First Sunday of Lent On Temptation

ON TEMPTATION: Somebody said. "When you flee from temptation, be sure you don't leave your home address."

Today's gospel is about the temptation of Jesus in the desert by the devil. But let us examine these temptations in detail. Is there anything wrong with eating and drinking after undergoing a rigorous forty-day fasting? Although it may be a waste of time, what is wrong in jumping off a cliff if one knows it won't hurt or harm him anyway? Finally, is there anything wrong with acquiring wealth and power, especially if one intends to use it for good purposes? So what is so bad about the devil's temptation and why did Christ reject them so flatly? In order to satisfy what could otherwise be a legitimate human need, the devil was actually enticing Christ to make use of His divine power. The devil was trying to deflect Christ from His mission and redemption.

Temptation can only come from the devil. His intention is tempting us to make us stumble. God will never tempt us, He only tests us. The devil wants to make us bad. When God tests us, it is intended to make us better persons. When the devil tempts, he wants us to be away from the Lord. When God tests us, He actually invites us to cling to Him during the period of trial.

Temptation can be a responsibility and a burden. God's test is actually a blessing and not to make our life more difficult but to make us better persons. The Lord tests us in order that we come out as better persons.

It is consoling to know that even Jesus Christ was not spared from temptation. Temptation ordinarily comes from three sources, from the world, flesh, and the devil. In the case of Jesus he was tempted by the devil. Needless to say, He did not succumb at all.

In the gospel, Jesus was tempted three times. First, he was tempted to turn stones into loaves of bread. In this case he had to use his power for his convenience. This temptation is the temptation to power but He refused to do it. The second is the temptation to prestige and he again refused to follow it. The third temptation was the temptation to wealth as the devil promised to give everything.

But how did The Lord overcome the temptation? He did not argue. He did not use reasoning to defend himself but he used SCRIPTURES. For us to overcome temptation, let us not use psychology or logic or philosophy or theology although these may help us, but rather let us use his words and prayer. We must pray when we are tempted and pray when not tempted.

Lastly, let us reflect on this world; "The trouble with some people is that they'd rather pray for forgiveness than for temptation." Let us reject these temptations with decisiveness and determination. HAPPY SUNDAY!

Fr. Armando

Planting Seeds of Faith at Camp Tekakwitha

Lives are changing in the north woods. At Camp Tekakwitha in Shawano, kids are drawn into a life of faith while experiencing all the fun of a summer camp. Faith is the common thread woven into fun camp activities like archery, kayaking and canoeing, games, water fun and more. Each day opens in the chapel with praise, worship and music. Meals begin and end with prayer and song.

Camp Tekakwitha is a place that leads young people to a transformational moment. Experiencing creation in this environment can be the most meaningful factor for young campers in understanding who they are as people of the Church.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes a huge difference for Camp Tekakwitha. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.

Thursday, 3/10, 1pm in room 105 at Annunciation.

As we begin our Lenten journey we are reminded of our call to forgive as we are forgiven. The movie, Crossroads: A Story of Forgiveness, is based on a true story. Bruce Murakami & his two sons are faced with struggling to deal with the sudden death of their beloved wife and mother and the death of their daughter and sister. Both have been killed in a tragic accident. Dad is determined to find out what really happened. Aided by a lawyer, Bruce discovers that they were victims of a street racing incident. Thus he begins a campaign to bring the at-fault teenage driver to justice.

But when the case finally reaches court, Bruce's powerful desire for revenge is suddenly replaced by an equally powerful desire to transform his family's tragic loss into something positive. (Even the cast of Crossroads left with lasting impressions based on the heartfelt turn of events of this story.) Refreshments provided. Hope to see you there!
