

32nd Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Calling his disciples to himself,
he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."
- Mk 12:43

Pastoral Column

I want to begin this column by asking all readers of it to pray (as always) for the music ministry here at the Quad. We are in the process of trying to re-establish the choir(s) at all four churches. We are also in the process of introducing Holy Family School's eighth grade choir to the 9:15 a.m. Mass at St. Jude on Sundays once a month, as of right now. We have been blessed to have pastoral leaders and musicians step up to this task. The task being to reinvigorate the music ministry after nearly two years of severe interruption due to the pandemic and the prudent health guidelines that have followed.

Having our liturgical music disrupted has really caused the pastoral leadership here at the Quad to discuss in depth just how integral music is to the liturgy of the Church. We have been discussing all sorts of matters that relate to this. Some of these discussions have included topics such as traditional-style Mass settings, contemporary worship bands, youth choirs, youth Masses, re-establishing pre-pandemic choirs, etc. The driving force behind these discussions and contemplations has been the expressed desire by our pastoral leadership to elevate everyone's experience of The Lord when they attend Mass (or any service for that matter) at the Quad Parishes. We see this "re-starting" of the music ministry here at the Quad as a chance for two things. The first is to bring back parishioners who have not yet returned to Mass. The second is to welcome in the people of this neighborhood who are thinking about joining the Church for the first time in their life, but maybe haven't found the courage within themselves or maybe haven't been encouraged by anyone in the Church herself.

Please pray that these efforts of evangelization through liturgy come to fruition.

Thank you. God Bless. Nicholas Saldaña

VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

NOVEMBER 7-13, 2021

Join us in praying for and supporting those who are considering saying "yes" to the vocation of priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life in our diocese!

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

Listen -- is that the unmistakable voice of the Holy Spirit?

Being a Sister is a joyful life, centered in prayer and service to God. As a community of Sisters, we are more together than we would be individually. If you are curious about life as a Sister, contact Sister Laura Zelten at vocations@gbfranciscans.org or visit <https://bit.ly/gbfranciscans>.

Vocation or Calling

Many people mistake our work for our vocation. Our vocation is the love of Jesus.

- St. Teresa of Calcutta

the closeness of God and what he is asking in one's life. It is a realization of what one's part in God's plan could be. Vocation comes in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion. We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit and God's grace, we can and will respond to his unique call.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on." Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul envelope so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care. Thank You

We are excited to welcome a choir from Holy Family School who will be singing at St. Jude's 9:15am Mass once a month November - May!
