Vocation Corner

Today's Gospel story for the 5th Sunday of Lent is a beautiful lesson on the power of God's mercy. As the story goes, a woman is caught in the very act of adultery, then, verbally condemned by the scribes and Pharisees - who eventually walk away realizing they are sinners as well, and the story concludes with Jesus lifting her up and forgiving the woman of her sin.

We can often dwell on the past or be reminded by others of our mistakes. Jesus' loving concern shows us that His mercy frees us from the burden of having to worry about what others think of us, and frees us from having to carry around the burden that I think I'm unforgivable. Yes, we all sin, but God's mercy is so much greater than our sins. Let's experience His mercy, get back up, and pursue our vocation in holiness. Fr Manno
