My Dear Parish Family

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Body and Blood of Christ.

The word feast is so appropriate for this celebration...feast reminds me of gathering for Thanksgiving at Grandma's house and at home. The table was so full of food that there was little room for the plates or even the glasses of iced tea. All the favorites were on the table and I mean all the favorites - usually it meant that you were having warm ups for a few days - which was never a bad thing. When you were finished....you were full, satisfied, stuffed. You knew that the preparing of this feast was a labor of love.

Come to the feast of heaven and earth....the words of a familiar song speaks of this feast that we celebrate each time we gather. This feast is a multi-course meal. The calling and gathering of the people of God, the offering of our sins, the Word of God proclaimed and preached, the offering of our gifts in thanksgiving to God (gifts of our labor, gifts from the earth and work of our hands, gifts of our service to others, gifts of our lives), then we share in the outpouring of Jesus' labor of love - His giving of Himself for our salvation.

And just like the celebration with the family, the celebration doesn't just end....no....you leave there full of joy...satisfied of God's love for you...and stuffed to the brim with the love of your brothers and sisters in faith. And we go forth and tell the experience that we share just like the drive home from a family gathering...we share the story and nourish others

On this Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ - let us go forth filled, satisfied, and stuffed with the love of God and BE the Body of Christ in our world.

Have a good week,

Very Reverend Mark D. Reyling, V.F.
Pastor

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST JUNE 19TH

About Dining in the Kingdom of God. Luke's gospel is filled with meal stories. Most of them point to the Eucharistic Meal, as does the one today. Four verbs stand out: take, bless, break, give. This is eucharistic language repeated at every Mass. It is Jesus who truly took and blessed his Body and Blood – broke it and poured it out for each and for all of us – and gives to us to eat and drink – so that we may be like him and act like him.

- ◆ Because of my sharing in the Eucharistic Feast, how will I be a blessing to family, colleagues, neighbors?
- ◆ Because of my sharing in the Eucharistic Feast, how will I break open my life for the benefit of another?
- ◆ Because of my sharing in the Eucharistic Feast, what will I give away? If stumped, think of the mercy works.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Good dietitians will remind us that we are not only the product of what we eat but the disciplines we undertake. Many people spend a great deal of time and effort eating a healthy diet, getting a sufficient amount of rest, and engaging in regular exercise. Experts tell us that attending to these increases our chances for a longer life. While this is certainly a worthy pursuit, is our earthly life really the one that requires the most attention and effort? Faith kicks in to remind us that we are meant to live forever with God. Hence, isn't it our eternal destiny that requires most of our effort and attention? The food and nourishment we need to achieve this goal and fine tune our souls for this promised inheritance are the Body and Blood of Christ. Only this heavenly sustenance will unite us with God and our brothers and sisters, strengthen us to do what the Gospel asks us to do and prepare us for life eternal. Through the discipline of prayer, our desire to receive our Lord is deepened. It is this yearning, above anything else, that we want clearly seen and front and center when we close our eyes in death. God loves us so much that he gave us his only begotten Son. Let us rush to receive him!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Sir Thomas More was a humanist and statesman in Tudor England. He is still widely known today as the author of Utopia. More was a prolific writer and theologian. A true martyr of the Church, he was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886, and canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 19, 1935.

More was born in London in 1478, the son of Sir John More, a lawyer and judge. He attended Oxford where he studied Latin and Greek, as well as formal logic. He left Oxford in 1494 to train as a lawyer in London. After attaining the Bar, he spent time discerning a call to the priesthood. Though attracted to the Franciscan order More remained a lay Christian, continuing to fast, pray, and wear a hair shirt. He was married twice, the loving father of three daughters, a stepdaughter by his second marriage, and one son. More wrote many letters to his children when he was away on business and his daughters were known for their academic abilities, as they received the same education as his son, an anomaly at the time.

More rose to the Privy Council in 1514. He became the good friend and advisor to Henry VIII, and in 1521 he was knighted. In 1529 he was made Lord Chancellor of England. However, this appointment was the beginning of the end for the saint. He could not support the break with the Church in Rome when Henry failed to receive from the Pope the annulment of his first marriage to Katherine of Aragon to wed Anne Boleyn. More resigned as Lord Chancellor and continued to refuse to accept Henry as the head of the Church in England. Eventually he was imprisoned, tried, and sentenced to a traitor's death, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. Henry commuted the sentence of his former friend to the more humane beheading. More was executed at Tower Hill, on July 6, 1535, before his death he famously proclaimed that he was "the king's good servant, but God's first."

VOCATIONS CORNER... Today we celebrate the gift of Eucharist. This gift is what truly defines us as Catholics. We rejoice that Jesus gave His Body and Blood for our redemption. This is the remembrance we commemorate during each Liturgy. This is only possible through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass which is celebrated by a priest. We are challenged to pray for more priests; we are challenged to encourage those who may have a calling to Holy Orders. Pose the question: "Have you ever considered being a priest?"
