Windows Wide Open

There are at least two landmark "breathe deeply" moments each spring. The first is that very first day when you step outside and instead of thrusting your hands deeper into your coat pockets and checking to see if you can pull the zipper up higher, you relax, turn your face to the warming sunshine and breathe deep. You suddenly become aware that the birds are singing and you can't help but smile. The second moment comes on the day when you open the windows of the house & feel that warm, fresh breeze as it accepts the invitation to dance with the curtains.

Lent is a special time when the Church goes out of its way to extend the invitation to throw open the windows to your heart and to your soul and invite the breeze from the breath of the Holy Spirit. It is meant to be a season of renewal.

Here at the Quad Parishes and in the greater Diocese of Green Bay we have tried to offer many opportunities for spiritual renewal during this Lenten season. There have been opportunities for confession, evenings of reflection, Bible Studies & book studies, Stations of the Cross, special Masses and patron saint celebrations, and community celebrations to encourage everyone to take advantage of this Lenten "window of opportunity".

Lent however, is drawing to its end. Today is the fifth Sunday of Lent and next week we'll celebrate Passion Sunday that sets off all of the special celebrations and events of Holy Week.

So, what if it is now just occurring to you that you really haven't taken advantage of Lent to renew your soul, to renew your relationship with God? You meant to, but time got the best of you, or perhaps you weren't spiritually ready, or perhaps you are unsure, or afraid? Have you missed out?

The most important thing to know is there is no time limit on God's mercy or God's desire for a deeper, more intimate relationship with you. As we will read in the Passion next week, the repentant thief was assured moments from his death that he would be with Jesus in Paradise. With God's heart the windows are always wide open, the fresh breezes of new springtime always blow. He is not merely waiting to see if anyone comes home; he is waiting specifically for you. Why not now?

"Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?" Isaiah 43:18-19

His Peace, Deacon Dan

How can you help?

You can help by making a pledge to the campaign and praying for the campaign.

Pray for the success of the campaign.

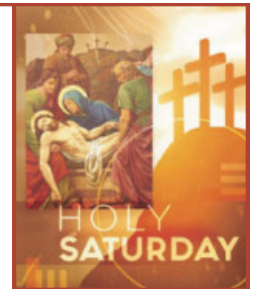

a Catholic campaign to transform communities.

Just as Jesus called His first disciples to follow Him, One by One, He is calling each of us. Your gift to the One by One campaign will help grow the next generation of our Church by investing in our schools, faith formation, and more throughout northeastern Wisconsin. I would like to thank those families who have already pledged to the campaign. Your gift will make a significant impact on the generational impact for the diocese as well as St. Jude, St. Joseph, and Annunciation BVM Parishes. May God Bless you and your loved ones,

Thank you,
Fr. Tony de los Santos

Coming New Bible Study: Hebrews

You are invited to join our Bible Class, Monday nights, 6:30-8:30pm or Wednesday morning, 9-11am to discover how richly we've been blessed. The book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism. It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith. It is considered by many to be the "Holies" of biblical theology. Because of the high quality of its theological concepts it can be difficult for even the most seasoned Bible scholars to unpack.

Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins have found a way to make this sublime book easier to understand. Hebrews draws connections between the Old and New Testaments, the liturgy, the Eucharist, the priesthood, and so much more. Most importantly, Hebrews will help Catholics appreciate the astounding generosity of God as they see the wonders God has given us in the Church.

Classes are held at Annunciation, 1087 Kellogg St. This study will run for 8 consecutive weeks, beginning April 4/6 and ending May 23/25. To register, please contact the parish office at 920-496-2160. There are no fees, refreshments are provided, and all are welcome.

The Burdon of Dept

Life can be challenging. There are times when people feel so lost. They find help through Catholic Charities and the many programs and resources in our Diocese.

Amanda was in an abusive relationship that took a toll on her physically, emotionally and financially. This relationship left her battered, bruised, and in severe debt. Through God's grace, Amanda found help from several organizations, including Catholic Charities Financial Health Services Program. With guidance from a Financial Health Counselor at Catholic Charities, Amanda learned to manage her money, prepared a plan to pull herself out of debt, paid her debts on-time and became self-sufficient.

"Going from $20,000 in debt to no debt...it's amazing. It feels great," said Amanda.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps people like Amanda. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.

All donations are given to St. Patrick's Food Pantry. The number of clients needed assistance from the Pantry in 2022 has been steadily increasing. A couple reasons for this is that rent was unexpectedly increased for many of them in January. Plus, the additional COVID government assistance that had been granted to those with young children has been reset back to what their pre-COVID allocation was. So, they are experiencing less financial resources for groceries which is an extra strain with the price of food going up. Therefore, any help you can provide with these needed groceries and supplies is so much appreciated!
