What's HAPPENING?

A WELCOME, A GOOD-BY, AND A THANK YOU!

At the masses last weekend, it was announced that Fr. Philip Dinh-Van-Thiep has been assigned as priest celebrant for the quad-parishes. A priest celebrant is usually a retired priest whose main responsibility is helping out by presiding at masses. He has no administrative responsibilities toward the parishes. Let us WELCOME Fr. Philip with open arms; something our parishes do well!

With the arrival of Fr. Philip, we will be saying GOOD-BY to Fr. Armando. After many years in the United States, Fr. Armando will be retiring and returning home to family in the Philippines.

As Fr. Armando prepares to return to the Philippines, when you see him, take time to say THANK YOU for your ministry to the Quad-Parishes these past two years. Let him know how much we appreciated his time with us. We hope to have a reception in his honor as his time of departure draws closer.

Why The Sad Face?

Happy Easter my friends! Over the past couple of decades, I have asked a lot of people what their favorite season of the year is. Obviously, when you ask enough people, you are bound to find people who say winter, spring, summer and fall. There is no doubt that each of the seasons has a bunch of fantastic qualities. One could make the case for any of the four being the best of all.

My research has been highly unscientific and very possibly filled with situational bias and leading conversation. Having said that, it still seems to me that most of the people who I have talked to about this have answered that one of the shoulder seasons is their favorite. Most have claimed either spring or fall as the season they are most fond of. Personally, I'm on Team Spring. I am not exactly sure why I am partial to spring. Perhaps it's the increasing temperatures or maybe it's the budding of flowers. I know I love the return of baseball and I always appreciated the end of the school year. Is this reason enough to choose spring over any of the other seasons? I don't know but it's the best that I can come up with.

This question becomes even more interesting when the question becomes "what is your favorite season on the Church calendar"? Again, there is a case to be made for any of the seasons of the Church year. I would argue, that there is no season that defines us as a people or brings us more happiness than Easter. Consider just the length of the season. Of all of the "specials", Easter is the longest season, lasting 50 days!

Often, Catholics are referred to as "Easter People". This brings us much closer to why I believe that this is the defining season of the year. During Easter Jesus emerges from the tomb. He gives His disciples many signs and miracles so that they (and we) can more fully understand and believe in God's love, power and might. And then, He ascends into Heaven and sends the Holy Spirit to be with us throughout our lives. All of this, ALL OF THIS, is done so that we may come to fully understand God's great love for us and to teach us to live lives without fear and despair. We, as Easter People, have been promised the glory of Heaven and the hope and joy of eternal life in the splendor of God's company.

This Easter, once again, we are reminded that we have something greater waiting for us. We have been washed in the blood of the lamb. Our Lord has died so that we may live forever. It is with this hope that we are invited to live our lives. This is the hope that will bring joy to the world and peace to all folks we meet along the way. Are there challenges and trials in life? Absolutely! But, when we use the proper lens to view life's darker moments, we will prosper. No longer is the question whether the glass is half-full or half-empty. The more useful question is "is the tomb full or empty?" We know the answer, so let us go into the world believing it! HAPPY EASTER – indeed!

Bill Gerl

Expanding Catholic Charities' Reach

Many people across our Diocese have struggled with the stress and anxiety of isolation, fear, loneliness and financial insecurity. Through it all, Catholic Charities, which is funded through the Bishop's Appeal, has been there to accompany people and help them find hope. Catholic Charities continues outreach to our brothers and sisters regardless of their religious identity or affiliation. An updated service model is making it possible to reach even more people in our northernmost communities. Truly, they are a light in the darkness.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal supports this important work. You help bring hope to those who are most in need.

To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.

Book Review

Our next book discussion will be Thurs, May 12 at noon. Lunch will be provided. We will be discussing The Stranger in the Lifeboat by Mitch Albom.

In this story, Albom keeps us guessing until the end: Is this strange & quiet man really who he claims to be? What actually happened to cause the explosion? Are the survivors already in heaven, or are they in hell?

The story is narrated by Benji, one of the passengers, who recounts the events in a notebook that is later discovered—a year later—when the empty life raft washes up on the island of Montserrat. It falls to the island's chief inspector, Jarty LeFleur, a man battling his own demons, to solve the mystery of what really happened.

We have already placed the book order. If you would like to join us, please obtain your own copy of the book.
