Coming Attraction: Courageous

Tues, 4/20 - 1 pm Room 105 @ Annunciation

As law enforcement officers, Adam Mitchell, Nathan Hayes, and their partners willingly stand up to the worst the world can offer; yet, at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle: fatherhood. While they consistently give their best on the job, they quickly discover that their children are beginning to drift farther away from them. When tragedy hits home, these men are left with a newfound urgency to renew their faith and reach out to their own children. Will they be able to find a way to serve and protect those who are most dear to them? We look forward to seeing you!

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Paper Drive

A designated dumpster will be placed as listed below.

- May 18-24 @ St. Jude, NE Corner
- Jul 20-26 @ St. Joseph, 13th St. P. Lot

Check back often for additional drives!

PAPER DRIVE NOTICES

- Effective with the May paper recycling, the dumpster will be available on Tuesday of the recycling week rather than beginning on that Monday. Sorry for any inconveniences.
- The busiest days at the dumpster are early in the week, if you can wait to put your paper in the dumpster until later in the week, it will help us a lot.
- If it is difficult for you to put your paper in the dumpster, please feel free to set it on the ground in front of the dumpster. Anyone who sees paper sitting on the ground, please throw it in the dumpster if you are able. Working together, this will continue to be a valuable fundraiser for all of us. Thank you for your support!

Let's keep turning your trash into cash!

If you have a little "extra" in that Stimulus Check or Tax Return, please consider a donation to "JUST WRITE THE CHECK". What a great way to give back! And remember, any contribution makes you eligible for a $500 drawing on 5/22.

Over the last several weeks we have been seeing some new faces coming back to Church. We are so glad to see you! As we continue to take small steps through the pandemic, we have an opportunity as a parish family to pray, celebrate and commemorate this experience. As we come together in the Eucharist this Easter Season, we rejoice in the new life we experience through Christ's Resurrection. We have the opportunity to celebrate Home, Hope and Holiness at the upcoming Quad-Fest Virtual Auction and Summer Picnic.

We are now hoping to commemorate our experiences of grief, fear, hope and new opportunities as a parish family. If you are interested in brainstorming and planning for our parish families to commemorate our journey through the pandemic, please contact Becky at bvankauwenberg@quad-parish.org or call 920-497-7042x118.

Under Construction

Please note: Beginning soon, road work will begin on Gray Street in front of Annunciation church (Mather to Dousman) and on Division Street to Oneida Street on the south side of the church/rectory. The work is expected to last all summer and will force the roads to be closed. Please allow yourself a little extra time if coming to Annunciation or the Quad Parish Office.

We are looking for tenants to lease office space in the Annunciation building. There are four classroom sized rooms and each room is divided into 2-3 small offices. Rent ranges from $250-$600/month. In addition, the 2nd floor school space will be available for lease 1/1/2022. If anyone knows of someone looking for rental space at a reasonable rate (all rates include utilities), please contact Carol Kittell, 920- 496 -2160, ckittell@quad-parish.org.

WE ARE BACK!!!

Please join the St Jude Women's Club for our one and only meeting this year! (Our new year starts in Sept)

Thursday, May 13, 6:30pm. In the Saint Jude cafe.

We will celebrate being back together with a Kentucky Derby themed evening. Short meeting to discuss upcoming year. Share our stories from this past year. Light refreshments. Horse race game. All women of the quad-parishes welcome. Wear a hat to get in the mood and cheer on your horse. Hope you can join us!

ROOF TOP CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

It is getting late in the third quarter of our imaginary football game between the Packers & the Bears. The score is tied, but the Packers are on the move. They are in Bears territory with third down and 4 yards to go. The Bears are digging in, hoping to hold the Packers to no more than a field goal. Will they succeed? Not if we have anything to say about it! Aaron Rodgers fades back to pass and has to scramble. Help Aaron make the first down by contributing to Annunciation's Capital Campaign. Only $4,000 more and the Packers get another first down! Let's go, Pack!!!! We have currently raised $59,274.57 in cash gifts and have $6,825 in pledges for a total of $66,099.57. Another football will be added to our playing field in church when he get to $70,000 of our $100,000 goal. We are grateful for any contribution.

Community Garden Open Plot Registration

Interested in growing your own food? This summer, rent a low-cost community garden plot for your whole family to enjoy! This is a piece of land you can use to plant, grow, and harvest whatever you want. Cut your grocery bill, get more fresh fruits and vegetables, and have fun as a family! Garden plots are available at locations throughout the county, including at Church of the Annunciation. Prices vary by plot size and location ($10-$45, 4'x8'-50'x50').

Starting April 15 at 8am, registration will be available online and by phone. Community members can submit a plot application at browncountycommunitygardens.org or leave a voicemail at (920)391-4660 to schedule a phone appointment. Plots will be assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis to any interested community members and will continue until all plots are filled. Questions?

