Donut Distributors Needed!

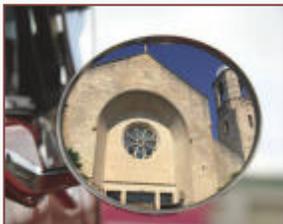

The Hospitality Ministry has been given the go-ahead to resume serving coffee & donuts after mass (YESSSSSS!), and we are looking for volunteers to set-up/clean-up before/after 9:30 mass, either by joining this ministry as part of a rotating crew, or by taking a turn with another ministry, classmates, neighbors, etc. We are also looking for volunteers to serve donuts as well as inviting 7:30 mass regulars to set up coffee service for their fellow mass-goers.

For more information or to sign up, please type tinyurl.com/olwdonuts in your web browser, or contact Elizabeth Bauer at 224.531.0883 or by email olwdonuts@gmail.com.

We're Looking for a Wheels to Worship Chairperson

Our Lady of the Wayside is looking for a Chairperson to lead our Wheels to Worship Ministry.

What is Wheels to Worship?

The Wheels to Worship Ministry is a group of volunteers who practice discipleship by driving our parish's older adults to Mass on Sunday — making it possible for them to participate and to receive the Holy Eucharist.

The Wheels to Worship Chairperson is responsible for coordinating this process — lining up those needing rides with those who have wheels, an open seat, and the will to be a difference-maker.

If you are interested in being Chairperson of OLW's Wheels to Worship Ministry, or would like additional information, please contact Kathy O'Neill, Coordinator of Pastoral Healthcare, at (224) 518-1780 or parishnurse@olwparish.org.

Follow Deacon Paul on Twitter!

If you have or intend to create a Twitter account, be sure to follow Deacon Paul, whose Twitter handle is @DcnPaulOnischuk. Deacon Paul looks forward to using this channel to the evangelize the Good News by...

1. conveying daily intentions
2. promoting prayer
3. highlighting key religious observances and events

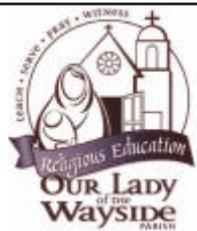

Deacon Paul promises to keep all informed and relishes the opportunity to connect. Until then, God's peace, blessings, and grace to you and yours.

Deacon Paul Onischuk

REFLECTION

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

Father Arthur Marat

In the Gospel Jesus tells us that we should be like children. What does it mean to be like a child in the 21st century? It means to look at the world through the eyes of faith. Faith transforms how we see everything and gives us a different way of understanding difficulties. Faith gives us a sense of security knowing that we are immersed in God's Love.

Thanks to faith, we discover that, contrary to what we think, we are not the protagonists of history—God is. When we look at the world like a child, we discover God's presence in everything: society, social events, the economy, our difficulties, our everyday lives. God is everywhere. Everything depends on Him, and He speaks through every event. He holds the fate of the world and each of us in His own hands.

Today, the weather, the economy, our families—so much that we know seems to be in a state of havoc, reminding us that we need to turn to God like little children and put our faith in Him. For a long time, it has been easy to rely on the comforts of home, more predictable weather patterns, less polarity in the political sphere, life without coronavirus, a more consistent and unified voice in the Church, and more reasoned and reasonable thinking and behavior among people. As these aspects of our lives and the world as we knew it seems to crumble before us, God is providing us with an amazing opportunity to allow Him to be the protagonist of history. He is inviting us to turn to Him in prayer, to trust in His assistance, and to have faith that—no matter what happens—He will guide us and provide for us as Our Loving Father in Heaven.

When we begin to live with childlike faith, then we, like the saints, will experience peace, joy, and happiness even in the greatest challenges. And who knows? Perhaps God will even give us the grace and courage to become saints ourselves in the process.

