Please remember in your prayers

Colleen Bord

May God grant her eternal rest.

Please be aware there is a scam going around with someone calling or texting you pretending to be one of our parish clergy members asking for money or gift cards. None of the parish clergy will call, text, or e-mail you asking for gift cards or money. If you receive such a communication, it is a scam. Do not reply. In all cases, please call the parish office if something does not seem right. Thank you.

OFFICE NOTES: If you have a change of address, phone number, or other change in status, please be sure to contact the parish office so that your parish record can be updated. You may telephone the office or e-mail at parishoffice@our-lady.org with the update.

Did you know that OLQH offers all parishioners the opportunity to set up automatic deposits of your monthly church contributions directly from your bank account? Many parishioners find this to be a convenient, safe, and efficient method of conducting their parish support. Even when you fly south for the winter or vacation in summer, you can be sure that the parish will receive your monthly contributions on time. Please pick up a Payment Authorization Form from the rack outside the parish office or download one at www.our-lady.org/contact

No Greater Love... A Biblical Walk Through Christ's Passion presented by Dr. Edward Sri will be shared on five Thursdays during Lent at 9:00 am and 5:30 pm. Anyone can join us for that. This week we will look at the "Death of the Messiah." The chief priests succeeded in their plans. They pressured Pilate into sending Jesus off to be crucified. Pilate knew Jesus was innocent. Even though he knows the facts of Jesus' innocence, Pilate does not believe in truth. His "What is truth?" philosophy leaves him with no standard to guide him through this touch situation. So he does what many people today do when they do not believe in truth – acts in his own self-interest regardless of how it affects others. Pilate defines "his own truth" to protect his reputation and career. Without an objective truth to guide him – a truth that is true for everyone – Pilate sends an innocent man off to be crucified. It is a most amazing journey.

Home Delivered Meals

Tom and Val Pankonen are looking to recruit volunteers from Our Lady Queen of Heaven parish to sponsor drivers for an Aspirus Riverview Hospital Home Delivered Meals route one week per month. Delivering hot, nutritious meals to some of our most vulnerable can be a very rewarding experience as it provides us with the opportunity to put our faith in action by serving others. For those interested in giving about an hour of their time once per month (or more as desired), please contact the parish office with your name, address and phone number at (715) 423-1251. A brief orientation to the Aspirus Home Delivered Meals program will be arranged along with completions of some simple paper work. Many thanks for your consideration. This is a wonderful opportunity to help our community.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

It will now be two times per month during the 10:00 am Mass. The next date is March 20th. Children ages preschool to 4th grade can take part. Children are called forward for a blessing and then are accompanied to a classroom where they hear the readings, have a discussion about the readings, recite the creed and share prayer intentions. Parents can accompany their children if the children are apprehensive. Please encourage your children to take part.

Fourth Sunday of Lent
THE TOUCH OF THE MASTER'S HAND

The Gospel message for the third week of Lent, is referred to as the "Last Gospel," for it talks about how we are battered in life. We are scarred and damaged by our sins. Yet, we find that each and every day of our lives the good Lord gives us that second chance to experience "Metanoia" that change to our heart and soul. We are given that second chance by the touch of the "Master's Hand."

Every year now for the past several years, myself and other Deacons from the area, minister to the inmates at the local county jail. This is a very humbling experience. I would like to repeat a story of one inmate who found these two-hour visits to be the turning point in his life. I will call this inmate Mike, who we met, while in jail, a couple of years ago. It was a few months ago that I was approached by a young man who stated he was Mike, the one who we visited in jail, and he thanked me profusely for talking to him about turning one's life around to Jesus. Mike was able to go back to that fork in the road that led him down a life of addiction and crime. He saw the narrow path, the path that put Jesus number one in his life.

Mike overcame his addictions, was forgiven, and did his time, the consequences for his actions. Since that time Mike met a beautiful young lady and now is making a life together with her, and their newborn daughter. The "Metanoia" in Mike's life, his change, is apparent as I have talked to him now several times, to the point where once he goes through the necessary procedures, will join us in our jail ministry group. Mike will be able to empathize with the inmates, for he has walked the walk. Now he can talk the talk of one who found Jesus in his life.

Please pray for Mike as he must stay focused on the light of truth. For in life's difficulties it can be so easy to revert back to the wider path of the world.

Lent is that season that we are reminded of second chances, of the one who loved us first. A season where we strive to cultivate our own lives with the truth of the Cross.

I repeat again the beautiful poem that states; Is anybody happier because you passed his way? Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today? The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through; Is there anyone to utter a kindly word of you? Do you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along? Or a rude sort of "Howdy" and then vanish in the throng? Were you selfish pure and simple as you rushed along the way, or is someone mighty grateful for a deed you did today? Do you say tonight in parting with the day that is slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed? Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said; does a man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead? Did you waste the day or lose it, was it well or sorely spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent? As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, YOU HAVE EARNED ONE MORE TOMORROW BY THE WORK YOU DID TODAY?

What Parents Say About Assumption Catholic Schools

Parents of the students of your Catholic schools rave about the education their students receive. We are thankful for the spiritual leadership, teaching the same virtues and values at school that our children receive at home, the tenderness and caring of teachers, the smaller class sizes support quality learning practice, the participation in school of other parents... the list is endless and priceless. Talk to a parent of an Assumption student. Consider enrolling your most precious child—for more information, please call 715/422-0901.

Assumption Catholic Schools Registration for the 2022-2023 School Year- Opens February 1st

At Assumption Catholic Schools, we strive to uphold our Mission-To inspire excellence and personal growth grounded in Catholic principles and tradition. Our curriculum provides a Christ-centered learning environment, using State and Diocesan educational standards. All ACS schools are Accredited. Class sizes are small, allowing us to give students the individual attention they deserve.
