Dear Parishioners:

Black at a Funeral?

Historically, priests were required to wear black for funeral Masses but, more recently, the option has developed to wear black, violet or white. All three of these colors have their own unique and beautiful symbolism. Black symbolizes mourning and loss while reminding us of the need to pray for all those who have died. Violet symbolizes our need to offer sacrifice and penance for ourselves. White symbolizes the hope we have in the resurrection and God’s desire for us to be happy with Him forever in Heaven. Even though some people see black and think it’s too somber or, even worse, some sort of commentary on the state of the deceased person’s soul, this is simply not the case! When we wear black it is meant to show the very real pain of loss, our state of mourning and the need to pray for those who have passed from this life to the next. What greater gift can we give to those who we have loved and lost than to pray for their eternal rest?

Blessings,
Fr. Scott

Semitarian Collection Kickoff

A spiritual family needs spiritual fathers. That is why the Annual Seminarian Collection: Hope for the Future. Help them Today is so important. By now you most likely received a letter from Bishop Ricken requesting your help in supporting our local seminarians. Please return your generous contribution to this collection, using the pledge card and return envelope you received in the mail. A gift of $25, $100, $250, $500 or more will help our seminarians move forward in their work of becoming missionary disciples. Every gift makes a difference. Our seminarians are our Hope for the Future. Let up Help them Today! As a Diocese, we anticipate costs of $1,000,000 this year for tuition, room and board, health insurance, support of the Office of Vocations and the work of Fr. Mark Mleziva and Fr. Adam Bradley. Friends and followers of Jesus support one another! To make your gift today, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

We can’t do it without you!

Who LOVES Bucket Raffles?

We will again have a limited number of baskets in a bucket raffle. You can purchase tickets and place them in a bucket for a chance to win. We are in need of items for this portion of the auction. If you would like to donate a basket for this raffle, please tell them when you drop it off at the center that it is for the Bucket Raffle. Thanks for all the continued support. We are blessed to have so many wonderful parish members to help us out year after year. This is in addition to the Silent Auction.
