Viatorian Vocations Corner

Did You Know... about Viatorian Formation?

Men who discern God's invitation to the Viatorians apply to the Viatorian formation program. Accepted applicants begin Viatorian formation as a pre-novice. The pre-novitiate is an introduction to communal life and Viatorian ministry, living in a Viatorian home and serving Viatorian institutions. This usually lasts one year, after which the candidate can petition to continue as a novice.

Novitiate is the most important step of formation. The novice is considered part of the community and immersed in a deeper experience of prayer and community living, including more apostolic experience and guidance in study of scripture, spirituality, Viatorian traditions, and the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. At the end of novitiate, a novice can request first vows, a temporary three-year commitment, and begin religious life as a Viatorian brother.

Fr. John Van Wiet, CSV, with then-novice Br. Peter Lamick, CSV on a novitiate visit to our foundation in Colombia.

Viatorians walk with people to discern God's invitation.
