Got Curiosity?

I recently watched a documentary on PBS about the first lunar landing. The anniversaries of Apollo 11's launch date of July 16, 1969 and successful lunar landing on July 20, 1969 are coming up. Rightly so, this documentary, and others I have watched about Apollo 11 go to great lengths to trace back to those people throughout history who dreamed of landing on the moon; many of whom were thought to be a bit wacky in their own time. But there is always the same pattern in discovery: dream (ask 'what if?'), vision, plan, do, achieve, ask 'what's next'? But what such documentaries celebrating human achievement most times neglect is the God-given gift of curiosity that is the foundation of all search for knowledge, especially knowledge of the transcendent.

Do you have family members, perhaps your own children or grandchildren who no longer practice any kind of faith life? Have you been paying attention to the news to see the effects of the world becoming more Godless, more focused on consumerism, less respectful of others and certainly less respectful of the value of all human life? Are you feeling that your life is full and joyful, or does something seem to be missing? If any of these questions hit home, or perhaps similar ones come to mind for you, are you curious as to whether there are helpful answers to these questions? Take heart. There are answers. There is something better waiting for you.

God wants you, me, all of us to be fully alive and joyful. "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." (John 10:10) Jesus is the answer in your life to lasting joy and fullness of life; Jesus is the answer to your questions of meaning and purpose here in this life, not just in the after-life.

The way that you deepen your relationship with Jesus is the same way that you invest in any positive relationship: you get to know him better, you make time to be with him, you tell Jesus what is on your heart and you listen to his voice, you learn as much as you can about your faith and you draw inspiration and courage from listening to the witness of others who have Christ in their life. You challenge yourself to try new things and discover new ways to love larger – in the lives of your loved ones, in your faith community and in the larger community beyond the Church walls.

This summer you will begin to see new opportunities at the Quad Parishes to help you dream, envision, plan, and build a deeper, richer relationship with God. We are not called to merely believe in Jesus; we are called to be his disciples – taking his love out to others. The Church has a mission; each of us is called through our baptism to serve that mission. When you see opportunities offered in the coming months to help you deepen your relationship with Jesus, be curious. Who knows where that curiosity will take you?

His Peace,
Deacon Dan

LEARN TO PRAY

Liturgy of the Hours

MONDAY, JULY 12
6 PM @ ST. PATRICK CHURCH
Social time & refreshments to follow.

"Also known as the Divine Office, the Hours are comprised of a four-week cycle of the psalms, biblical readings and songs, prayers of intercession, blessings, and other readings from spiritual writings, separated into morning, evening, daytime, and night prayer, and an office (collection) of readings.

It is the required daily prayer of clergy and many in consecrated religious life, but it is also a rich source of prayer for all the members of the church." (uscatholic.org)

Join members of the parish staff to pray evening prayer together and experience the beauty of the Liturgy of the Hours.

Over time a number of people have donated books to the Quad-Parish. There are books on prayer, the Bible, saints, grief, women's ministry, spirituality, church history and even some novels. You are welcome to stop by and borrow these books. The shelves are marked so you have an idea where to search for something you might be interested in. All we ask is that you return any books you borrow so that others may enjoy them as well.

These books are located at Annunciation, first floor hallway adjacent to the Parish Office. Stop in during office hours.

Bishop's Appeal

On Fire for the Lord

Many of us wonder where our faith journey may take us. For Julianne Stanz her faith journey took her from a little mountain village in Ireland to northeastern Wisconsin. Her role as Director of Parish Life and Evangelization for the Diocese allows her to share our Catholic faith with adults of all ages through programs like Girlfriends in God, Catholic Campus Ministries, and Encounter for Young Adults.

"This work is tremendously important to me because it has impacted my own life on such a personal level," Julianne says. "I've seen the effects when people are energized in their faith. They are really on fire for Christ & His teachings."

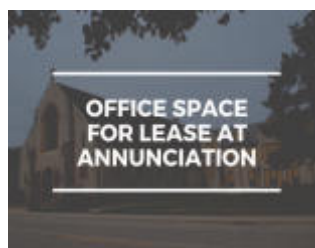

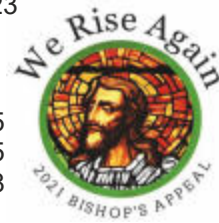

Julianne's work has impacted more than ten thousand people, and without the support of the Bishop's Appeal, Julianne would be unable to bring Christ's message to them.

To learn more about the Bishop's Appeal visit:

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two", those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? If you are interested give me a call. Thanks, Mike 920-494-2214.

PAPER DRIVE NOTICES

- The busiest days at the dumpster are early in the week, if you can wait to put your paper in the dumpster until later in the week, it will help us a lot.
- If it is difficult for you to put your paper in the dumpster, please feel free to set it on the ground in front of the dumpster. Anyone who sees paper sitting on the ground, please throw it in the dumpster if you are able. Working together, this will continue to be a valuable fundraiser for all of us.
