The Sunday Bulletin

A New Bishop Pope Francis announced this past Tuesday, March 19, that he had accepted Bishop William Callahan's retirement request and appointed Bishop Gerard Battersby to succeed him and serve as the 11th Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse.

Bishop Battersby was born on May 15, 1960. In 1993, he entered Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit and received a Master of Divinity degree in 1998. After ordination to the priesthood, he served in parish ministry for ten years. He then served at Sacred Heart Major Seminary where he was appointed Vice-Rector and Dean of Formation in 2011. He was ordained as an Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit and Moderator of its South Region in January 2017.

Bishop Battersby will be installed as the Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse on May 20 at the Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman in La Crosse. Please keep him in your prayers.

Domestic Church Domestic Church is a movement for sacramentally married couples, fostering Catholic Christian community and lifelong spiritual formation through small groups and retreats. It draws its inspiration from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which describes the family as the ecclesia domestica or the domestic church. Couples involved in Domestic Church experience personal and shared spiritual growth, finding support to deepen their unity, pass on their faith to their children, and navigate faithful Catholic living amidst contemporary challenges.

There will be a retreat for those interested in considering becoming involved with the Domestic Church movement on April 13-14 in Wisconsin Rapids and a potential retreat here in Marshfield later this fall. For more information and to let us know if you are interested, please scan the QR code to the left or visit <https://forms.gle/cQRBCKvg4kMdtLQq5>

Diocesan Annual Appeal As you know, our Diocesan Annual Appeal funds the critical activities of seminarian education, Catholic school resources, and charitable outreach, which are vital for maintaining church ministries and fostering community growth and vibrancy. Every parishioner's support is crucial for the Appeal's success in advancing our Catholic mission of faith, education, and service. Sadly, this late into the Appeal, only 16% or only 121 families out of 746 families from Our Lady of Peace Parish have made a pledge or donation to this year's Annual Appeal; equally as sad, only 15% or 59 families out of 402 families from Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish have made a pledge or donation. Our Lady of Peace is short $73,361.00 of its Appeal Goal and Sacred Heart of Jesus is short $23,940.00. If you have not yet made a pledge or donation, please scan the QR code to the left or go to <https://diolc.org/donate-online/> and do so. Thank you for your support.

Saint of the week

St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, was the most prolific Christian missionary of all time. Due to a miraculous experience that he had on the road to Damascus, he went from persecuting early Christians to traveling all over the region preaching the Gospel of Jesus.

Prayer in Times of Darkness

Dear Jesus,
When I feel troubled, alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness. Help me to know you in the stark seasons as I do in times of elation. You are the light I seek.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, “If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!” As a lifelong late-arriver, it’s something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the “it counts” is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous “Road to Emmaus” story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus’ presence in the “breaking of the bread.”

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that’s precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

— Father John Muir

The Twist Ending

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the “dead main character trope” fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say “spoiler alert,” but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you’ve probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story.

I’m always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You’ve come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth.

I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don’t like to have the rug pulled out. It’s why he is so up-front about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It’s what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger.

The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time.

“Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” — Luke 24:39

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I’ve heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God’s image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess “I believe in the resurrection of the body.” As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time.

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

Peter challenges the religious leaders of Jerusalem who put Jesus to death to repent of their sins and be converted. Have you ever seen someone have a conversion to the Faith?

Second Reading:

John tells us that we should turn to Jesus, our Advocate, when we sin and fail to keep his commandments. Can you think of a time when you sought Jesus in a time of need?

Gospel Reading:

The resurrected Jesus taught the disciples how they were witnesses to the Scriptures being fulfilled in his suffering, death, and resurrection and that forgiveness of sins was to be preached in his name. How might you share your faith this week at home or at work?

If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion.