Yours in Christ,
Father Arthur

PS: I'd like to offer my special thanks to all leaders and volunteers who participated in Our Lady of the Wayside's Ministry Fair last Sunday. Your hard work and dedication to our parish is deeply appreciated! I'd also like to encourage those not involved in ministries to prayerfully consider joining at least one. Discipleship is not a passive activity.

Please support the Gloria Rebek Scholarship Fund this weekend.

Gloria Rebek Scholarship Fund

Our Lady of the Wayside School is dedicated to enriching our students' minds, fostering a deep and meaningful faith in each child, and expanding their talents.

We strive to make sure that no family is turned away because of financial need. The Gloria Rebek Scholarship Fund continues to be an important means of providing help for families finding themselves on hard times.

Some families have a one-time need so they don't have to take their children out of our school. Some families apply yearly for scholarship aid because providing a Catholic education for their children is important, but financially out of reach.

A scholarship fund is always in need of donations and a gift of any size makes an impact to this worthy fund. We ask that you give generously during the second collection that is designated for the Gloria Rebek Scholarship Fund. Donations made by check should include REBEK in the memo line and can be placed in the baskets at Mass or brought to the parish or school office. Donations can also be made through GiveCentral or on the school website, olwschool.org, using the DONATE link at the top of the website.

A Special Guest Dropped In At... Our Lady of the Wayside's Ministry Fair

Thanks to our wonderful Our Lady of the Wayside Ministry leaders and volunteers for enduring the hot sun and sharing ministry information with our parishioners.

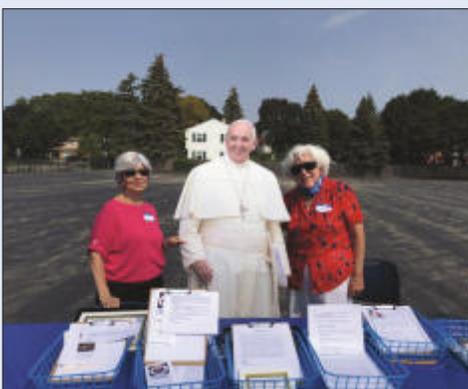

Those who worked the Fair or who attended were rewarded by the appearance of a very special guest...

For those who didn't drop by to visit the tables, and/or who are not presently involved in OLW ministries, we encourage you to please learn about OLW's ministries and prayerfully consider participating in them. Our parish is only as good as its ministries, and our ministries are only as good as volunteers who actively participate in them.

As Catholics and disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to action. Practicing our faith is not a passive activity. Our Lady of the Wayside needs of more #doers and #differencemakers. Please be open to Jesus' call to service.

A big OLW shout out of gratitude to the Stuber Family for tirelessly working to plan and execute this year's Ministry Fair. Shout outs also to OLW School and High School volunteers for your muscle and smiles during setup and tear down. You were truly inspirational!

Looking at Screens All The Time? Here's how to take care of your eyes.

In a world already filled with screens and screen time, COVID-19 has meant even more hours in front of computers, televisions and smart phones for many people across all ages.

Too much screen time has shown to affect sleep, has strong links to obesity and other issues, but it can also have a big effect on what you use to do that staring — your eyes.

“For many reasons, cutting down on screen time is challenging for most, especially with so many working remotely and spending more time than ever before in front of computer screens, mobile phones and television monitors,” says Dr. Shelby Helmeid, an optometrist at Aurora Health Center in Hartford, WI. “But even taking some small steps can do a world of good for your eye health and eyesight.”

It is important to note, she says, that computer overuse generally will not permanently damage the eyes. Instead, it can cause eye-strain – a common but uncomfortable condition that can cause:

- Eye soreness, tiredness and dryness
- Headaches
- Neck and shoulder pain
- Reduced attention span and problems concentrating
- Blurred or double vision

While we can't divorce our lives from screens entirely, Dr.

