MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parish Family

Yes, I am away for vacation but I wrote this Monday before I left. Lots of things to keep in prayer this week. Today (Monday July 11th) marks two years since Fr. Ken passed away. May He rest in peace.

Saturday is the Feast of our Patroness – Our Lady of Mt Carmel. Through her intercession, may our prayers be heard and answered by God and may she always watch over us and guide us as her children.

Saturday also marks the day two years ago when you poor folks received word that I was going to be your new Pastor (God love ya). Thank you for making me feel welcome and allowing me to get settled in – and for allowing me to take care of Mom during her last months of her life. I look forward to many, many more years here in Herrin with y'all.

If all is going as planned – the Texas Reyplings plus one Yankee from Illinois are gathered together for food, drink, and a swim.

Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. See ya when I get home.

Have a good week,

Very Reverend Mark D. Reyling, V.F.
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We become a welcoming person when we can step aside from our own needs and desires to create space for someone else. Welcoming involves a quality of listening and presence that communicates to another person that what they are sharing and who they are have importance. When we shift attention and focus from ourselves and direct it toward someone else, positive things can happen. When someone knows that their story matters, it can be life changing and life-giving. Hospitality brings forth life and celebrates relationships. Whether we are actively tending to the business of serving the needs of others or opening ourselves to listening to their story, devotion and attentiveness are friends of love. Becoming anxious and preoccupied with one's personal agenda leaves no room for the creative, nurturing and spontaneous power of God's love.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsson. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden.

Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget's Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband's death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today.

Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun's habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370.

Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe.

VOCATIONS CORNER... "I was 24 years old, and having fallen away from the faith, I felt broken, lost and unfulfilled in life. One Sunday morning, I decided to go back to Mass, where I felt a great peace wash over me. I suddenly fell in love with the Lord and asked him about my vocation in this life. It would still be another 10 years before I entered seminary, but God's grace always works at the right time. That initial spark of love for the Lord deepened over those years through my experience of going to Mass, confession and Eucharist Adoration, preparing me to finally say yes to the priesthood. Now, as a newly ordained priest of Jesus Christ, I feel fulfilled in answering God's call."

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
