An Unlikely Doctor

Writing this on April 29, I am overjoyed to see that this date celebrates the feast of one of the greatest role models for women (and men, of course): Saint Catherine of Siena. Catherine, a lay Dominican like myself, could be said to have been too holy for this world. For example, her mother, Lapa di Puccio di Piagente, was a holy-yet-necessarily-sterm mother of at least 13 children. When Lapa once scolded her daughter with harsh words, Catherine replied "I beg you not to let your tongue damn anyone, whether they be good or evil, for my sake. It is unseemly at your age, and it hurts my heart." Additionally, she taught herself the Angelus at the age of 5. When she would climb the stairs, she would kneel on each step and say a Hail Mary, and at the age of 6 she had a vision of Christ Jesus—the first of many such visions.

When she revealed to her pious parents that she had devoted her virginity to the Savior, they were not too happy. To show her how difficult a life of solitary living could be without a husband's aid, they cast all their chores upon her shoulders. Not once did Catherine complain of her work, as "she used to imagine that her father was our Lord Jesus Christ, her mother was His mother, the Virgin Mary—this must have been rather difficult for Catherine when Lapa was in one of her furies—and her brothers & the apprentices were the apostles & disciples." (Undset, p. 24.)

Eventually being allowed to join the Dominican laity, Catherine grew in wisdom and frequently engaged in ecstatic conversations with familiar names: Mary Magdalene, Dominic, the Blessed Virgin, and her Divine Son. Mamma Caterina, as her enraptured followers affectionately called her, is considered one of the greatest mystics of the Catholic Church, and her Dialogues with the voices of heaven are a tapestry of insight into the Heart of Christ. (If anyone wants a copy, send me an email and I can print them for you.)

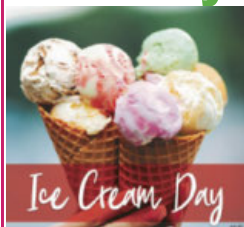

Knowing her status, both socially and spiritually, she nevertheless set out on a perilous journey for France when, during what was called the Babylonian Captivity, the popes were held hostage in Avignon, France, for 67 years. Having no formal education, she successfully debated countless bishops and cardinals who were hostile to the notion of the Pope returning to Rome. They were stunned at her spiritual insight and utter purity. Ultimately, "Jesus Christ's words to Catherine many years before, when He said to His bride that He would use weak women as His ambassadors to the proud and powerful men of this world, had come true in a manner which makes Catherine of Siena's destiny astonishing in the history of the world." (Undset, p. 212.)

Let none of your characteristics that some may see as lesser—your age, gender, Catholic faith, or your knowledge—prevent you from carrying out the tasks entrusted to you by Our Lord. Leave worldly expectations behind as you seek the heights of heaven, my friends.

Saint Catherine of Siena, Doctor of the Church, pray for us.

Sun., 5/29 after 9:15am Mass at St. Jude Hall

All Block 3 parishes will be having their parish receptions – let's be the parish with the most participation!

Dear Friends,

St. Jude, St. Joseph, and Annunciation Parishes are currently participating in block 3 of the one by One campaign along with 32 other parishes within the Diocese. This campaign will have a positive impact on the lives of children, clergy, and families across the Diocese of Green Bay and allow all parishes, including ours, to address important local needs.

Our parishes will benefit from one by One and have goals of $350,000, $275,000, and $250,000. Of these amounts, 50 percent will remain at our parishes to meet locally identified needs.

Please join fellow parishioners at an upcoming reception to learn more about the campaign and how you can contribute.

You will be receiving materials in the mail that you can bring to the reception. If you have already received pledge materials and want to discuss your contribution, this is a great opportunity to do so!

May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly.

Thank You. ❤️

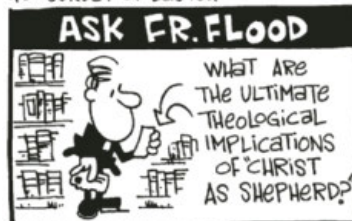

❤️ Thanks to everyone for their time, talent and monetary donations for the St. Joseph Bake Sale last weekend. The wonderful assortment of goodies earned $570.25! This money will be applied to the St. Joseph Parking Lot Capital Campaign. Thank you for your generosity!

❤️ Thanks to everyone who purchased Booyah last weekend. Profits will benefit the St. Joseph WildCats Football Team. And a big thank you to all who came to help cut chicken and vegetables on Saturday!

❤️ Thank you to all who participated in the International Potluck last Sunday at Annunciation. There were many delicious dishes from all over the world. Everyone had tons of fun and the Karaoke competition was entertaining for all ages!

Coming Attraction: Amish Grace

This TV film first premiered on Lifetime Movie Network March 28, 2010. The film is based on the tragic event that occurred in October, 2006 at West Nickel Mines School, Pennsylvania. An intruder entered the school and shot five children to death and wounded five other children. You may remember hearing the news about this senseless, horrific shooting but were perhaps even more confounded by how quickly the media focused its attention on the extraordinary forgiveness demonstrated by the Amish community. Come and discover for yourself how this incredible forgiveness came about through the eyes of one of the grieving mothers, Ida Graber, and the other devastated families.

This will be our final movie for the Spring. Please join us at Annunciation in room 105 on Thursday, May 19 at 1 pm. No admission, refreshments provided! All are welcome!

Expanding Catholic Charities' Reach

God calls us to support others in their time of need. Catholic Charities is a smiling face and a light guiding people during their most challenging times.

Catholic Charities offers counseling services for children, adolescents, adults, couples and families facing challenges in their lives. Individuals from different backgrounds and situations reach out daily to Catholic Charities for help.

Counseling includes helping people through the loss of a loved one, depression, anxiety, addictions, life changes and family issues. Counselors answer God's call by providing these services to everyone who seeks them, regardless of religious affiliation, culture or ability to pay.

To make a gift today, contact your parish, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.

Book Review

Our next book discussion will be Thurs, May 12 at noon. Lunch will be provided. We will be discussing The Stranger in the Lifeboat by Mitch Albom.

In this story, Albom keeps us guessing until the end: Is this strange & quiet man really who he claims to be? What actually happened to cause the explosion? Are the survivors already in heaven, or are they in hell?

The story is narrated by Benji, one of the passengers, who recounts the events in a notebook that is later discovered—a year later—when the empty life raft washes up on the island of Montserrat. It falls to the island's chief inspector, Jarty LeFleur, a man battling his own demons, to solve the mystery of what really happened.

We have already placed the book order. If you would like to join us, please obtain your own copy of the book.

Food Drive May 14-15

To help those in need, our parishes have a food drive the 1st & 3rd Sunday of each month. Everyone is invited to reach out to the less fortunate by bringing non-perishable food goods or cash donations to Mass. Place them in the buckets at the entrance way of each church.

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Visits with Holy Communion

While we have been blessed with the opportunity to attend Mass, unfortunately, there are some of our fellow parishioners who are unable to get out. We are looking for a few volunteers to bring Holy communion to those unable to attend Mass. If you are able to visit a friend or neighbor with the Eucharist, please contact Sr. Jan to make arrangements.

St Patrick Mass Intentions - We have had questions about scheduling Mass intentions at St. Pat's. If you want to schedule a Mass at St. Pat's, even if you want the Mass after July 1, you can still come to the Parish Office. We will schedule the Mass and it will stay with St. Pat's after the transition. There will continue to be a Saturday Mass at 4pm and a Tuesday Mass at 8am.
