Please be aware there is a scam going around with someone calling or texting you pretending to be one of our parish clergy members asking for money or gift cards. None of the parish clergy will call, text, or e-mail you asking for gift cards or money. If you receive such a communication, it is a scam. Do not reply. In all cases, please call the parish office if something does not seem right. Thank you.

OFFICE NOTES: If you have a change of address, phone number, or other change in status, please be sure to contact the parish office so that your parish record can be updated. You may telephone the office or e-mail at parishoffice@our-lady.org with the update.

Did you know that OLQH offers all parishioners the opportunity to set up automatic deposits of your monthly church contributions directly from your bank account? Many parishioners find this to be a convenient, safe, and efficient method of conducting their parish support. Even when you fly south for the winter or vacation in summer, you can be sure that the parish will receive your monthly contributions on time. Please pick up a Payment Authorization Form from the rack outside the parish office or download one at www.our-lady.org/contact

This Sunday throughout the world, many parishes will partake in the Rite of Sending. In this Rite, the parish priest will bless those who are on their way to becoming Catholic. They will then be sent by the parish priest to their Diocesan Cathedral in which they will meet their Vicar General to receive his blessing and encouragement. At the Cathedral the RCIA participants partake in the Rite of Election in which they will receive the great graces that they will need in their final RCIA period of "Purification and Enlightenment" before they enter the fullness of the Catholic faith. The vicar general will encourage the RCIA candidates to take their faith seriously and allow Christ, through His Church, to transform their lives to become His holy disciples. Please keep our candidates in your prayers.

Lent is a time for prayer, fasting, almsgiving and drawing closer to God. It is also a time to grow in the faith and if you want to do that we have the opportunity for you. We will be sharing a program "No Greater Love" by Dr. Edward Sri. It is a biblical walk through Christ's passion. Dr. Sri will take us on a journey to the Holy Land and Christ's journey to the cross. It is a pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. It will take place on Thursdays at 9:00 am and 5:30 pm. All are welcomed to join us. Workbooks are available if you want to purchase one. Please call the office and let us know if you would like one. They will cost about $15. The dates will be March 17, 24, 31 and April 7. Again...all are welcomed.

The new greeter schedule is being made out. If anyone would like to be a greeter or would like more information on how to become a greeter, please call the office and we will get you set up. Being a greeter is an extremely important ministry for our church. We invite anyone to join that ministry.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

On Wednesday, March 2nd, the Church celebrated Ash Wednesday and we began the Lenten Season. During Lent, our lives as Christians are punctuated by the three great pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. The Season of Lent is a penitential season: a season in which we show sorrow and repentance for our sins. We prepare through self-denial and devotion for the coming Easter celebration in which we celebrate the fact that Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld.

Why do we use ashes to begin our penance? Placing ashes on one's head is biblical: Daniel begged God for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes; when tempted, Job sat in the ashes rather than sin; in the Book of Esther, we read that Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes in mourning; finally, our Lord cries woe to the unrepentant cities of Chorazin and Bethsaida who should have repented by sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Our Lord has commanded us: "When you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not appear to be fasting, except to your Father who is hidden."

Growing up at my home parish in La Crosse, on each Sunday in Lent the pastor would pray the Stations before Mass. The booklets used were the very familiar Stations according to the method of St. Alphonsus Liguori. Since I grew up praying this version of the Stations, I always felt comfortable praying them. When I got to the seminary in Winona, Minnesota, we prayed the Stations of the Cross quite differently. Each Friday, a group of fourteen seminarians were chosen to write their own Stations of the Cross and that collection of meditations were prayed. It seemed so different to me because I was used to the words of St. Alphonsus Liguori. There were times I felt upset by my brothers' meditations since I didn't think they "hit the mark" in the right way. When I got to the major seminary, we used yet a different booklet. Eventually I realized that the important part about the Stations of the Cross is meditating on the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus, not which words we use to do that. It took me a long time to realize that. Let us all during this Lenten Season take the time to pray the Stations, whether in Church or at home, and truly and earnestly meditate on our Lord's Passion and Death.

The late 10th century English abbot and writer, Ælfric of Eynsham, tells us: "in both the Old Testament and the New, men who repented of their sins bestrewed themselves with ashes and clothed their bodies with sackcloth. Now let us do this little [thing] at the beginning of our Lent—that we strew ashes upon our heads to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during the Lenten fast." The purpose of the ashes is to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during Lent. That being said, I wish you all a blessed Lent!

—Father Guanella
