Inescapable Mercy

I am, for the first time in recent memory, unsure of where to begin speaking on this beautiful topic. I am currently amid an ever-growing stack of writings, perusing a cavalcade of medieval and ancient texts, and therefore my mind is surrounded by the idyllic truths of thousands of years ago. Just as Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles, hoped that he could remain on Mount Tabor with the Transfigured Christ, so too do I wish that I could remain in a haze of olden languages and stalwart philosophers. Yet, this day beckons us to go out into the world and share what we learn.

Though our daydreams may end, our hopes do not likewise need cease. Assuredly, the majority of our country is disgusted at the demands of a boisterous few, and most of us likely wish that we could live once more in a time when it was acceptable to be Christian, to have a large family, or to simply hold to our beliefs. Jesus, however, reminds us that a life of faith is going to be inconvenient at best and externally despised at worst. Always, though, we remember that "the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us" (Rom. 8:18). Even when it seems like no answer is forthcoming, "The righteous cry out, the Lord hears and he rescues them from all their afflictions. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted, saves those whose spirit is crushed" (Ps. 34:18-19).

Bishop Augustine, addressing the words of this Psalm, notes that "God is High: let a Christian be lowly. ... [Y]ou raise yourself and do not touch Him; you humble yourself and He descends into you" (Ennar. in Ps., XXXIV.XXII). When we allow Him to raise us up in our hardship, He does so with unimaginable mercy. He gives to us what we most need when we're experiencing heartbreak and seek His love. Though illness and disease are evils in this mortal existence, God has mercy on us as we endure such afflictions and reminds us that He has not abandoned us by offering to us His solace and comfort.

This Divine Mercy perdures even after death, in the form of Purgatory. To add an enjoyable quote from a class I taught this year, even the cautiously Protestant author C.S. Lewis wrote: "Our souls demand Purgatory, don't they? Would it not break the heart if God said to us, 'It is true, my son, that your breath smells and your rags drip with mud and slime, but we are charitable here and no one will [scold] you with these things.... Enter into the joy.'? Should we not reply, 'With submission, sir, [but] if there is no objection, I'd rather be cleaned first'" (Letters to Malcolm: Chiefly on Prayer, 20).

Whether in this life, stained with burden and difficulty, or in the next, awaiting the triumphant entry into the heavens (for those in Purgatory, that is), we are surrounded by a Divine Mercy more powerful than any inconvenience, affliction, or suffering that might futilely threaten to draw us from Our God.

Joseph Walkowski

a Catholic campaign to transform communities.

Dear Friends,

More than $6 million raised through the One by One campaign will go toward bringing Christ to those in need. As we know, the joy of the Gospel is often most needed in spaces where people find themselves alone, suffering and without hope. As Catholics, we are called to seek out the stranger, heal the sick, and comfort the weary, so all may know a deeper relationship with Christ.

Our Progress

Parish Goals:

- St. Jude - $350,000
St. Joseph - $275,000
Annunciation - $250,000

Percentage Raised:

- St. Jude - 36%
St. Joseph - 24%
Annunciation - 29%
*totals as of 4/13/22

How you can help!

- Make a gift to the campaign!
Pray for the success of the campaign.
Answer the call to volunteer.

The one by One campaign will promote the social teachings of the Church, especially those relating to justice and dignity, through Catholic Charities and complementing Diocesan programs that bring healing and peace through pastoral outreach.

I look forward to the participation of our parishioners throughout this campaign and I look forward to seeing the success we can achieve together.

Blessings!
Fr Tony de los Santos

Can This Marriage Be Saved

A wedding is an exciting event! The anticipation and emotion of the Mass and reception is wonderful, but the really hard work comes after you walk up the aisle as two lives joined together as one.

When couples face problems in their marriage, Catholic Charities offers help. Here, couples can work on issues caused by poor communication, financial stress, family issues, infidelity, resentment and other challenges in their relationship.

Following an initial assessment, a certified therapist will work with couples to develop goals for their relationship and tools to practice newly learned skills. Counseling ends when a couple decides their goals have been reached.

To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.

Book Review

Our next book discussion will be Thurs, May 12 at noon. Lunch will be provided. We will be discussing The Stranger in the Lifeboat by Mitch Albom.

In story, Albom keeps us guessing until the end: Is this strange & quiet man really who he claims to be? What actually happened to cause the explosion? Are the survivors already in heaven, or are they in hell?

The story is narrated by Benji, one of the passengers, who recounts the events in a notebook that is later discovered—a year later—when the empty life raft washes up on the island of Montserrat. It falls to the island's chief inspector, Jarty LeFleur, a man battling his own demons, to solve the mystery of what really happened.

We will be placing a book order, $15. Contact Jane Giese by 4/29 if you would like to order a book, (920) 497-8236.