10 ejemplos de la misericordia de Dios en nuestro diario vivir

Si mencionamos todas las veces donde la ternura y la acción de Dios está presente, la lista sería demasiado larga. Esperamos que te sientas identificado

1. Cuando nos sentimos abatidos por la tristeza: Dios no es indiferente a nuestro dolor. Él, al igual que un padre o una madre, se preocupa por sus hijos y se manifiesta a través de otras personas para hacernos sentir mejor.
2. Cuando cometemos Pecado: La misericordia de Dios nos brinda la oportunidad de volver a ser esa agua pura y transparente, todos los días y casi a cualquier hora por medio de la confesión.
3. Cuando Dios nos da la oportunidad de recuperarnos en una enfermedad: La enfermedad puede ser ese empujón que necesitábamos para llegar a ser más fuertes.
4. Cuando nos rompen el corazón: Dios claramente estará junto a nosotros durante el dolor que experimentamos pero gracias a su misericordia podemos descubrir que no somos los únicos.
5. Cuando logramos perdonar: El verdadero perdón solo proviene de Dios, de su misericordia.
6. Cuando nos experimentamos amados de nuevo: Por misericordia de Dios encontramos el amor una y otra vez.
7. Cuando logramos alcanzar una meta: El tiempo de Dios es perfecto al igual que la dosis de misericordia que recibimos para alcanzar nuestras metas.
8. Cuando ocurre lo imposible: Lo imposible ocurre cada minuto por misericordia de Dios para su pueblo.
9. Cuando somos capaces de ayudar a los demás: Esa inexplicable sensación que sentimos al dar es como una bomba de amor, gratitud y compasión que estalla en nuestro interior y transforma nuestras vidas.
10. Cuando nos descubrimos hijos de Maria: Ella más que nadie conoce nuestro dolor, hemos sido llamados a ser sus hijos solo por misericordia pues, ¿qué mejor amor que el de María?.

Congratulations to Fr Dan Felton on being named Bishop of Duluth. Many blessings to you in this next stage of your journey. You will be missed!

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us. Just look for this link on the homepage of the Quad-Parish website:

Mass will be streamed on the Quad-Parish Facebook page at 9:15am to watch together in community.

Good and gracious God of all created things, seen and unseen.

You created all things in this world for our use,
and charge us with protecting that creation.
Help us to see in all things
the reflection of a parent's love for a child.

When we see your goodness in the face of the moon,
we see our sister.
When we feel the warmth of the sun on our face,
we feel the love of a brother.

We ask for your strength to give us wisdom and courage to protect our earthly environment from destruction and overuse.
Help us to share the goodness and generosity of the earth with every living person.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus Christ,
our brother and savior.
Amen.

“Check It Out” at the QPO Library

Over time a number of people have donated books to the Quad-Parish. There are books on prayer, the Bible, saints, grief, women's ministry, spirituality, church history and even some novels. You are welcome to stop by and borrow these books. The shelves are marked so you have an idea where to search for something you might be interested in. All we ask is that you return any books you borrow so that others may enjoy them as well.

These books are located at Annunciation, first floor hallway adjacent to the Parish Office. Stop in during office hours.

Happy browsing! May you experience the Holy Spirit at work within you as you read your selections.

Phone Number Update

Please call, e-mail or drop a note for the parish office if you no longer have a land line or your phone number has changed in the last couple of years. It is important that we keep these numbers current.

Bishop's Appeal

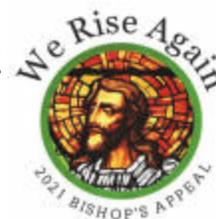

Sharing Faith from Around the World

With little water, minimal electricity and no money, the people of our Eliás Piña mission in the Dominican Republic have abundant faith. In this land of poverty, many people do not have the resources to find a job or the ability to attend Mass. The mission in Eliás Piña helps provide necessary resources by attending to the physical and spiritual needs of these communities.

Although you may not be able to physically travel to the Dominican Republic to help these communities, your support of the Bishop's Appeal can share our faith with them from across the globe. Think about sharing the abundance of your gifts with others by giving a gift to the Bishop's Appeal. If you have not made a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, please prayerfully consider the impact it would have on our parishes and communities and make a gift today at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Good To Know

Dear Parishioners,

If you or a family member is ever in the hospital, please know that you can call the parish directly to let us know. Often times we are unaware of parishioners who are in the hospital and a call to the Quad Parish office would help us in knowing this. Changes in regulations protecting patient confidentiality are in effect at all hospitals. Even when the hospital asks if they may notify us of your admission and you answer "yes", it is still helpful if you or a family member notifies us directly, especially if someone needs to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Due to HIPPA regulations the hospitals are not able to notify us of a patient's condition, which is why your help in letting us know directly would be very helpful. You can also call the Pastoral Care Department at any hospital to notify us on your behalf.

Article 1421 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that his Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, his work of healing and salvation, even among her own members. This is the purpose of the two sacraments of healing: the sacrament of Penance and the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Printer Ink Cartridges

Did you know that the Faith Formation Office recycles your old printer ink cartridges? For 20 years, the Funding Factory has been helping organizations like ours fundraise by recycling toner and inkjet printer cartridges. They turn used cartridges into cash which helps support our ministries and keeps millions of pounds of cartridges out of our landfills!

Simply bring your old, empty cartridges to the Quad-Parish or Faith Formation Offices. For a list of acceptable cartridges, visit www.fundingfactory.com. Please no toner tubes (plastic cylinder tubes found in copy machines).
