Hearts Must Follow

This weekend my family will be gathered to celebrate our youngest granddaughter, Molly, who turned one on July 2nd. Molly is a reminder to our family of just how precious life is. Her parents longed for and prayed for a baby. Their first pregnancy ended in a miscarriage. It was difficult for my daughter and husband, and for all of our family. We ached for these two and we mourned the son or daughter, grandchild, niece or nephew, or cousin that we never got a chance to hold, to hug, to kiss. But that doesn't mean we did not get the chance to love.

In time, in the middle of COVID, Elizabeth became pregnant again. I am sure she and her husband Jason had much anxiety and hope and worry. Many prayers were prayed. To all our joy Molly was born. There was a potentially serious health concern at about six months, but God provided great doctors and an effective treatment plan. Through this first year Molly has grown and smiled and laughed and cooed and crawled and walked and jabbered her way further & further into our hearts, where she has been since the first day we were aware of Elizabeth's pregnancy.

This week we witnessed the Supreme Court overturn Roe versus Wade and rule that there is no such thing in the Constitution as the right to abortion. Those of us on the pro-life side certainly see this as a positive step in saving the life of unborn children. However, my prayers before this court ruling and now since have never been about overturning Roe versus Wade. I have been praying for conversion of hearts.

Laws, even in America, are subject to the whims of those in political power. All you have to do is watch the protests, and listen to those who support abortion to realize that overturning Roe is not a solution in and of itself. The solution lies in seeing all life as a precious gift. The solution lies in rediscovering the wisdom, beauty and mutual support in strong, loving & holy families. The solution lies in rediscovering the sacredness of each person and the genius in God's plan that sexual expression is most perfect as an expression of lifelong love and commitment.

All this is only possible through conversion of hearts. Only conversion of hearts can get us past all of the emotion to where we can rediscover fundamental truths and live lives that protect and nurture each individual so that each person, each family, each community, each country finds love, finds happiness, finds purpose, finds justice and finds peace.

His Peace, Deacon Dan

With Sympathy

Please remember in your prayers the following who have died, and their family & friends:

Teresa King - St. Jude/St. Patrick

Lorraine Knaus - St. Patrick

Marrienne Bunker - St. Joseph

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord."

Thank you for your service Fr. Armando! The Hispanic community of Annunciation will miss you!

Society of St. Vincent DePaul

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish. Thank You for all that you give to St Vincent de Paul.

We Need A New Name For Our Parish Community!

With the separation of St. Patrick from the Quad Parishes, since we are now three parishes, what should we call ourselves? We don't want to be called the Tri Parishes so we need some creative, simple logos. So far, suggestions have included: Fort Howard Parishes, Three in One, and Trinity Parishes. We are looking for other options. If you have a suggestion, call the office (920-496-2160 or email lverheyden@quad-parish.org. We are excited to see what you come up with!

Dear Friends,

In the Gospel, we hear how Jesus' new commandment to love one another calls us each day to service in our families, our parishes, our communities, and our world. The one by One campaign is a concrete way to respond to Jesus's new commandment of love. Through transformative ministries, our parish and our Diocese can better answer Jesus' call to us as disciples.

At St. Jude on July 9 and 10, and at Annunciation and St. Joseph on July 17 we will be having a final invitation to families to join us by participating in the one by One campaign. Gifts can be pledged over five years. Please pray about what sacrifice is right for you and your family.

To learn more about the one by One campaign contact the parish office or visit the one by One campaign website at one.catholicfoundationgb.org today! Thank you for your continued prayers and support.

Dear Parishioners:

Thank you very much for the warm welcome you gave me, Father Tony and Father Armando. I will always cherish it in my heart. All five liturgy services were wonderful, and unique. O my goodness, I do not know how I can express my sincere gratitude for the preparation you made for me. Sister Mary and Sister Mary's home was heaven on earth. Please give a vote of thanks for me. The music, the parishioners brought joy and peace to my heart. Fathers thanks for, your invitation before the celebration of the Eucharist was very uplifting as well as moving me to the Mass celebration. I really felt at home, I just wanted to be there. Oh! It was beautiful.

You are a blessing to my people of Zimbabwe and my Congregation. God will bless your love and generosity. The Mission Appeal collection will be wonderful and will be a blessing to students. Thank you very much. May the Mother of God bless each one of you. May Mary, the Mother of Jesus shower you with graces from her Son, Jesus Christ. Again, I really appreciated your warm Welcome. I will keep you in my prayers.

Thank you and best wishes,