Helmeid recommends these self-care tips to help manage and possibly eliminate symptoms:

- Take breaks: This is one of the most straightforward and effective solutions. To help ease eyestrain, a good rule of thumb is to use the popular “20/20/20” exercise. Take a 20 second break every 20 minutes to look at something 20 feet away from you.
- Keep proper posture: Proper desk ergonomics isn't just for your spine, wrists and hips. Your screen should be upwards of two to three feet away from your eyes as well as at eye level to reduce the amount of work your eyes must do to read what's on it.
- Reduce screen glare: Another consideration for your office or entertainment set-up is cutting down glare from the sun or other bright lights. While it's not as powerful as staring straight at the source, it can still cause problems for your eyes if you stare too long at a bright reflection.
- Don't forget to blink: When the human brain focuses on something, our eyes tend to blink less and more quickly than usual when focusing on something. That leads to further strain and dryness. Be sure to incorporate some slow blinks as you work.
- Consider enlarging your type: Looking at larger type can help people of all ages who spend a lot of time reading.
- Consider special glasses for older people: For some, optometrists can prescribe special glasses specifically for computer use. Ask your optometrist if they are right for you.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

September 19, 2021

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let the Good News resound

Religion is often reduced to its most visible aspect: Sunday worship. But the church's ministry includes service, evangelization, healing, and teaching. On Catechetical Sunday we celebrate our mutual call to educate and instruct. "Catechize" means to echo or resound. Saint Paul once modeled for the Corinthians this task of "re-sounding" the Good News when he wrote: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." Does your Catholic faith steer you when making decisions and weighing values? Does it bring consolation? Does it challenge you to sacrifice? Echo these riches to those you love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20; James 3:16—4:3; Mark 9:30-37 (134). "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me."

Monday, Sep 20, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GÖN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHÖNG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Sound the depths of your faith

This year marks the 200th anniversary of the birth of Andrew Kim Tae-gön, the first native-born Korean priest and patron saint of Korea. He was one of an estimated 10,000 who were martyred for their Christian faith in Korea in the 19th century. The theme of the bicentenary celebration is "Are you Catholic?" because Andrew's "yes" to that question during interrogation cost him his life. The bishop of the Korean city of Daejeon said the theme "calls us to reflect seriously on our identity and our consistency as Catholics." Take this opportunity to consider what your Catholic identity means to you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezra 1:1-6; Luke 8:16-18 (449). "No one who lights a lamp conceals it with a vessel or sets it under a bed."

Tuesday, Sep 21, 2021

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST

Let peace begin with me

The United Nations designates today as the International Day of Peace. It's also the feast of Saint Matthew—the evangelist whose list of Beatitudes includes the words "blessed are the peacemakers." According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the "Beatitudes are at the heart of Jesus' preaching." They "shed light on the actions and attitudes characteristic of the Christian life" and are the "paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulations." Matthew must have experienced such tribulations when he, as a hated tax collector, joined the other apostles. Be a peacemaker today, especially among people you're nearest to.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I desire mercy, not sacrifice."

Wednesday, Sep 22, 2021

Share the wealth

Power sharing and collaborative ministry are thorny questions within church circles and many faith communities. Jesus can be our model and our guide, in this as in all questions. When he sent the apostles out he did so in pairs and "gave them power and authority." Add it up and it equals shared, collaborative ministry. Those who are sure of their own authority are able to share it freely and without fear. More ministries and leadership positions will open up in the church when those with power learn to trust the faith community the way Jesus did.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezra 9:5-9; Luke 9:1-6 (451). "He sent them to proclaim the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick."

