MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parish Family

For freedom Christ set us free.

Freedom is always an interesting discussion. People will say "I have the right to..." Well, maybe not the right. You are free to choose, but you are not free from the consequences of the choice you make.

By the death and resurrection of Christ we were freed from our sins... but only in that we choose to keep ourselves free from sin. Yes, there is reconciliation for our sins, but we have to choose to be reconciled with God.

Once while I was in Freeburg, the church was broken into and vandalized. The police caught the three culprits. I told the folks that I was attending the court proceedings when a parishioner said...."aren't we about forgiveness....you are going to attend so that they get punished." I told them that we are about forgiveness, but even in forgiveness there is a penance - something that we must do to make up for our sins. They were given community service and the parents had to make restitution to the parish for the damage.

What stands in our way of freely giving ourselves over to Christ? That's the Gospel question. What stands in our way of regularly attending Mass? What stands in our way of helping others? What stands in our way of being the Body of Christ in our world? In the Gospel, Jesus said to follow him.... they all had excuses of things that were more pressing.... more important.

What can possibly be more important than following the one who gave His life on the cross so that we might truly be free from our sins.

Shortly our nation will celebrate July 4th. A day to honor our freedom. Always remember what my grandfather would tell me...freedom comes with responsibility.

Have a good week,

Very Reverend Mark D. Reyling, V.F.
 Pastor

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JUNE 26TH

About Our Journey. After his ministry in Galilee, Jesus sets his face for Jerusalem. Many disciples follow him to this destination, his destiny - as should we. For following Jesus is our call. It is our central task. It is our salvation. We do this not alone but with others.

- ◆ In following Jesus, what am I called to leave behind?
- ◆ In following Jesus, what must I pick up and take with me?
- ◆ In following Jesus, what salvation will this bring about?

Please pray for the sick;

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Sapienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.

VOCATIONS CORNER... This weekend, we mark another anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. "On the 51st anniversary, Charles Carroll, the only Catholic to have signed the Declaration and the last surviving signer, said, "God grant that this religious liberty may be preserved in these States to the end of time, and that all believing in the religion of Christ may practice the leading principle of charity, the basis of every virtue." Today is a time for choosing how we will keep faith with the great accomplishments of our Catholic forebears as we seek to make our own contributions. If we or someone in your family is called by the Holy Spirit to a religious vocation we should encourage and accept this challenge as we are all endowed by our Creator with life and liberty. " Columbia, "Culture of Life", Oct. 2015, pg. 47.
