

PALM SUNDAY

As he rode along,
the people were spreading their
cloaks on the road;
the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud
with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen.
- Lk 19:36, 37b

A Lenten Journey with the Three Theological Virtues

Many of you know that I lost my brother John unexpectedly this year on January 31. When my sister Joan and I cleaned out his apartment and prepared to give away all his belongings, we had 7 or 8 boxes of spiritual books to give to the local parish. I kept the book John was presently reading "Interior Freedom" by Jacques Philippe. This book was found on a table near his chair.

Earlier John had told me about Jacques Philippe, a new author he had discovered. There were 8 other books by the same author on his shelf, waiting to be read, however, John never got to them. These books I brought to our convent in Green Bay after the cleaning venture. When I began my journey with John's book, I found he had highlighted and made notes in the margins. Some of the quotes he had shared on Facebook. Reading this book has served as part of my grieving for my brother, my Godson, who lost his life due to alcoholism. I want to share a section of this book with you today.

One section in Chapter 3 is about the three theological virtues: Faith, Hope and Charity. These three virtues, by which we are in union with our God, are foundational virtues from which all others flow. Virtue or virtue, the Latin derivative means strength or power. Let us look at each of these virtues. Jacques Philippe states that Faith is strength for us; Hope is confidence in God's faithfulness; Charity is the courage to love. Christians are people who believe in God, hope in God, and want to love God. Taking time for daily prayer and regularly celebrating the sacraments are a means of graces to increase these three virtues. Our life is growth in faith, hope and love.

The author goes on to compare these three virtues to the mysteries of the Rosary: Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious. These mysteries are the cycle of our lives. Using St. Peter as an example, Jacques suggests that Peter's vocation or call to respond in faith was full of joy and happiness, thus the Joyful Mysteries. Peter's denial of Jesus and realizing his fall, yet seeing Jesus love him still, gave him hope of forgiveness and mercy - the Sorrowful Mysteries. Charity is the glorious outpouring of the Holy Spirit with the courage to love - Glorious Mysteries. "In heaven, faith will be replaced by sight, and hope by possession, only love will never pass away." Even on this earth our love is participating in our heavenly journey; and faith and hope help us do this. My brother John lived these virtues as faithfully as possible. John's faith, hope and love are brought to fulfillment because of God's unbounded love and mercy for him.

Book Review

Our next book discussion will be Thurs, May 12 at noon. Lunch will be provided. We will be discussing The Stranger in the Lifeboat by Mitch Albom.

In story, Albom keeps us guessing until the end: Is this strange & quiet man really who he claims to be? What actually happened to cause the explosion? Are the survivors already in heaven, or are they in hell?

The story is narrated by Benji, one of the passengers, who recounts the events in a notebook that is later discovered—a year later—when the empty life raft washes up on the island of Montserrat. It falls to the island's chief inspector, Jarty LeFleur, a man battling his own demons, to solve the mystery of what really happened.

We will be placing a book order, $15. Contact Jane Giese by 4/29 if you would like to order a book, (920) 497-8236.

"Bear With Me"

Thurs., April 21, 1 pm, Annunciation Rm 105

All are welcome to join us for a fun, entertaining movie followed by a brief discussion!

"Bear with Me" is a heartwarming story of loyalty and friendship. Eleven-year-old Emily becomes lost in the Great Bear Rain Forest. Her family is desperately looking for her. They don't know that Emily has been reunited with a family friend, Masha. Emily & her family rescued Masha as an orphaned bear cub, then released Masha back to the wild when the bear was ready to be on his own. Emily and the bear set off to find her home and run into many adventures and challenges along the way. The breathtakingly beautiful forests of the Pacific Northwest lend this wilderness adventure a magic all its own.

There is no charge. Popcorn and snacks will be provided. No reservations necessary.

Holy Land Collection on Good Friday

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Thank You!

On behalf of St. Patrick's Pantry, we wanted to thank all of the parishioners of Quad-Parishes for their generosity the past few months. Your on-going support of the Pantry is very much needed and appreciated. The number of clients coming to the Pantry for some needed food, hygiene products and cleaning supplies is continually rising. In fact, March of 2022 was the first time we've seen our client count exceed what we were seeing for numbers before the COVID pandemic in March of 2020. As we're sure most of you have noticed, food, gas, utilities, rent, car repairs, etc. all have increased. This has placed an extra burden on many of our clients. Our Pantry volunteers do a fantastic job of treating our clients with warmth and a genuine understanding of their current situation. We are honored for the opportunity to be the "heroes" that distribute your donated items to those that need it in our community. Our Pantry is open Monday through Thursday from 1-3pm. We welcome anyone that would want to stop over to see the Pantry in action and witness how your donations are being utilized!

The Burdon of Dept

Life can be challenging. There are times when people feel so lost. They find help through Catholic Charities and the many programs and resources in our Diocese.

Amanda was in an abusive relationship that took a toll on her physically, emotionally and financially. This relationship left her battered, bruised, and in severe debt. Through God's grace, Amanda found help from several organizations, including Catholic Charities Financial Health Services Program. With guidance from a Financial Health Counselor at Catholic Charities, Amanda learned to manage her money, prepared a plan to pull herself out of debt, paid her debts on-time and became self-sufficient.

"Going from $20,000 in debt to no debt...it's amazing. It feels great," said Amanda.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps people like Amanda. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.
