MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity. The divine relationship between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit as three person - one God.

The Feast of the Holy Trinity is to serve as a reminder of how much God wishes and wants to have a relationship with us. That God the Father - the creator of all things - who once stated that He had heard the cries of his people and had decided to come down Himself and rescue them. God the Son, Jesus Christ - the Word made flesh who dwelt among us to show us God's love for us and how we are to love one another. God the Holy Spirit - the Advocate, the Paraclete, the Helper who was sent to us to help us to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ.

As we celebrate this Feast of the Holy Trinity - the relationship between the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, it is always a good opportunity to reflect upon our relationship with God, our relationship with one another and our relationship with the Church. How are those relationships in good order....and how can they be better?

Today (Saturday) we also gather and (finally) take the opportunity to honor Fr. Ken. My predecessor and your Pastor for 26 years. It gives us an opportunity to reflect upon this parish family's relationship with Fr. Ken. The many ways he served this community and the Church of Southern Illinois. The indelible impression he made on our parish... our community... and our hearts. As a parish, we didn't get a chance to say "thank you and farewell" two years ago because of the pandemic. May our celebration today enable us to do just that. The greatest way we can honor Fr Ken, I believe, is by going forth and spreading the Good News.

Lastly, just a thank you to all who took a moment and sent notes, messages, texts on my 24th anniversary. Your thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

Have a good week,

Very Reverend Mark D. Reyling, V.F.
 Pastor

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY - JUNE 12TH

About the News Story. Here is the gospel declaration, the Good News for today. Who? Father, Son, and Spirit - aka (1) the Trinity and (2) God. What? The love of God has already been poured into us. When? Before creation and throughout our salvation down to today. Why? Because we stand in God's good grace by God's loving design. How? Ah, that is mystery!

- ◆ What peace does the Father bring this day?
- ◆ What does Jesus have to tell me about affliction, endurance, character, hope, and love?
- ◆ How will I let the Spirit guide me?

Please pray for the sick;

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.

VOCATIONS CORNER... "I was blessed to attend strong Catholic parishes and entered the Academy of Fine Arts to study painting, which was a dream come true. Still nothing in my life satisfied me completely. I wanted to grow closer to God and I felt the call to give my all to Christ. However, I was terrified with the idea of leaving my family and my dreams, painting, dancing and children. Then a moment came in prayer when deep in my heart I simply said to God, "OK, I will do it". Suddenly, a peace entered my life like I never experience before. I never knew such peace existed. I completed my school studies and soon went to the convent with my suitcase."

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

“In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life.”
