

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.” - Lk 12:20-21

Society of St. Vincent DePaul

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God. When you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are realizing that in giving you indeed receive.

St. Vincent de Paul NEEDS FURNITURE! We are struggling to keep the bare minimum of furniture options available. If you were ever thinking about donating, now is the time! Parroquia Anunciación Ministerio Hispano

A couple of weeks ago, Jill, Anika and I traveled to the U.P. to camp for a few days. The trip was mostly about getting away to relax and recharge. We didn't plan anything more than where we were going to park the camper. Camp set-up was a little later and a little more challenging than we expected so after we were finally settled, we headed into Manistique to get dinner and get some advice on what to do while we were visiting.

Everyone we talked to strongly suggested that we visit Kitch-iti-iki. We had never heard of it but we were up for an adventure, so we decided to check it out. We were rewarded handsomely!

I don't have the words to paint an adequate picture of the scene. The site is the largest natural spring in Michigan. The water is crystal-clear, and the views are spectacular. I can honestly say that it is the most beautiful place I have visited in the area. But that wasn't always the case.

By the early 1900's the land around the spring had become a dumping ground for a local mill. There was waste and debris everywhere. Thankfully, there was a local business owner who fell in love with the area and decided to protect it for the future. His efforts resulted in a complete restoration and preservation of the spring as a state park.

As I think back on the story of Kitch-iti-iki, I am reminded of the tremendous gift of redemption that we have been given. The area was run-down, abused, tarnished and in a bad place. But it was not ruined forever. With some recognition and some effort, the hidden beauty was brought out for the world to see and celebrate.

Many of us have had moments in our lives where things were rough. The list of challenges that we face is long. As a result, despair and hopelessness creep (or flood) in. There are times when we think there is no getting out from under whatever is weighing us down. Through the Cross and by God's grace, we are reminded that greater things are in store for us. When we can, we are invited to lay our troubles at Christ's feet, and He will pick them up.

There can also be people in our lives whose beauty is hard for us to see. Again, we are called to look deeper to find the beauty that every child of God possesses. We are called to remove the debris that clouds our view of God's greatest gifts.

It is my hope that we can build our trust and faith in God so that we can always find the, courage, strength and fortitude to look past the rubbish that we encounter so we can always find the hope of better things to come.