Thursday, Sep 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PIUS OF PIETRELCINA, PRIEST

Be an everyday mystic

In a secular world that prizes material possessions, the mystical aspect of the church can captivate. Saint Padre Pio (1887-1968) certainly drew attention for his mystical attributes. A relatively obscure Italian Capuchin priest, he gained fame for reportedly displaying the wounds of Christ, called stigmata, and for his insightful (some called it psychic) abilities as a confessor. He spent up to 10 hours a day with people who sought guidance and forgiveness in Confession. Only a few of us become mystics, but all can seek holiness and insight. Today meditate and act on the path to holiness that God has placed before you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Haggai 1:1-8; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Friday, Sep 24, 2021

Grounded in a sense of belonging

In our Western mindset, we often think of land as "property," owned and available for human use. But if we hope to stem climate change, we need to realize it's really the other way around. The land doesn't belong to us; we belong to the land. Writes Pope Francis in his encyclical on caring for creation, Laudato Si': "Many things have to change course, but it is we human beings above all who need to change. We lack an awareness of our common origin, of our mutual belonging, and of a future to be shared with everyone." How will you commit to the care of this land that sustains us in so many ways?

TODAY'S READINGS: Haggai 2:1-9; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "In this place I will give you peace."

Saturday, Sep 25, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Ripe with possibilities

Jesus was born to Mary "in the fullness of time," as one scripture passage puts it. This rich metaphor of time ripening rings true to human experience. Think of the blessings in your own life, and how they have developed often from small beginnings or mere glimmers of hope: deep and lasting relationships, hard-earned insights, lifelong achievements and legacies. Good things take time, patience, perseverance, courage, and perhaps most of all, trust. Think of Mary's journey of trust in response to God's call, and make it your own. And may the blessings in your own life ripen in the fullness of time!

TODAY'S READINGS: Zechariah 2:5-9, 14-15a; Luke 9:43b-45 (454). "Sing and rejoice, O daughter Zion! See, I am coming to dwell among you, says the LORD."

To Be Announced

Chairperson, Worship & Spiritual Life

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith in order to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and/or Confirmation, please call the parish office.

Sacrament of Baptism

Please contact Deacon Peter LeTourneau at the parish office to schedule a baptism. A baptismal preparation session is required for your first child.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday 9:30 am to 10:30 am. Or, contact the parish office to schedule a time.

Sacrament of Marriage

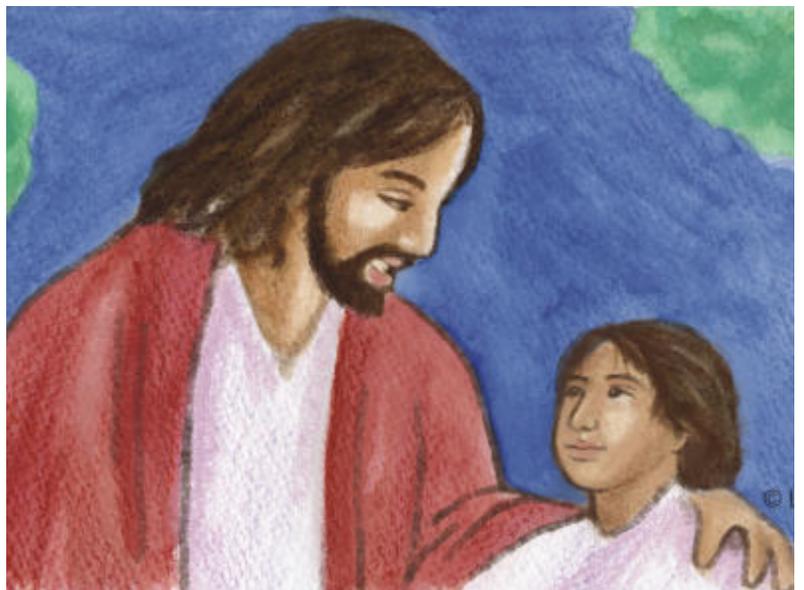

Contact the parish office at least six months prior to a preferred date for necessary preparation.

Holy Communion for the Homebound & Hospitalized

Please contact Kathy O'Neill at the parish office.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Homebound or ill wanting to receive this Sacrament and the Eucharist, please contact the parish office.

Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." - Mk 9:36-37
