EASTER SUNDAY

Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed.

The Sunday Bulletin

A New Bishop Pope Francis announced this past Tuesday, March 19, that he had accepted Bishop William Callahan's retirement request and appointed Bishop Gerard Battersby to succeed him and serve as the 11th Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse.

Bishop Battersby was born on May 15, 1960. In 1993, he entered Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit and received a Master of Divinity degree in 1998. After ordination to the priesthood, he served in parish ministry for ten years. He then served at Sacred Heart Major Seminary where he was appointed Vice-Rector and Dean of Formation in 2011. He was ordained as an Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit and Moderator of its South Region in January 2017.

Bishop Battersby will be installed as the Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse on May 20 at the Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman in La Crosse. Please keep him in your prayers.

Domestic Church Domestic Church is a movement for sacramentally married couples, fostering Catholic Christian community and lifelong spiritual formation through small groups and retreats. It draws its inspiration from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which describes the family as the ecclesia domestica or the domestic church. Couples involved in Domestic Church experience personal and shared spiritual growth, finding support to deepen their unity, pass on their faith to their children, and navigate faithful Catholic living amidst contemporary challenges.

There will be a retreat for those interested in considering becoming involved with the Domestic Church movement on April 13-14 in Wisconsin Rapids and a potential retreat here in Marshfield later this fall. For more information and to let us know if you are interested, please scan the QR code to the left or visit <https://forms.gle/cQRBCKvg4kMdtLQq5>

Diocesan Annual Appeal As you know, our Diocesan Annual Appeal funds the critical activities of seminarian education, Catholic school resources, and charitable outreach, which are vital for maintaining church ministries and fostering community growth and vibrancy. Every parishioner's support is crucial for the Appeal's success in advancing our Catholic mission of faith, education, and service. Sadly, this late into the Appeal, only 16% or only 121 families out of 746 families from Our Lady of Peace Parish have made a pledge or donation to this year's Annual Appeal; equally as sad, only 15% or 59 families out of 402 families from Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish have made a pledge or donation. Our Lady of Peace is short $73,361.00 of its Appeal Goal and Sacred Heart of Jesus is short $23,940.00. If you have not yet made a pledge or donation, please scan the QR code to the left or go to <https://diolc.org/donate-online/> and do so. Thank you for your support.

That Man Is You All men are invited this Tuesday, April 2, at 6:00 a.m. in Dillenburg Hall at Our Lady of Peace.

Saint of the week

Venerable Francis-Xavier Nguyễn Văn Thuận, was a cardinal from Huế, Vietnam. Imprisoned for his faith for 13 years, nine of which were in solitary confinement, he never stopped preaching, even from scraps of prison paper. Once released, he continued to serve the Church until his death.

Prayer of Blessing

Dear Lord,
Pour your blessings upon us today, we who trust in your name and call upon you. Send us your Spirit, enlighten our hearts, fill our lives with your abundance. Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

— Father John Muir

Questions of the Week

First Reading

In his speech, Peter places much emphasis on his personal witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. To whom this week could you witness your faith in the resurrection of Jesus?

Second Reading

Paul taught the believers in Colossae to anticipate the return of the resurrected Jesus. How does your family celebrate Easter Sunday?

Gospel Question

Mary Magdala, Peter, and the Beloved Disciple were the first to experience the joy and mystery of the empty tomb. Do you recall when you first started believing in the resurrection of Jesus?
