The Great Challenge : to love & forgive our enemies!

In Biblical times, the Jews considered people as their enemies when they were unlike them in any form as being on the other side of the divide like the Egyptians, Amorites, Amalekites, Moabites, Babylonians, Chaldeans, Assyrians, Canaanites and the like.

No wonder loving one's neighbor was exclusive only for their fellow Jews.

In our times, aside from being one who had offended us, an enemy could be someone whose ideas run contrary to ours; someone who doesn't belong to one's faith tradition or creed; someone who doesn't share the same class and color with us; someone you're competing with; someone who speaks a language that's not similar to ours.

We can have as many enemies as we continue to identify as many differences between us and others.

On this 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we're called by the Lord to supreme love and forgiveness for our enemies. St. John Paul II returned love for hatred and forgiveness for the injury inflicted on him by Mehmet Ali Agca – his assassin. This started from Pope John Paul's deep love that affected forgiveness to Mehmet; inner healing and transformation for John Paul's life.

It is said that if we fail to forgive someone who hurt us, we could be fundamentally sick within.

If we have the love of Jesus in our hearts, we could forgive those who have wronged us and persecuted us. On a daily basis, we have to learn the sacrificial love of Jesus. There's no greater love when we're ready to die for the love of others.

Fr. Tony

The Compass Fuels Faith

Thousands of fellow Catholics fuel their faith by reading the Diocese's official weekly newspaper, The Compass. They're reading the publication because it helps guide them on their faith journey. Inspirational stories from The Compass bring Christ right into their hearts and minds.

"With help from the Bishop's Appeal, The Compass provides readers with reliable news, information and inspiration," said Sam Lucero, News & Information Manager. "Each week, stories and columns help reveal our Catholic faith. And they deliver more than just news. They challenge readers to explore and absorb Christian values in the world today."

The Compass is made possible by the Bishop's Appeal; please prayerfully consider a gift today. Visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.

With all the life crises of our day — the global pandemic, climate change, fires, floods, droughts, displacement of peoples and political unrest — we have been shaken to our very roots. It is all the more imperative that we become grounded in our relationship with God who is the source of all life, bond with others who value our interconnectedness and find ways to act together to realize a world of peace, justice, and love.

2-Night Parish Mission – Surge Of The Heart

We are pleased to have nationally known author and speaker, Jon Leonetti, presentations and Q&A.

Sun, 2/27, 6:30-8pm: WHO IS GOD AND WHY DOES THAT MATTER?

We cannot love someone we don’t know. Therefore, to love God, we have to first know God. So how do we come to know God? We examine the ways He’s revealed Himself to us. And in understanding the ways He’s revealed Himself to us, we better understand who we are and the unique mission of holiness God has for us.

Mon, 2/28, 6:30-8pm: GOD’S DREAM FOR YOUR LIFE

There is no other meaning, reason, or purpose to our lives than to be in Heaven with God for all eternity. We are called to become saints. How do we get there? We need a plan; a plan given to us by Jesus and His Church.

Ss. Edward & Isidore, 3667 Flintville Road, Green Bay. There is no cost, free-will offering appreciated.
