

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

The "L" Words - Latin, Labor and Love

Today is the third Sunday of Ordinary Time since the end of the Easter season, and the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time on the current liturgical year's calendar. We celebrated Solemnities the past two Sundays, so it still seemed a bit like Easter. This weekend, the "greens" came back out for Mass so it now feels a little more "ordinary". For the liturgical calendar, "ordinary" refers to the fact that the weeks are numbered. It comes from the Latin word "ordo" from which we also get the English word "order". Another Latin word - "ordinalis"- refers to numbers in a series. I still think there is some connection to our more familiar definition of "regular or common", though.

June 26th is also the feast day of St. Josemaría Escrivá. St. Josemaría is a modern-day saint from Spain. He died on June 26, 1975 and was canonized in 2002. St. Josemaría is the founder of Opus Dei. Opus Dei is a Catholic organization whose members search for holiness in daily (ordinary) activities. He and those who joined him in his service to the sick, poor & laborers strove to follow Jesus & seek holiness in their daily experience. The idea of Opus Dei is not to find holiness by escaping the world, as monks did, but by entering it more deeply & sanctifying it in the way members fulfill their responsibilities in their occupations and families and communities. The original group consisted of clergy & laypeople, married & single people, men & women. It involved people from all walks of life. For the sake of brevity, the over-simplified goal is to grow closer to God by doing what ever you do well, with the intention to serve others for the glory of God. Today Opus Dei has over 80,000 members throughout the world.

The Second Reading for today fits so nicely with St. Josemaría's apostolate. Paul wrote to the Galatians "For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

St. Paul, St. Josemaría and Jesus himself consistently invite us to put aside our inclinations, temptations and desires to satisfy our earthly hungers and to change our focus to feeding our souls, serving those who are in need & to, by virtue of these selfless actions, growing our relationship with God & spreading God's Kingdom throughout creation.

The challenge is, of course, to find the quiet place that enables us to hear God's voice, to hear God's calling to us.

"How I wish your bearing and conversation were such that, on seeing or hearing you, people would say: 'This man reads the life of Jesus Christ.'" — Josemaría Escrivá, The Way

"To reform. Every day a little. This has to be your constant task if you really want to become a saint." — Josemaría Escrivá, The Way

"The enemy: Will you obey... even in this 'ridiculous' little detail? You, with God's grace: I will obey... even in this 'heroic' little detail." — Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, Camino

"Add a supernatural motive to your ordinary professional work, and you will have sanctified it." — Josemaría Escrivá, The Way

"Conquer yourself each day from the very first moment, getting up on the dot, at a set time, without granting a single minute to laziness. If, with the help of God, you conquer yourself in that moment, you'll have accomplished a great deal for the rest of the day. It's so discouraging to find yourself beaten in the first skirmish!" — Josemaría Escrivá, The Way

We are looking for volunteers to prepare and serve a meal for the NEW Community Shelter on a 4th Monday of the month. We typically serve around 200 people.

Seeking Volunteers

St. Joseph is looking for a person to keep the sign on 9th Street updated. This volunteer opportunity requires only an occasional hour of your time and good spelling skills. In addition, if you are outgoing and like to meet new people, you might be interested in helping to welcome new parishioners to Annunciation, St. Joseph and St. Jude. Ideally, we would like to have at least one person from each of the parishes who would meet with someone wants to join one of the parishes, fill out some paperwork, and share all the wonderful things happening at the parishes. This opportunity also requires only an occasional hour or two of your time. If you are interested in either of these opportunities, please contact the parish office at 920-496-2160.

Postage

Did you know that as part of our senior care ministry we mail the weekly bulletin to about 80 of our homebound & nursing home parishioners? For many, since they are unable to get to church or parish events, this is a main resource to help them stay connected to their parish. Like everything else, the cost of stamps keeps going up. If anyone, or any group, would be interested in supporting this ministry through the donation of stamps (Forever stamps and Extra Ounce stamps) or a financial donation that would enable us to purchase stamps, it would be greatly appreciated. Donations can be dropped off at, or mailed to, the parish office or put in the collection basket. Thank you for considering this request!

St Patrick Mass Intentions

We have had questions about scheduling Mass intentions at St. Pat's. If you want to schedule a Mass at St. Pat's, even if you want the Mass after July 1, you can still come to the Parish Office. We will schedule the Mass and it will stay with St. Pat's after the transition. There will continue to be a Saturday Mass at 4pm and a Tuesday Mass at 8am.

Society of St. Vincent DePaul

In today's Gospel we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent a "messenger on ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others. Before we visit with those looking for help we pray and ask Jesus to help us be his voice, his ears and his heart so we will do his will. Please consider joining us as we could use your help. Thanks, Mike Charles - 920-530-6116
