PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Dear Friends in Christ,

We have reached the final part of our Lenten pilgrimage and made it to Holy Week. In 2011, I spent most of Holy Week in London, England at the Parish of Our Lady and St. George where I had spent the summer before on assignment as a seminarian. On that Palm Sunday 2011, Pope Benedict XVI gave a remarkable homily. I provide part of it below:

«It is a moving experience each year on Palm Sunday as we go up the mountain with Jesus, towards the Temple, accompanying him on his ascent. On this day, throughout the world and across the centuries, young people and people of every age acclaim him, crying out: “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”»

Our procession today is meant, then, to be an image of something deeper, to reflect the fact that, together with Jesus, we are setting out on pilgrimage along the high road that leads to the living God. This is the ascent that matters. This is the journey which Jesus invites us to make. But how can we keep pace with this ascent? Isn't it beyond our ability? Certainly, it is beyond our own possibilities. From the beginning men and women have been filled and this is as true today as ever with a desire to “be like God”, to attain the heights of God by their own powers. All the inventions of the human spirit are ultimately an effort to gain wings so as to rise to the heights of Being and to become independent, completely free, as God is free. Mankind has managed to accomplish so many things: we can fly! We can see, hear and speak to one another from the farthest ends of the earth. And yet the force of gravity which draws us down is powerful. With the increase of our abilities there has been an increase not only of good. Our possibilities for evil have increased and appear like menacing storms above history. Our limitations have also remained: we need but think of the disasters which have caused so much suffering for humanity in recent months.

We are on pilgrimage with the Lord to the heights. We are striving for pure hearts and clean hands, we are seeking truth, we are seeking the face of God. Let us show the Lord that we desire to be righteous, and let us ask him: Draw us upwards! Make us pure! Grant that the words which we sang in the processional psalm may also hold true for us; grant that we may be part of the generation which seeks God, “which seeks your face, O God of Jacob” (cf. Ps. 24:6). Amen.»

Fr. Guanella

ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEWS

Special Request-Students Needed

Thank you to all who have registered your kindergartener already. If you are anxious for your child to be taught in a classroom that is soaked with literacy and God's love, please contact the school office right away.

Registration is Still Open to All Area Children

Registration is still open at all of our Catholic schools in the area. I know, as parents, making the decision to give the opportunity of a lifetime to your child takes much thought. Assumption Catholic Schools is here for you. Your support for and participation in Catholic Education is appreciated. We will do all we can to get you what you need.

Spring Concert

Please mark your calendars for: St. Vincent de Paul's Spring Concert April 28 at 6:30p.m. This is truly a family affair. Feel free to bring your relatives and friends. Mrs. Erdmann is already working on the musical pieces with the children.

Collective Intentions:

Wednesday Mass Intentions: The Wednesday Mass intention will be a “collective intention.” This means that there is no limit to the number of Mass intentions for the Mass. Anyone can add to the collective intention. The $10 stipend is still requested (the priest only receives one, however). Everyone who submits an intention must be informed that the Mass will have a collective intention. Since open Mass intentions are few, this is a good way to have a Mass said for your loved ones. Please see Father Guanella if you have any questions.

The Shepherd's Loft takes donations of clothing on Tuesdays and Fridays from 9:00 to noon. They are located on Baker Street in the Wesleyan Church. Please do not bring items to our church, take directly to Shepherd's Loft.

The Homebound Ministry Group takes communion to people who are unable to come to church. If you know someone that is Catholic and homebound and would like to receive communion weekly, please call the office and we can arrange for someone to take communion to them.

The Mission Rosary Group

will meet on Wed., April 20th. Beginning in May we will meet the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month. All are welcome to attend.
